France Looks Ahead.
Snake and Spider.
No Bonus? No Cancellation.
The Restless Philippines.

—By ARTHUR BRISBANE—

BERLIN SAYS France is arranging to lend one hundred million yen, Japanese money, to the new "republic" of Manchukuo, where a Chinese puppet governs in the interest of Japan.

Japan would guarantee the loan. Germans believe that France considers it important to help Japan establish a strong position on the southern boundaries of Russian Siberia.

The French are wise in war matters, and able to look ahead.

TRAGIC HAPPENINGS in Charles, Ill. Scientists watched a ten-inch garter snake held prisoner in the web of a black spider, until Mayor I. G. Langum ended the contest, declaring the spider victorious, but releasing its captive. The spider had wrapped its silken ropes, much stronger in proportion to size than any steel cable made by man, around the snake's head. For twenty-four days, the snake, alive, had struggled vainly to escape.

THE SPIDER, apparently not strong enough to kill the snake, was daily wrapping more spider web around it.

Kind "cruelty to animals" sympathizers, protested. Science said the spider was entitled to prove what he could do. It's a small male spider, of the interesting kind that, according to Fabre, French naturalist, enjoys a dangerous honeymoon. The female usually kills and devours him when the honeymoon is over, and sometimes before it starts.

Therefore, he would seem to have trouble enough without interference by "cruelty" people.

THE CONVENTION of veterans attacks the War Department and objects to sending free, through the postoffice, speeches by Secretary Hurley criticizing the B. E. F.

President Hoover tells veterans and the public the bonus cannot be paid because the country and taxpayers can't possibly afford it.

This opinion should make it certain that the government will not consent to cancellation of European debts. If the United States cannot afford two and one-quarter billions for its own soldiers it can hardly afford ten billions for the soldiers, taxes and war preparations of other nations.

Our patriotic fellow Americans in the Philippines seem uncertain as to their desires. Recently, they have been telling us they would separate from the United States entirely, to be free and independent.

Then it occurred to some that if they did that, they would not be able to send sugar and other products here without paying duty, also that they would have nobody to build roads and public schools for them.

Now Guillermo Capadocia, from the Island of Negroes, says:

"We want to run the Americans out of the Philippines."

Simultaneously, he, with five hundred associates waving red flags, carrying banners reading "Long live the Soviet Republic," demand a cash dole, payable weekly. It is a complicated situation there.

THE POPULATION of China is officially certified by the Nationlist government as 474,787,386. You would be surprised ordinarily to learn that China's population has gained only 75,000,000 in two hundred years.

United States population has increased more than a hundred millions in the last century.

But poor China fights against constant internal upheavals, foreign aggression, banditry, plagues, floods, and, in the past, more than now, against OPIUM.

YOUNG LADIES that write for newspapers discuss the importance of a college degree in life's struggle. Unless the world is changed, such a degree ought not to be ABSOLUTELY necessary.

Hypatia had no college degrees, but she created a college of her own and made such a success of it that competitors found it necessary to kill her. Bertha, mother of Charlemagne; Nancy Hanks, mother of Lincoln; George Eliot, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Rosa Bonheur; the mother of Edison had no college degree.

THE BRITISH are wise. Gandhi, whose sincerity enables him to rule the minds of millions in India, says to the British:

"I shall starve myself to death if you don't do so and so."

Wise Britain replies:

"You must decide about that, but you will not starve to death in our prison."

The British tell Gandhi that he may leave prison and fast or starve at his leisure somewhere else. The wise man knows when to give way.

ORTIZ RUBIO, recently president of Mexico, has a plan to diminish our over-supply of workers. Through a representative of Universal Service who visited him in Mexico City, Mr. Ortiz Rubio invited the United States to send to Mexico all Mexican workers now in the United States, and any others here of Latin origin.

He says Mexico will supply all such workers with government land sufficient to enable them to earn a living for themselves, and thinks this would relieve the strain of our employment facilities.

This country could offer plenty of land to all those Mexicans and Latins and millions more, land now not occupied. But for some reason, people in the United States are not able to support themselves on a piece of land, as in Mexico and a hundred other countries.

'LOST' WIFE'S HUSBAND SUICIDE

Dubois Kills Himself As Troops Hunt Woman's Body

International News Service.

QUINCY, Mass., Sept. 16.—With lips sealed and leaving behind no written word concerning the strange disappearance of his wife, Charles E. Dubois, wealthy Tuckahoe, (N. Y.) jeweler, died from a self-inflicted bullet wound in his head at Quincy Hospital at 12:40 o'clock this afternoon.

A hurried police search of a room he had hired under the name of "Ralph Anderson," in the Hancock street home of George Griffin, revealed no notes—only three peaches and a shaving outfit.

With the latter Dubois had shaved his heavy mustache.

BODY HUNTED

The diamond expert took his life as National Guardsmen and others combed the woods and dragged in Great Herring pond near the Dubois summer cottage for the body of his wife and as other searchers went through a swamp in East Foxboro.

The rain was pelting down in torrents as death wrote a new and startling chapter in the strange Dubois case. Shortly before 11 a. m., Griffin telephoned police that a man had shot himself in his room. Griffin said that he heard three shots.

Two policemen rushed to the Griffin rooming house after a hurried summons and found Dubois locked in the bathroom with the key in the inside. They worked the key out of the lock and opened the door with a skeleton key.

Dubois was found slumped in a choir. His both hands were covered with blood. A .38 caliber pistol lay on the floor between his

She Screamed

MRS. ETHEL HAAS

Mrs. Haas, 19, of 1119 Allegheny avenue, was followed from the movies last night by a man. At her doorway he grabbed her. Her screams brought her husband, Ralph, who ran three blocks to capture as a suspect Warren L. Marsh, 30. In police court today, Marsh was fined $25 or 30 days in jail. WOULD GIVE 10-20 CENT REDUCTION

City Seeking to Avoid Costly Legal Fight Before P. S. C.

City Council will accept the Duquesne Light Company's latest offer of an electric rate reduction—averaging from 10 to 20 cents a month for residential consumers—according to intimations made at the City-County Building today.

Councilmen would not make any public comments on their attitude toward the utility company's latest proposals but the general feeling appeared to be that the city is not in a position to go to the great expense of a formal rate fight before the Public Service Commission at this time and that it would be better for consumers to accept the concession offered than to refuse the proferred reduction and to tie up the case for several years.

City Solicitor Charles A. Waldschmidt and Assistant Solicitor Charles P. Lang are scheduled to hold a series of conferences with Frank R. Phillips, president of the Philadelphia Company, within the next few days in order to clear up all angles of the proposal to reduce light rates.

The plan is not likely to come before Council for final ratification for a week or two.

The rate proposal under consideration at present is the third one made by the company and its details have not been made public. It is understood, however, that it would be slightly more favorable to consumers than the previous offers and that it would save from 10 to 20 cents a month to most users.

'We Knew You'd Come Through, Mayor!'

JAMES M. CLARK JAMES MULVIHILL

MAYOR CHARLES H. KLINE JAMES P. KERR THOMAS J. M'MAHON

A happy little "family group" in the Mayor's office today as political leaders, city officials and other payrollers lined up to shake the hand of Mayor Kline and congratulate him on the victory he scored at Butler yesterday when the jury's one-count verdict of malfeasance guilt was set aside. The payrollers' parade took place across the famous "magic rug" which figured so prominently in the city supplies investigation. This is a Sun-Telegraph picture.

HIGH COURT GETS CASE OF MAYOR

Hearing Set Oct. 17; Executive Greets Joyous / mirers

Mayor Charles H. Kline stood in the doorway of his office today and allowed his hand to be shaken by his admirers.

Ward chairmen, city officials and other payrollers lined up to congratulate the Mayor on the victory he scored at Butler yesterday, when Judge Thomas D. Finletter set aside the guilty verdict against him.

But the congratulations may be premature, for this afternoon Earl F. Reed, special prosecutor, filed an appeal from Finletter's decision in Superior Court. It will be heard the week of October 17 in Philadelphia.

SYMPATHY FOR SUCCOP

Among those who expressed their gratification were Edward G. Lang, public works director; Mike DeRose, Lon McIntosh and Sam Reno, all ward chairmen, and Col. W. R. Dunlap, the Supplies Director, who took the place of Bertram L. Succop.

For Succop there were no congratulations but many expressions of sympathy. Broke and without his city job, he faces a year in jail unless the Superior Court grants him the new trial he will ask.

While Succop sat in his South Side real estate office hoping for the best, the Mayor was answering telegrams and letters of congratulation. This done, he said he would probably go to his summer home at Madison Lakelands, O., for a rest.

HOLD JUDGE ERRED

Attorneys for the Commonwealth feel that Judge Finletter erred in setting the jury's verdict aside as to Kline. Attorney Reed, special prosecutor in the case, said:

"I find no case cited by Judge Finletter as authority for the position he took in arresting judgment, but the matter is now in the Superior Court."

Reed's law partner, W. D. Stewart, who also has given the case

LIBBY SEEKING VENUE CHANGE

(Copyright, 1932, by International News Service.)

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Sept. 16.—Change of venue in the murder trial of Mrs. Libby Holman Reynolds, beautiful widow of the mysteriously slain Smith Reynolds, young tobacco heir, and Ab Walker, his boyhood chum, will be sought here, International News Service learned exclusively from an authoritative source today.

An affidavit charging local prejudice against the gay young Broadway torch singer who came a bride to this quiet Southern town with her wealthy husband just a few weeks before he was shot to death, has been written, and is expected to be filed immediately by attorneys representing Mrs. Reynolds here, it was learned.

The action will seek to have the trial moved to Surrey County, of which the town of Dobson is the seat, and the former home of William Grayes, Mrs. Reynolds' local attorney.

Mrs. Reynolds and Walker are at liberty under $25,000 bond each.

Uptown Store Blast Routs Patrons

Merchants and customers in the vicinity of the A. Cazen meat market, 1227 Fifth avenue, were forced to flee shortly after noon today when an ammonia tank exploded in the basement of the store.

People in three apartments were also forced to flee when the ammonia fumes seeped up from the basement through the building.

PENNA. MAY GO DEMOCRATIC

By COLE MORGAN
Universal Service.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Pennsylvania may furnish the big surprise of this year's presidential election.

Anybody who would have seriously mentioned a month ago that this rock-ribbed Republican state might go Democratic would have been laughed out of court.

Yet, in the face of returns in the nation-wide presidential poll of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph in cooperation with all the other Hearst morning, evening and Sunday papers in the United States, it is possible that Pennsylvania may follow Maine and do a flop.

From the outset of the tabulation of returns, Gov. Roosevelt has shown a lead in Pennsylvania. It is not a safe margin but it shows the Democratic nominee with a good fighting chance to hold the state.

Of 3,357 new ballots recorded from Pennsylvania, Roosevelt received 1,938 to 1,419 for Hoover, a Roosevelt majority of 519. These returns brought the total from the state to 14,004. Roosevelt has 7,381 to Hoover's 6,623, a majority of 758. This gain by Roosevelt restores his proportion of the Pennsylvania vote to the 53 per cent with which he started last month. The returns represent a complete cross section of the state.

N. Y. Society Girl, Policeman Married

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—A romance of the Central Park bridle paths between a society girl and a mounted policeman culminated in their secret marriage July 30, it became known today.

NEW VICE PROBE REPORT FILED

Constable Daniel McGeary, of the Twenty-second Ward, in whose bailiwick, according to Judge Frank P. Patterson, there exist "the most flagrant instances of commercial immorality in Allegheny County," today filed a third report dealing in detail with "rooming houses" of the ward.

Two previous reports by Constable McGeary in the quarterly "blind men's parade" did not satisfy Judge Patterson and, when McGeary reported no evidence of law violations, the court ordered a further investigation.

Today McGeary submitted a report on each of 13 places complained against, listing the names of the "roomers" and of the owner.

Judge Patterson accepted the report without comment. He previously had warned that he would make an independent investigation of the constables' reports, and if it disclosed the constables had not made accurate returns they would be indicted.

Eddie Allen to Ride In Races at Phila.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—(INS.)—Edward H. B. Allen, gentleman jockey who was acquitted last fall of the murder of his sister's sweetheart, will be one of the riders in the Wassahickon races tomorrow at the Philadelphia Riders' and Drivers' Club, it became known today.

Allen was tried and acquitted after a sensational trial of shooting to death Francis Donaldson III, "Main Line" playboy, during a quarrel over the latter's attentions to Rose Allen, Eddie's 18-year-old sister.

3 'Pacifists' Appeal Pitt 'Riot' Fines

BULLETIN.

Judge M. A. Musmanno in County Court this afternoon reversed the police court decision imposing a fine of $5 each on three Pitt students arrested in an attempted pacifist demonstration. The Judge ordered the fine remitted and criticized the university for having the men arrested.

The appeal of three reputed pacifist students of the University of Pittsburgh from $5 fines was heard by Judge M. A. Musmanno in County Court. The fine was imposed following their arrest while planning to protest the Pitt commencement speech, June 8, of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, chief of staff, United States Army.

Police Magistrate William R. McNamara, of Oakland station, imposed the fine. The students, Alonzo D. Brewer, Negro, member of the executive committee of the Pitt Y. M. C. A.; Leonard J. Grumet and Louis M. Teitlebaum, were arrested charged with disorderly conduct in the "Y" hut just before the commencement exercises in the Stadium.

W. Don Harrison, Pitt athletic director, testified the youths had locked themselves in without authority and that the hut had to be opened by the janitor. Signs antagonistic to Gen. MacArthur were found in the hut, he said, one of them being "Generals Die In Bed."

Two ministers, the Rev. Willard Mellin, of the Oakmont Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Basil A. Murray, of the Hiland Presbyterian Church, Perrysville, testified there was no disturbance preceding the students' arrest.

MELLON FIRM, REDS IN DEAL

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(INS.)—A "barter" contract under which the Aluminium Company of Canada, Ltd., a Mellon-controlled concern, will exchange $1,000,000 worth of aluminum wire Soviet Russia needs for crude oil to be shipped to Canada, refined and offered there at cut rates, was disclosed by Wall street sources today.

Oil interests foresaw a disastrous dislocation of the Canadian market as a consequence of the threatened competition, which would involve the Imperial Oil Company, Ltd., a Standard Oil subsidiary, the Shell Oil group, and others.

The first shipment was reported now en route from Russia to Montreal.

There was a hint Canadian oil interests might seek to bring about an embago against the Rusian oil.

Lindy Nurse Due On Job Next Month

GLASGOW, Scotland, Sept. 16.—(INS.)—Betty Gow, nurse of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., when he was kidnaped from his parents' home in Hopewell, N. J., last March, will return to the United States about the middle of next month to take up her position with the Lindberghs as nurse of their second child, it was reliably learned today.

Kitty Gordon Weds; Former Stage Star

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Kitty Gordon, popular stage and screen actress of a decade ago, and Ralph Ranlet, New York stock broker, were married yesterday.

Miss Gordon's last husband was Maj. Henry W. Horsley-Beresford, brother of Lord Decies.

Snake-Slaying Spiders 'Tougher' in Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh spiders are tougher than Illinois spiders.

To prove it, just take the case of W. F. Miller's pet spider which finished off a six-inch garter snake in two days out at the Miller ranch on North Pike, Monroeville.

Then turn to the little black spider at St. Charles, Ill., who took 25 days to win a technical knockout—reported today—over a 10-inch garter snake. The Illinois snake was liberated by Mayor I. C. Langum, of St. Charles, when the Humane Society protested continuance of the fight.

The Monroeville spider showed more finesse, courage and cunning, says Miller, who had dark doubts on the reported size of that Illinois snake.

M. G. Netting, curator of herpetology at Carnegie Museum, says it's not unusual for spiders to "get" their snakes.

Pauper's Grave Looms For First 'Mrs. Bern'

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 16.—(INS.)—A pauper's grave loomed today for Dorothy Millette, suicide "phantom bride" of Paul Bern, self-slain film man and husband of Jean Harlow.

Coroner James Garlick said that unless relatives, yet unlocated, claimed the body of the pretty woman, it would be necessary to "dispose of the remains at county expense."

A telgram addressed to Bern's brother, Henry Bern, at Hollywood, remained undelivered. His whereabouts was unknown.

Miss Millette jumped overboard from a Sacramento River boat the day after she learned of Bern's suicide. She had $38 in a purse. Bern had supported her in luxury for 20 years.

An inquest will be conducted tonight.

Garlick learned that Miss Millette was born in Indianapolis where she was a stenographer 25 years ago. Under the name of Dorothy Roddy she was the ward of a board of children's guardians.

She married an Indianapolis man, Garlick learned, in 1907. They were divorced two years later after which Miss Millette went to New York where her life as an actress and friend of Bern began.

PINCHOT REPORT ABSOLVES B. E. F. OF CRIMINAL TAINT

CHARGE MADE BY MITCHELL REFUTED

Orderly Conduct of Ex-Soldiers in State Cited

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—An official report of the conduct and personnel of the fugitive remnants of the bonus expeditionary forces, as they moved through Pennsylvania after having been evicted from Washington with tanks, bayonets, tear gas and torch, was made public today by direction of Gifford Pinchot, progressive Republican Governor of Pennsylvania.

It was a direct refutation to the charges of Attorney General Mitchell, who had called the veteran army the "largest number of criminals ever assembled together in the city of Waashington."

The report, praising the B. E. F. for its restraint and discipline and pointing out the desperateness of its plight, was made by J. Prentice Murphy, member of the Pennsylvania State Welfare Commission, and released in New York by Amos R. E. Pinchot, brother of the Governor, at his office, 101 Park avenue.

SYMPATHY NEEDED

After telling how orderly the exsoldiers had acted after reaching Johnstown, Pa., the report wound up with this statement:

"The B. E. F. is pretty much a cross-section of the citizenry of the whole country. These people need sympathy and understanding.

"We are going to avoid trouble, according to the extent to which those qualities of character and intelligence are expressed by public and private officials and citizens in general."

Murphy wrote that the experience in Washington, when the veterans fled before cavalry and tanks, remained a horror in the minds of those with whom he talked. He said they called it "a real war"—"a dreadful night."

SHOWED REFINEMENT

The veterans, ousted from Washington, were invited to Ideal Park, outside of Johnstown, by Mayor Edward McCloskey, and it was there, at Camp McCloskey, that Murphy interviewed and observed the veterans, writing his report August 10. He wrote:

"One could not fail to be impressed by the appearance of the campers. The children, on the whole, seemed very happy. An overwhelming number of the adults had a good presence. They showed a high degree of intelligence. Man, of them, judging from their conversation and manner, came out of backgrounds of refinement.

"Every one of the approximately 75 men whom I questioned specifically as to their service records produced his service papers, showing honorable discharge from the Army or Navy. I should say the age group ranged from 35 to 45. I saw no children beyond the age of 12 or 13 years.

"With very few exceptions, the women appeared from all outward signs to be decent folk."

OTHER REPORTS AGREE

Murphy's report was one of several made by members of the State Welfare Department. Reports of others, including a woman, were similar to that of Murphy, who is a member of the board. His report continued:

"The B. E. F. provided its own discipline and self-control. The members were friendly to visitors. One was safe in their camp as on the supervised streets of Johnstown. The state police were not in evidence, under a wise decision of Maj. Adams.

"Some of the men who were married said they were definitely opposed to having their families with them either at Washington or in Johnstown. They felt they could be better taken care of if they had remained at home with relatives or friends. Others said their wives and children might just as well suffer or prosper with them in a camp or on the road, for there wasn't anything back home or the place which months ago had been their home.

"I saw no women about whom I would raise the slightest question as to their morality.

TELLS OF SUFFERING

"The picture as to the types of persons at the camp can in part be revealed through touches such as the following:

"One family consisted of mother, father, and three children; the parents were in a highly nervous state. The mother is the daughter of a professor in an Indiana college. This family had suffered privations and were not desirous of having their plight reported to their relatives. They had no particular destination. Mother and children were seemingly in very poor physical condition.

"I observed at least 15 men with Distinguished Service Crosses. One man at Johnstown said he had been a member of the Lafayette Escadrille. Another, Bernie Woods, acting commander in charge of the B. E. F. camp at Gettysburg, had also been a member of the Lafayette Escadrille.

"From different people one got stories which indicated long unemployment, from one or two years; people who had their homes; been independent at one time, and who had lost their savings. They gave evidence of having enjoyed and having treasured family life.

PROFESSIONAL PEOPLE

"There were graduate physicians, nurses; a graduate pharmasist; passenger conductors; locomotive firemen; artisans, such as structural iron workers; carpenters; white collar people, such as clerks, down to the casual and irregularly employed worker. They spoke with restraint; many certainly were folks who read and liked books.

"The men in Camp McCloskey felt that they had been most unjustly and cruelly treated. One man after another said that that which happened at Washington was just like war.

"They referred over and over to the midnight 'attack' of the soldiers on Camp Marks when 10,000 men, women and children were driven out within a few hours. One could not tell whether the stories they told were based on facts or represented a misinterpretation of hysterical, overwrought, feardriven people.

"It was a common remark, 'that night was dreadful. I never thought anything like this could happen in the United States, especially to men who had fought for the government'."

Boy Dies From Shot Fired by Brother

DUBOIS KILLS HIMSELF

legs along with two boxes of bullets.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL

An ambulance was summoned and the jeweler was rushed to the hospital, where he never regained consciousness.

Dubois registered at the rooming house three days ago as Ralph Anderson.

In the house at the time of the shooting were Griffin, his wife, Mrs. Edith Griffin, and Moses B. Fogg.

Dubois was arrested last Monday morning in connection with the mysterious disappearance of his wife, Edith. They had been married 19 years ago in New York. She came from France. They became acquainted through a "lonely hearts" column of a French newspaper.

Dubois was held at the Plymouth police station for 13 hours. A district court judge refused to issue a warrant charging murder and Dubois was released.

Judge Elmer L. Briggs said he would not issue a warrant on the ground that the body of Mrs. Dubois was not found.

WIDESPREAD SEARCH

A wide search for the body was then launched by State Police under the direction of Assistant District Attorney John V. Sullivan.

Authorities said that Dubois told them conflicting stories—that his wife died in an automobile accident in Montreal soon after she vanished on August 10. Then, authorities said, Dubois claimed that he was told she had eloped.

Miss Grace Atwood, daughter of a Middleboro manufacturer, who had been wooed by Dubois, said she had been told Dubois was a widower.

District Attorney Frank Coyne, of Westchester County, New York, came to Massachusetts yesterday with documents sent to Mrs. Dubois at Tuckahoe. Either Mrs. Dubois or some person using her name had asked for legal blanks of a Hingham bank making possible transfer of property from Mrs. Dubois to a "Grace Dubois." Police said Dubois told them that "Grace Dubois" was a distant cousin in New York.

GIRL GRIEF-STRICKEN

MIDDLEBORO, Mass., Sept. 16.—(INS.) — Miss Grace Atwood, manufacturer's daughter, Connecticut College graduate and sweetheart of Charles E. Dubois, was grief-stricken when she learned of his suicide this afternoon. Her sister, Marion, said:

"She is bearing up as well as could be expected. Grace was told of the suicide. She has been informed of all developments in the case."

Levi O. Atwood, father of Grace, said there had been no formal engagement between Grace and Dubois. Grace had told authorities that she had expected to marry Dubois, thinking he was a widower.

Legion's New Leader Has Many Interests

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Louis A. Johnson, the tall, broad-shouldered new commander of the American Legion, is a prominent West Virginia lawyer and a lieutenant-colonel in the Army Reserve. He is 41 years old.

His military service began in 1917 in an officers' training camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind. His first assignment was as a captain with the 80th Division at Camp Lee, Va., the same year.

In May, 1918, he sailed for France and saw active service in the Meuse Argonne offensive and later accompanied the 90th Division of the American Expeditionary Force into Germany. Upon returning to the United States after 22 months, he was reassigned to the 80th Division and received his discharge at Camp Dix, N. J., in June, 1919.

Johnson is a native of Virginia, born at Roanoke, January 10, 1891. He finished the academic course and studied law in the University of Virginia, receiving the bachelor of laws degree in 1912. He was admitted to the bar of Virginia and West Virginia in the same year and became a partner in a local firm.

Barely out of college, he stepped out and became District Attorney of Harrison County, West Virginia in 1912 and in 1913.

Democratic in politics, he was elected to the House of Delegates in 1917, serving as chairman of the judiciary committee and majority floor leader. He left politics to enter military service during the war. As state commander he served the West Virginia American Legion three years ago. Johnson still retains his Reserve commission as lieutenant colonel.

The new legionnaire chieftain is a member of the American Bar Association and the bar of the city of New York. He is a thirty-second degree Mason, a Shriner and past exalted ruler of the Elks.

W. VA. MAN NEW COMMANDER OF LEGION

Convention Ends After Demand for Bonus, Dry Repeal

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 16.—The American Legion, its fourteenth annual convention adjourned, stood pledged today to repeal of prohibition, cash payment of the bonus and unlimited war upon entangling international alliances.

The Legion, under the reign of Louis A. Johnson, of Clarksburg, W. Va., new national commander, will direct the influence of its nation-wide organization and 960,000 members to secure this legislative program. Johnson gave it his hearty indorsement.

REPEAL DEMAND

The prohibition stand, taken by the Legion, was brief and to the point. The Legionnaires said:

"We favor the immediate repeal of the national prohibition act, and the submission to the several states by Congress of an enabling resolution repealing the Eighteenth Amendment."

This went further than either the Republican or Democratic plaforms.

On the bonus, the Legion declared for "full and immediate payment of the adjusted service certificates" and directed its national officers to "proceed before Congress toward enactment of this legislation."

It was silent on the bonus riots in Washington, a resolution censuring President Hoover for using troops against the veterans there, having been killed in committee.

The convention itself took only one vote involving the riot issue. It was to protest against the use of a government frank on war department envelopes, used by messengers in distributing a statement by Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley explaining the government's position.

WORLD COURT

The Legion took a determined position against American participation in the World Court and League of Nations. It was the first time it declared on the subject of the Root terms of adherence, which President Hoover has approved. It declared the court and league were "entangling alliances of the worst sort."

The soldier organization was just as emphatic against cancellation of World War debts in whole or part. It also declared against recognition of Russia.

The remainder of its program dealt chiefly with care and maintenance of disabled veterans. It authorized creation of a special committee to investigate the administration of the United States Veterans Administrators' office to determine whether disabled veterans were getting the best treatment possible.

The election of Johnson as national commander came after a hectic campaign. George W. Malone, Nevada state engineer, was the early favorite, but his cause declined when the Massachusetts delegation deserted his banner to join Johnson early yesterday. After that, Johnson had no trouble rolling up a majority that turned into an unanimous vote by acclamation.

GOV. ROOSEVELT WELCOMED TO WYOMING

Cattle Country Crowd Shouts Pledge of State's Vote

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Sept. 16.—Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt brought his presidential candidacy into Wyoming today.

Wyoming Democrats were gathered in force to greet him here at Cheyenne when his special train arrived. A temporary platform had been erected alongside the railroad track, and from that vantage point, Gov. Roosevelt briefly addressed an audience of several thousand, following which there was an automobile tour of the city.

WYOMING'S VOTE PROMISED

Gov. Roosevelt was introduced to the crowd by L. A. Miller, Democratic candidate for governor.

The presidential nominee said:

"I am making few political speeches on this trip.

"Our trip started under happy auspices, for on the first day out we heard the news from Maine. And we have signed, sealed and delivered guarantees from Missouri, Kansas and Colorado that they are going to do better than Maine. I came here to get the same guarantee from Wyoming."

There were shouts of "You will" from the crowd.

SURVEYING CONDITIONS

Gov. Roosevelt repeated what he has told most of his informal audiences—that he came west to "get first-hand knowledge of conditions" rather than to make political speeches. He continued:

"When I go down to Washington next year I want to have that knowledge concerning every section of the country.

"We have been hard hit. It isn't easy to effect quick recovery. But when recovery comes—and it will come under the proper leadership—we want it to affect all sections."

"The country cannot be half boom and half broke."

Restoration of the purchasing power of agriculture, which, he said, included the cattle and sheep on Wyoming's plains, "is necessary to any plan of recovery." He concluded:

"I am very confident of the result on November 8."

Gov. George H. Dern, of Utah, joined Gov. Roosevelt here to escort him into Salt Lake.

APPEAL RULING FREEING KLINE

much attention, expressed the view:

"It is very difficult to reconcile the statement of Judge Finletter in his opinion that the Commonwealth vs. Deonato, 87 Penna., page 285, Superior Court, that court undertook to show 'that there was no repugnancy or contradiction' in the verdict.

NO PRECEDENT FOUND

"That court said that it would not undertake to explain the 'manifest inconsistency' in the verdict. In the Denato case the defendants were indicted for an attempt to extort a sum of money in one count and in another count for a conspiracy to extort the same sum of money.

"They were acquitted of the charge of attempting to extort the money and convicted of the conspiracy to extort.

"The Superior Court said as the evidence was sufficient to sustain the conspiracy charge the lower court was right in refusing to set aside the verdict.

"We are satisfied the ruling in the Kline case was wrong and if it is sustained will create an entirely new precedent in Pennsylvania.

"There are no cases sustaining Judge Finletter on that point as far as we have been able to ascertain."

PARK AWAITS HEARING

District Attorney Andrew T. Park was questioned regarding Judge Finletter's decision. Park dismissed it with this statement:

"We will take our appeal and anything I have to say will be said at the time the appeal is heard."

First Assistant District Attorney George F. P. Langfitt was questioned regarding Judge Finletter's criticism of the indictment. Langfitt said:

"The indictment was sustained by the court for he refused to quash it."

GERMANY PLANS NEW WARSHIP

By EDWARD L. DEUSS
International News Service.

BERLIN, Sept. 16.—Convinced that the Geneva disarmament conference is doomed to failure, the German government today announced that construction of a third "pocket battleship" will be commenced October 1 at the Wilhelmshaven navy yard.

Building of the new warship, similar in design to the powerful Erzatz Preussen which created such a stir in the world admiralties, will require four years. She will be known as "Cruiser C."

GENEVA, Sept. 16.—(INS.)—The league secretariat received official notification from Berlin today that Germany will no longer participate in the work of the disarmament conference unless her demand for arms equality are met.

STATE'S G. O. P. ENDS STRADDLE ON REPEAL

Martin, Meeting Vare, Won't Oppose Resolution

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—James M. Hazlett, chairman of the Philadelphia Republican City Committee, said today that he will present a resolution favoring immediate repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, to the Republican State Committee before the opening rally of the Pennsylvania campaign at Fogelsville Park, near Allentown, tomorrow.

Hazlett said he had been instructed by Pennsylvania Republican leaders, meeting here at the home of William S. Vare, Philadelphia chieftain, to draft a "wet" resolution to be presented to the state committee preceding the Allentown rally.

MARTIN AGREEABLE

State Chairman Edward Martin declared that he would not oppose Hazlett's resolution.

Hazlett's announcement said:

"I will offer a resolution to the state committee, which will place the Republican party in Pennsylvania on record for the immediate repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, the Volstead law, and the Snyder-Armstrong state act."

Those who attended the conference were former Ambassador Henry P. Fletcher, of Greencastle, representing the Republican National Committee; Martin, Hazlett and Vare. Neither Martin nor Hazlett commented on published reports that the results of the Maine election had speeded action on the wet resolution.

CURTIS TO SPEAK

Vice President Charles Curtis will be the principal speaker at the Fogelsville Park rally, Chairman Martin said that he would not hazard a guess as to whether Curtis planned to mention prohibition.

Obviously pleased at the outcome of yesterday's conference, Vare, however, refused to talk about the proposed prohibition plank.

Chairman Martin, before starting back for Harrisburg, reiterated a statement that United States Senator James J. Davis will not retire from the ticket, as demanded by Gov. Gifford Pinchot. Martin said that Davis would attend the Fogelsville rally.

RAIDED DEVICE SLOT MACHINE

District Attorney Andrew T. Park, after examining the slot machine obtained in a raid at a barbecue at Jones Corners several days ago, announced today that it was not a vending machine, but a gambling device and he would demonstrate it in court. Park said the vending part of the machine was a blind.

Park operated the machine a score of times, using slugs to prove it worked just like any slot machine in which nickels were used. This machine, in which he says money was found, was taken from the stand which it has been alleged was formerly operated by W. Howard Smith and Allen Bailer, Turtle Creek High School instructors.

The District Attorney's office has the machine labeled:

"Property of Smith and Bailer."

The machine bears the maker's label as that of Vending Machine Company, of Fayetteville, N. C.

The charge against Smith and Bailer was withdrawn last night before Justice of the Peace William Wilkinson. W. C. Jones, of Turtle Creek, was held for court. Wilkinson said that county detectives who seized the machine were satisfied that Jones, and not Bailer and Smith, owned the establishment.

LEGION'S HOSTS ON PARADE IN PORTLAND

WAR VETS MARCHING BEHIND MASSED COLORS IN OREGON BEFORE CHEERING THOUSANDS

France Honors Walker's Ally for Aid to Racing

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(Universal.)—The Republic of France has honored John J. McKeon—the same John J. McKeon who was James J. Walker's friend when Walker was mayor and who testified dramatically in the Seabury investigation of city affairs.

France, in singling out McKeon for distinction, decorated him with one of the nation's most cherished orders—the insignia of the Legion of Honor, for which statesmen have sighed and soldiers have died.

Samuel Seabury, who, like McKeon and like Walker, too, is now abroad, tried four months to bestow a subpena on the new member of the Legion of Honor before he could locate him. McKeon's bank accounts aroused Seabury's interest.

McKeon, when the Seabury certificate was handed him, finally testified he had handed Walker $26,500 in stock in a sealed envelope in a taxicab. The stock came from J. A. Sisto, manager of the celebrated Cosden pool in which Walker and others participated.

But it was not for this that McKeon was honored by France with the Legion of Honor. It was, according to official records opened yesterday, because of McKeon's interest in horse racing—because he helped improve the breed of horses!

McKeon's associates around town laughed in admiration of the man yesterday. They recalled he had made a bet that he could come home from Paris with the Legion of Honor medal on his breast.

'LOVE LECTURE' CANCELLED, 500 WOMEN IN RIOT

THRONGSTORMS OFFICE FOR CASH BACK

Show Change Leads to Demonstration in Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Sept. 16.—(AP.) — Storming the box office and shouting "Give us back our money!" hundreds of women arose in fury when an advertised lecture on "Married Love" was canceled yesterday at the Engineers' Auditorium.

Twice they pushed, screaming angrily, into the lobby and onto the stage, tearing down signs and charts as they protested:

"The show's been changed."

Between 400 and 500 joined the afternoon demonstration. Before they straightened their hose, pinned rips in their dresses and powdered their noses in smiling token of victory, they had collected in refunds $62 more than they had paid to hear the lecture that wasn't given.

SECOND DEMONSTRATION

Another 200 repeated the demonstration in milder form at night, but they went away without their money, having spent a half hour forming committees to visit the prosecutor today and demand that "the show be stopped for not showing what it advertised." The management asserted box office clerks had warned them "The show's been changed."

The afternoon lecture—the advertisements said, "for women only"—was stopped by police order because of complaints filed by the Women's Bureau.

When the Lake Erie steamer Goodtime was steaming peacefully across the screen the disturbance started. Some one shouted:

"It's a gyp. Give us our money back."

It was a signal to charge and the women raced for the box office.

OFFICIAL ESCAPES

Assistant Manager Frank Lorenze wriggled out of their grasp by promising to "go get your money."

When he failed to return the women cornered Police Sergt. Frank Fields, just arrived on hurry call. They demanded:

"How can they get away with this, not showing what they advertised?"

The sergeant got confidential. He said:

"Well, girls, probably this is the first intelligent audience that caught on to this show."

A moment later Sergt. Fields assured the women they'd get their money back and order was restored as 25 and 40-cent refunds were passed out.

Meanwhile, Manager Emmanuel Lewis announced he'd seek an injunction to restrain authorities from interfering with sex education. Then he looked at the cash sheet and moaned:

"Oh, we gave back $62 more than we took in. They must have picked up old ticket stubs from the floor."

FARM STRIKERS ROUT GUARDS IN BATTLE

Plea for Militia Made As Market Warfare Flares Anew

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Violence has flared anew on the Sioux City sector of the farm "war," bringing pleas from citizens for military intervention.

Bricks and clubs flew through the air in the latest uprising of farmers striking for higher produce prices when 500 farm pickets last night ambushed and routed a group of special deputies on a highway near Correctionville.

OFFICERS AMBUSHED

The ambushed officers answered a telephone call reputedly coming from truckers asking assistance in running the picket lines. Upon finding no trucks to escort, they started to return to Sioux City when they were met by the pickets who threw rocks and clubs at four trucks in which they were riding.

Several officers received minor injuries, but returned safely to the city, where a force of 76 deputies was ordered to remain on duty to await developments. Sioux City police were also deputized for use in an emergency.

The ambuscade was believed to have resulted from the arrest early Thursday night of 24 farmers arrested at their picket posts by 60 special deputies. They were later released on bonds.

REQUEST FOR MILITIA

Immediately after the "battle" Sheriff John A. Davenport, of Woodbury County, was requested by 300 citizens, including businessmen and chamber of commerce officials, to call upon Gov. Turner for aid from the National Guard. Gov. Turner said early today he would announce a course of action later.

Sheriff Davenport was quoted as telling the Governor that the picketing situation here was out of hand and that immediate help from military reinforcements was imperative.

Mine Invaders Routed After Wounding of 3

BRAIDWOOD, Ill., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—The invasion by union pickets of the Northern Illinois mine fields in protest against the new $5-a-day basic wage scale became a rout today after three miners had been wounded.

Shortly after dawn Chief Walter L. Moody, of the state police, confronted the encampment of striking pickets from the Peoria and Springfield districts and announced that they were going home under escort.

A few minutes later the procession that had sought to stop digging in Braidwood, Coal City and Wilmington strip mines yesterday was homeward bound. There were 78 cars in the parade, led by Chief Moody with police cars sprinkled through the line. There was no resistance, and none of the pickets was armed.

Reinforced by 100 deputy sheriffs of Will and Grundy counties, the officers determined to disperse the pickets and prevent a recurrence of the violence of yesterday, in which one worker, trying to run a gauntlet of pickets, was cut when his windshield was smashed, and two pickets were shot. Neither was seriously wounded.

Northern Illinois Coal Corporation officials said the mines would reopen tomorrow.

'FLYING NURSE' HUNT FAILS IN NORTH SEA

Hope Nearly Gone for 3 Lost in Flight Over Ocean

YARMOUTH, England, Sept. 16. — (INS.) — Reports that the missing trans-Atlantic airplane American Nurse, lost on an attempted non-stop flight from New York to Rome with three persons and a woodchuck aboard, had come down in the North Sea, today failed to produce any sign of the plane.

The reports were circulated after the master of the St. Nicholas lightship off Yarmouth signaled he had heard the sound of an airplane engine followed by an explosion and mysterious flashing of lights on Scroby Sands.

Tugboats and a lifeboat put out from Gorleston, near here, and scoured the region indicated in the captain's message. They found nothing.

Meanwhile, in Rome, the hope that the fliers, Dr. Leon M. Pisculli, Edna Newcomer and William Ulbrich, would be found had been virtually given up, and it was generally felt the plane had been lost at sea.

Relatives of Lost Fliers Refuse to Give Up Hope

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(INS.—A stout courage and a high faith radiated from Mrs. Elizabeth Ulbrich today as she resolutely refused to believe harm had come to her son or his companions, unreported in the plane American Nurse, Rome-bound She said:

"I don't think Bill has been killed."

Mrs. Ulbrich spends all her waking moments near the radio in hopes of picking up a news flash that will bring the longed for report of her son's safety.

Louis Pelletieri, a nephew of Dr. Leon M. Pisculli, who with Edna Newcomer, nurse, embarked on the flight with Ulbrich, was likewise confident the fliers would be found safe. He said:

"I know they will be picked up."

Pisculli's sister, Mrs. Camella Pelletieri, mother of Louis, was worried, and said she prayed constantly for her brother's safety.

FIVE OVERCOME AS MINE CAVES

SCRANTON, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—A gas main, presumably broken by mine cave settlings which have damaged scores of homes in that section, spread terror in half a dozen homes today at Wales street and Durkin avenue, North Scranton. Five persons were overcome and many were made ill by the fumes.

The most seriously affected were Louis Cohen, 37; his wife, Edith, 35; their sons, Martin, 14, and Irving, 9, and Mrs. Katherine Ryan.

SEVERE QUAKE IN NEW ZEALAND

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Sept. 16. — (INS.) — A severe earthquake shook a 60-mile area surrounding Hastings, Napier, Gisborne and Wairoa today, throwing the entire population into panic.

At some points the tremor lasted for four hours, causing much damage and injuring three persons at Wairoa. Many of the buildings which were damaged in the earthquake of 1931 collapsed under the strain.

Hundreds of chimneys and walls fell at Gisborne, including the wall of the Anglician Church there.

The postoffice and other buildings were badly cracked, and many of them were left leaning on one side.

The quake also made huge cracks in the roads about Wairoa, where bridges collapsed and the water supply was interrupted.

INSULL PROFITS HELD PADDED

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—The receivers of Middle West Utilities Company, once a three billion dollar holding company embracing the vast Insull utilities system, reported in Federal Court today that earnings reports had been enhanced by "profits from sale of securities," although in many cases these were merely exchanges on stock with subsidiaries.

The management also used stock dividends to build up the earnings showing, said Edward N. Hurley and Charles A. McCulloch, receivers.

They approximated the Middle West liabilities at $310,000,000 and assets at $298,305,041, the latter comprising chiefly investments in subsidiaries and other companies. Of the liabilities, capital stock and surplus totaled $230,348,069.

State's Attorney John A. Swanson was given permission to have his assistants examine the company records. Swanson said he wished to learn whether any laws, perhaps the blue sky laws of Illinois, were broken in the issuance of the various Insull stocks and bonds.

HEAR MALONEY CASE TODAY

Hearing was to be held late today in Quarter Sessions Court on a rule to show cause why the appointment of Andrew M. Maloney as constable in the First Ward should not be revoked. The rule was asked by Alderman Thomas Flanigan in a motion made before Judges F. P. Patterson, George V. Moore, T. M. Marshall and J. P. Egan.

Attorney W. L. Dipple, for Flanigan, and Attorney B. L. Lencher, for Maloney, made verbal statements concerning Maloney's alleged failure to report for work to Flanigan, and of Maloney's assertedly unsuccessful effort to find the alderman in. At the request of the judges the statements of the attorneys were put in testimony form late yesterday.

Assistant District Attorney Roy T. Clunk questioned the witnesses in his office and Stenographer Joseph Heyl transcribed their answers. Those examined included Attorneys Dipple and Lencher, Flanigan, Maloney, Owen McManus and Mary Corcoran, clerks in Flanigan's office.

ROOSEVELT'S LEAD IN STATE INCREASES

Indiana and Ohio Increase Margin Of Democrat

By COLE E. MORGAN
Universal Service.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—New returns today in the nation-wide presidential poll of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph in co-operation with all the other Hearst morning, evening and Sunday papers in the United States shows:

1—Gov. Roosevelt increased his lead over President Hoover in Pennsylvania and Indiana.

2—Roosevelt cut down President Hoover's advantage in Ohio.

3—Roosevelt held to his previous advantage in Michigan and Illinois.

GAINS 2 PER CENT

In Pennsylvania, Roosevelt's lead jumped from 51 to 53 per cent of the ballots. Indiana, which last week showed him with 54 per cent, now gives him 55. Last week Ohio gave President Hoover 53 per cent. Today he has 52. Both weeks Michigan has divided at 52 per cent for Roosevelt. The Illinois figures from the outset have shown Roosevelt leading with 60 per cent or more of the total.

The fact that Roosevelt is able to maintain these leads in such normally Republican states as Pennsylvania and Michigan, and such always debatable states as Indiana and Illinois, and is holding Hoover down close to a 50-50 division in Ohio should lend encouragement to the Democratic nominee.

ROOSEVELT LEAD GROWS

Of 14,178 poll ballots tabulated from Illinois Roosevelt has a 2,906 majority. He has a majority of 758 with 14,004 recorded from Pennsylvania. Indiana gave Roosevelt a majority of 866 out of 9,586. He has a 394 majority out of 10,138 in Michigan.

A week ago Hoover's Ohio majority stood at 456 with 8,916 ballots tabulated. Today, with 11,570 votes, Hoover's majority slumped to 378.

Out of 218,091 ballots for the entire country Roosevelt has a popular majority of 37,027. This is a net gain over Hoover of 6,231 votes.

Presidential Trend by States

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The tabulation that follows shows the total vote thus far recorded for President Hoover and Gov. Roosevelt in the nation-wide presidential poll of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph in co-operation with all the other Hearst morning evening and Sunday papers in the United States. It also shows the majority that each candidate has in each state in which he is leading. In addition it gives the gain of each candidate on the latest returns received from each state as compared with the last preceding report from the state. These state reports are usually a week apart. The final feature of this table shows the net gain of each candidate in each state where he has improved his position as compared with the preceding report from that state.

'STRAW VOTES' BEST ELECTION FORECASTS

Universal Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Newspaper polls, such as the one now being conducted by the Hearst newspapers, provide the most accurate election forecasts. This was found in a study of "straw votes" published by the Columbia University press.

Politicians are second and political reporters third in accuracy, says the author, Claude E. Robinson, former Gilder fellow in sociology at Columbia.

The most accurate nationwide straw poll ever held in this country was the Hearst newspapers poll of the presidential election of 1928, which predicted the Hoover plurality with an average error per state of only five votes per hundred cast, an all-time high for national prediction accuracy, the survey declared. Robinson comments:

"Here are shown some very remarkable predictions. On the face of the straw returns alone, without interpretative correction, the Hearst newspapers forecast the 1928 presidential pluralities in 46 states with an average error of only five per cent.

"In 13 of the 46 states in which the Hearst canvas was conducted, the plurality prognostication was in error one per cent or less, which is virtually perfect prediction."

Robinson asserts that the proportion of the total official vote polled by Hoover and Smith was predicted correctly to within less than three per cent for the two major candidates. The Literary Digest national poll was second only to the Hearst newspapers in accuracy. Robinson says:

"The average 'Digest' plurality error by states is smaller than that of any national undertaking except the Hearst poll of the same year."

EARL OF CRAVEN DEAD AT 35

PAU, France, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—The Earl of Craven, who hurriedly left American soil in 1926 when immigration agents sought to question him concerning an affair with the Countess of Cathcart, who was in process of being barred from the United States, died here yesterday. He was 35 years old.

The earl succeeded to the title of his father in 1921. He was educated at Eton and was married in October, 1916, to Mary Williamina George, of Invergordon. He served with a Hampshire regiment for four years during the World War and was voted war honors by the government in 1926. At one time he was mentioned as possible successor to Lord Byng as governor general of Canada.

The earl's wife sued him for divorce following his elopement to the United States with Vera, Countess of Cathcart. The countess was refused entrance to the United States on the ground she was guilty of moral turpitude.

She demanded, through her counsel, that the earl be deported if she were. The next day a writ was procured for his arrest, but he fled to Canada before it was served.

BRIDE, TWICE SOLD, FREED

MARTINEZ, Cal., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Deputy sheriffs guarded against possible gypsy reprisals here today as a result of the freeing of an 18-year-old mother yesterday from a man who allegedly bought her for $1,500.

The young woman, Mrs. Rachel Urich Zeko, was advised by Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie that she might go where she pleased after Mrs. Zeko and her mother, Mrs. Christine Urich, told the court she was kidnaped from her home in Hammond, Ind., two years ago and sold twice into gypsy marriage.

Cries of protest from nearly 150 gypsies in the courtroom caused Judge McKenzie to summon officers.

The two women and Mrs. Zeko's three-week-old baby were escorted by police out of the county on their way to Nevada and the East.

NEW WHO'S WHO LISTS 30,545

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—The seventeenth biennial edition of Who's Who in America, just off the press, contains sketches of 30,545 persons, a net increase of 841 over the 1930-31 edition.

A total of 3,423 new names appear in the volume, the discrepancy between actual increase and the new sketches being accounted for by a death roll during the interim of 1,526 and omission of 1,056 names of persons who have dropped from the public limelight.

The time required to attain sufficient recognition in their fields to be listed in the volume varies considerably with occupations, an analysis of the biographies indicates.

The average period for educators is shown as 17.54 years and for scientists 19.84 years. Writers require 22 years, editors, 24.1; doctors of medicine and surgery, 25.04; artists, 25.95; lawyers, 29.67; businessmen, 31.29; and officers of the Army and Navy, 35.2.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Senator William S. Rial, Westmoreland, chairman of the Senate Committee which will investigate relations of public utilities with the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission, said today the hearing probably would get under way in Harrisburg September 26.

No counsel for the committee has been decided upon, the Senator said, adding that he was conferring with other members of the committee concerning the selection. The appointment will be announced before the hearing gets under way.

Senator Rial said he and other committeemen also would confer on plans for conducting the inquiry, but that it would follow the general lines authorized by the Senate resolution ordering the hearing.

From 15 to 17 of the hot mills will be in operation, according to Plant Manager C. H. Williams.

Mayor's Bodyguard Convicted in Murder

GREENSBURG, Pa., Sept. 16.—Tony Alessio, of Monessen, former bodyguard to Mayor Carl Woodward, of Monessen, today was found guilty of first degree murder and recommended to life imprisonment.

Alessio was convicted of the fatal shooting of Ralph Masco, Monessen mill worker, as the latter slept on the first floor of his Morgan avenue home in Monessen last May.

ART BY KRENN SELLS READILY

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(Universal.)—Discovery was made today that 40 etchings by Edwin Krenn, friend and business associate of the late Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, had been placed on sale at a rummage sale on North Wabash avenue at $2 each.

The etchings had been brought from the former home of Mrs. McCormick on instructions, it is said, of someone who had been in the household. All were signed by Krenn and on each was the inscription in German, "Dedicated in Adoration."

After 25 of the prints had been sold within six hours, the price was raised to $3 and all but six of these were sold quickly. One purchaser of several prints admitted frankly she hoped to sell them back to Krenn.

The motif in all the pictures was the same—worshipful man adoring an angel or deity.

Beetle Quarantine To End Tomorrow

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—The United States Department of Agriculture today announced that restrictions on the movement of farm products because of the Japanese beetle will be lifted tomorrow. The quarantine will again become effective next June 15. The quarantine on curb flowers will remain in effect until October 15.

FOOD SHORTAGE PERILS REDS

MOSCOW, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Instead of the general improvement heralded for 1932, a decrease in Soviet Russia's food production for eight months of this year as compared with the same period in 1931 was revealed in government statistics today.

There has been a serious shortage in sugar, meat and salt for some months and these conditions, combined with disappointing progress of the harvest, may presage a hard winter.

In spite of opening of many new packing, canning and refining plants, eight months' production came to only 78.2 per cent of the government program for that period and only 39.5 per cent of the quota under the five-year-plan for the whole year.

The statistics were confined to percentages, but indicated the acute state of the country's food supply. The effect is being shown in widespread shifting of workers, searching for better living conditions.

Freeport Landmark Destroyed by Flames

FREEPORT, Pa., Sept. 16.—A two-story frame dwelling, a landmark of more than 100 years, was destroyed by fire early this morning.

The ancient dwelling, at the corner of Railroad and Fourth streets, is owned by Anthony Rutkoski, and had been unoccupied for some time. The building, used as a stable during the days of the old Pennsylvania canal a century ago, was damaged to the extent of $2,000, firemen reported.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—The interest of the late George Eastman in the movement to establish the 13-month calendar, which he financially assisted for eight years prior to his death, will be carried on with funds provided from his estate by the University of Rochester, chief beneficiary, in accordance with his wishes. This was learned today at the Rochester office of the International Fixed Calendar League, of which Mr. Eastman was president.

Ex-Dry Agent Held On Theft Charge

DONORA, Pa., Sept. 16.—Archie Negelman, former prohibition agent, was held for court charged with stealing an automobile in connection with an alleged theft ring, last night before Justice of the Peace J. A. Miller, of North Bellevernon. Corp. H. E. Hoover, of the state highway patrol, testified Negelman stole a car belonging to Ralph Smith, of Rostraver Township, a month ago. Negelman was recently arrested on a federal warrant charging conspiracy to violate the dry laws in West Virginia.

LINCOLN SHOWN AS BOY IN NEW STATUE

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—A new, different statue of Abraham Lincoln was unveiled here today.

It is the likeness of Lincoln at 21; a stalwart Indiana frontiersman, unburdened by his country's problems.

The figure leans against an oak stump, axe at side, book in hand and a hound dog nestling against it.

Twenty-two feet tall, the statue in bronze fills a vacancy that had existed in artists' and sculptors' likenesses of the Emancipator.

It is the work of Paul Manship, New York sculptor, and was cast in Brussels, Belgium. The permanent resting place of the statue is on the plaza of the Lincoln National Life Insurance Company building here.

Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde, United States Senator James E. Watson, Ida M. Tarbell, a Lincoln biographer; Daniel Carter Beard, national commissioner of the Boy Scouts of America, and Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, were among the notables invited to the unveiling.

Secretary Hyde was the principal speaker. It was the Rev. Dr. Sizoo's church that Lincoln attended while President of the United States.

The actual unveiling of the statue was left to Arthur Fletcher Hall III, a 5-year-old Fort Wayne boy who is a great, great-grandson of Hugh McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury in President Lincoln's cabinet.

CHARGES GIRL PUPILS SMOKE, BOYS CHEW

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Sept. 16.—Girl students of the senior high school smoke openly about the building, the Board of Education was told by one of its members, Mrs. J. E. Elliott, who also charged that boy students chew tobacco and the pupils in general litter the streets near the school with papers and candy wrappers. She declared:

"The residents will reach the limit of their patience and take the matter in their own hands unless something is done by the board.

"Girl students are smoking openly about the school building during intermissions and the boys gather on steps of residences adjacent to the school and chew tobacco, expectorating over the walks."

Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools, commented:

"Senior high school is a large school. There are 2,039 students and it is hard to enforce discipline. However, I have brought the matter to the attention of the principal and I am going to insist that the school itself clean up this condition. If it is not done by the next board meeting, I will invite Principal F. L. Lorth to talk it over with the school board."

Sought in Attack, Man Found Hanged

WARRENTON, Va., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—A body identified by officers as that of Shadrack Thompson, Negro, sought in connection with the attack of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baxley several weeks ago, was found last night hanging from a tree on the Miller place, between Piery Run and Linden, Va.

Many Penna. Wives Hold Outside Jobs

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Ten per cent of Pennsylvania's 2,150,209 housewives help the family budget by working.

GORILLA GIVES SCIENCE BLOOD

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(Universal.)—"Bushman," a five-year-old gorilla at the Lincoln Park zoo, gave some of his blood in the interests of science yesteraday and was rewarded for his spartan fortitude with an extra bunch of bananas.

Bushman was selected as the subject of blood-tests because he is one of the healthiest specimens in the United States. The purpose was to determine, if possible, why it is that almost all captive great apes in this country die after they have been here a few years.

When a doctor and a nurse entered his cage to extract the blood from an artery in his ear, Bushman declared with emphasis to let them anywhere near him, but submitted gracefully when the director of the zoo, Floyd S. Young, and several assistants substituted for the medico.

Wheeling Men to Bid For Trolley Company

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 16.—A group of wealthy residents of Wheeling, headed by tobacco magnate Jesse A. Bloch, today announced it will purchase the Wheeling Traction Company at receivers' sale tomorrow, if necessary, rather than allow its sale for junk. The pool will not bid, Bloch said, if a purchaser appears who has intentions of continuing operations.

Former subsidiary of the West Penn Power Company, the Wheeling Traction Company will not be repurchased by the Pittsburgh group, according to its representatives here.

CHINA SCORES JAPAN

SHANGHAI, Sept. 16.—(INS.)—The sharpest note dispatched by one "friendly" nation to another in the history of modern diplomacy has been forwarded to Tokio by the Chinese Nationalist government at Nanking, it was disclosed today.

China accuses Japan of relentlessly pursuing a policy of violence, murder and conquest in Manchuria.

Demonstrations continued throughout many parts of the Chinese republic protesting against the recognition.

At Nanking, where Japanese soldiers were on guard with machine guns, a dangerous situation was reported to exist. Chinese residents were openly hostile.

RAIL CHIEF SEES PAY CUT FIGHT

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(Universal.)—The country's 2,000,000 railroad employes will resist with their entire economic force any wage reduction proposed "at the request of bankers and railroad executives," A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, declared last night.

Addressing a mass meeting of representatives of labor, industry, religion, and capital, held at Town Hall by the National Citizens League for economic recovery, Whitney asserted that further pay cuts would be a "death blow to the railroad industry." He said:

"We have already taken a 10 per cent cut this year, thereby effecting a great saving for the railroads. We were assured that the money saved would be used to aid the recovery of prosperity, we didn't expect to see it go to pay dividends.

"We will resist cuts with all the economic strength we can muster."

Gets 6-Months Term In Liquor, Arson Case

Steve Priesel, R. F. D., Tarentum, was sentenced to six months in jail yesterday in Criminal Court after pleading guilty to a liquor charge and no defense to an arson charge growing out of an explosion during a raid. Constables Irvey F. Asay, of Creighton, and Frank Russell, of Kinloch, were burned when carbide they threw into a barrel to destroy mash exploded. Priesel was charged with having thrown a match into the barrel as he lit a cigaret. Visiting Judge R. P. Sherwood held that insufficient evidence was presented to prove Priesel's action in throwing the match was intentional.

MONONGAHELA BOULEVARD AND BRIDGE URGED

Fourteen city and county improvement projects, involving expenditure of several hundred thousand dollars, including construction of a new bridge over the Monongahela River, near Hazelwood avenue, were proposed to Council and the County Commissioners today.

Leo J. Kirch, chairman of the Fifteenth Ward Republican committee, advocated construction of a span over the river to reroute a large amount of traffic from the Golden Triangle, and to connect the South Hills area with the Squirrel Hill section.

The bridge, according to Kirch, would join the main arteries extending along the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers and boulevards, and would provide through connections by crossing both streams and making main connections without going into the city proper.

BOULEVARD URGED

Construction of a new Monongahela River boulevard was also advocated. The route would provide a direct outlet from the Boulevard of the Allies out Second avenue, to Glenwood, to connect with a proposed new boulevard at Fleet street, Rankin. It would serve Braddock, East Pittsburgh and the Turtle Creek Valley, with direct access to downtown Pittsburgh.

Other improvements advocated were construction of a new swimming pool in Schenley Park; widening of Greenfield avenue, from Hazelwood avenue to Irvine street, and construction of a sewer on Forward avenue.

Legislation is now in preparation for the Forward avenue improvement.

STREET JOBS PROPOSED

Kirch also recommended study of the following proposals:

Forward avenue—Saline street boulevard, legislation for which has been drawn up by the city Public Works Department.

Grading, paving and curbing of unimproved streets and work on dirt streets with slag and stone.

Improvement of the hazardous conditions existing at the Glenwood Bridge.

Renovation of Burgwin Park to make it a year-around recreational center.

Paving of Gidding street from Flowers avenue to Hazelwood avenue.

257,338 Attendance At South Park Pool

South County Park swimming pool closed yesterday after a three months' season. It had a total attendance of 257,338, an average of 2,767 daily, handled without a mishap. The figures show only paid attendance and as children were admitted free, the total attendance is estimated at 300,000.

It is likely that hereafter the pool will close Labor Day and open earlier.

COX TO SPEAK IN WICHITA

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 16.—The jobless party presidential nominee, Father James R. Cox, of Pittsburgh, was to arrive here today for a speech tonight.

Mayor H. D. Cottman has approved the candidate's appearance, but referred to City Manager Bert C. Wells the matter of finding a place for the meeting.

Last night Father Cox, following on the heels of the Democratic nominee, Franklin D. Roosevelt, invaded Topeka. The Pittsburgher spoke in a dimly-lighted waterfront park, pleading the cause of the jobless.

Father Cox was to speak this afternoon in Emporia.

U. S. ECONOMY STEPS TOLD

F. G. Knabenshue, of Philadelphia, co-ordinator of government activities in this district, addressed members of the Federal Business Association at a luncheon yesterday in the Keystone Club, attended by 100 federal employes representing 40 government activities.

The speaker was introduced by M. E. Evans, superintendent of the Fifteenth Division of the Railway Mail Service, who is president of the business association. Knabenshue told of large economies effected by co-operation between government units in the territory under his supervision, especially in rentals of buildings for government requirements.

Contract Bridge -:- HOW TO PLAY and HOW TO WIN

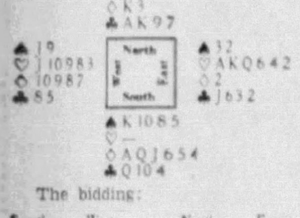
By JOSEPHINE CULBERTSON

Overcalling an Adversely Bid Suit

One of the most beautiful bids in Contract, when a hand justifies it, is an Overcall of an adversely bid suit. When partner has opened the bidding, this implies, of course, that the Responding Hand has adequate or more than adequate support for the suit originally bid or else has another suit of his own which he can later show, but in any event, does not wish his partner to drop the bidding until a game contract is reached. In the early stages of bidding, it is not a Slam suggestion, or if so, only a vague one. In the later stages of bidding, it is a distinct Slam try. There is another use of this bid, and that is as a Forcing bid to game after opponents have opened the bidding.

The hand shown below is an illustration of its use in the first sense by means of which a Grand Slam contract was reached, which would not have been otherwise available.

North—Dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.



The bidding:

South	West	North	East
		1 ♠	2 ♡
3 ♡ (1)	Double (2)	4 ♣ (3)	Pass
5 ♠ (4)	7 ♠ (5)	Pass	Pass
Pass

(1) While South's hand is not extremely strong in honor-tricks, he does hold 2½. His partner's vulnerable Opening bid has guaranteed 3, in view of the fact that his trump suit is far from solid. South's holding does—even at this early stage—suggest, with the void in hearts, the possibility of Slam and the certainty of game. If East, vulnerable, is strong enough to overcall an Opening bid, this would seem to place the honor strength adversely held in that hand. Whether or not a Slam will be attempted, South will determine through North's response to his Overcall.

(2) Probably an idle gesture, but West wishes to encourage his partner to go on if his hand is very freakish. He knows, of course, that South's Overcall is based on a void in hearts and not possession of the Ace.

(3) In view of partner's Overcall of the adversely bid suit, North is fully justified in showing his second biddable suit, as he knows that the hands fit in spades. Without a biddable suit, North should permit South to make the next bid.

(4) Possibly South could bid six spades, but the three heart bid is a very strong bid, and South wants to give his partner some leeway.

(5) North reasons that South must hold the Ace of diamonds as well as a void in hearts and strong spade support for his previous bidding. In fact, a reasonably strong diamond suit is almost certainly assured.

There is nothing whatever to the play, the Grand Slam being made laid down.

The interesting feature in the hand is that it was played in a team-of-four match, and in another room, South, instead of bidding three hearts over East's Overcall of two hearts to show no heart losers, raised the spade contract to game, and North, fearing that there might be two heart losers in each hand, let the bidding die there.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Mrs. Culbertson will be glad to answer any specific question on bidding or play sent in by readers. Address her in care of this newspaper, inclosing a three-cent stamped self-addressed envelope.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Can a player make a Jump Rebid in a new suit (Forcing Rebid) after a minimum response from partner, if the new suit is a four-card minor and it is necessary to bid three of that suit.

Answer: Yes—always provided that there appears to be a strong likelihood of game at the best contract for the combined hands.

Correct Manners

By MRS. CORNELIUS BEECKMAN

A Friendly Letter

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I am 15 years old and I would like very much to know what sort of letter to write to a boy friend when I go away to the mountains for a vacation? F.

"Chatty" and "friendly" are the words for the letters that you write to the young man when you are aholidaying. Don't be too personal or too informal, but write in a natural way about the daily happenings of the place where you are, about the different people, about the friends that you are making, about the books that you are reading, and the thousand and one other things that make holidays happy and charming.

Secret Wedding

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

1. I am to be married secretly. What would be the best to wear, a suit, street dress, or an informal afternoon dress?

2. We intend to keep our marriage a secret only a short time. What would be a good way to announce it?

My mother is not very able to entertain and I will have to do it myself. We will have a small apartment when we start housekeeping and there will not be much room for entertaining. Perhaps a small family dinner.

M.

1. This choice is just as you wish, my dear girl, and as you find convenient. If you are leaving at once for your wedding trip, the suit would probably be the most convenient, and probably very useful for traveling, and undoubtedly extremely useful when you return.

2. If you are to keep your marriage a secret really only a very short time . . . a few days or two weeks or so . . . you could send out the formal, engraved announcements. This is the dignified thing to do, and very fine to make the announcement to your lists of friends.

If the announcement is to be postponed to a time when such an announcement seems a bit awkward, then perhaps you could wait and have a housewarming as a form of announcement. Or you could tell the friends who live near enough to tell, and write notes telling those friends who live too far for word-of-mouth announcement.

-:- Hints for the Household -:-

If you have some sour milk you are about to throw away, pour it into a pan instead and lay your table silver in it. Allow it to stand for the morning and then wash in sudsy hot water. All tarnish will be removed with absolutely no work on your part. (Let's all let some sour!)

Unbelievable as it may seem, it is actually possible to make a palatable drink with castor oil as an important hygienic ingredient. Here is the secret: First, the juice of half a lemon should be squeezed into a tall glass. Then add the required amount of castor oil, a pinch of ground ginger and the rest of the lemon. Now add a quarter teaspoon of bicarbonate of soda and stir quickly. The mixture will effervesce and the oil will be broken up in such tiny globules that it will not be distinguishable. Take the drink while it is still bubbling.

For tarnished silverware, fill a clean, grease-free aluminum dish with water enough to cover the articles to be cleaned and add 1 teaspoonful of baking or washing soda and 1 teaspoonful of salt for each quart of water; bring it to a boil. When boiling put in the silverware, keeping it covered a few seconds (be sure the silver comes in contact with the aluminum); it will come out bright and clean. Rinse in clean water and wipe with a soft cloth. A little whiting put in the soda will contribute brilliancy. If the aluminum is slightly discolored after this process, it can easily be cleaned.

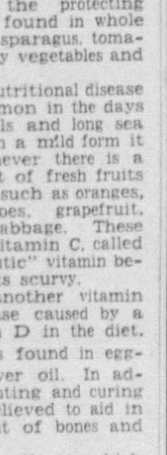
Gas can be saved if we will only remember to turn off the oven burners about 10 minutes before the roast is supposed to be done. There will be enough heat to finish the roasting and that much fuel saved.

How to Keep Well

By DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND

Get Vitamins in Foods, Not Pills

A dozen years ago little was known about vitamins. The average person had seldom heard the word. Today the term is familiar to everybody.



Dr. Copeland

A great deal of information as well as misinformation is published daily about vitamins. Unfortunately the public mind has become confused, and in consequence there has been an unjustified exploitation of the so-called "vitamin extracts," "vitamin concentrates" and "vitamin pills."

I am sorry to say that the vitamin fad has encouraged a lot of quackery.

It is not necessary to buy vitamin extracts or to swallow vitamin pills. If you will eat a well-balanced diet, which includes vegetables, fruits, salads and milk, you will get all the vitamins your highest welfare demands.

We hear much talk about vitamin A. This is supposed to give protection against infections, particularly of the mucous membranes of the eyes, intestinal tract and upper respiratory tract. This vitamin is found in butter, cream, egg yolk, carrots, spinach, fish, salads, cream cheese and cod liver oil.

"Beri-beri" is the name of a disease caused by the lack of vitamin B. We rarely hear of the disease nowadays, for most diets contain the protecting vitamin. It is found in whole grain cereals, asparagus, tomatoes, beans, leafy vegetables and yeast.

Scurvy is a nutritional disease which was common in the days of sailing vessels and long sea voyages. But in a mild form it is caused whenever there is a lack in the diet of fresh fruits and vegetables, such as oranges, lemons, tomatoes, grapefruit, lettuce and cabbage. These foods contain vitamin C, called the "anti-scorbutic" vitamin because it prevents scurvy.

Rickets is another vitamin deficiency disease caused by a lack of vitamin D in the diet. This vitamin is found in egg-yolk and codliver oil. In addition to preventing and curing rickets, it is believed to aid in the development of bones and teeth.

"Pellagra," a disease which baffled the medical profession for many years, is now traced to a lack of vitamin G, known as the "anti-pellagra vitamin." It is found in milk, spinach, bananas, leafy vegetables and yeast. Vitamin G and vitamin B combined are thought to stimulate appetite and growth. Other vitamins are being studied by research workers.

It is not necessary to worry about any of the vitamins. If you include in your diet liberal amounts of the foods I have mentioned, which are known to contain vitamins, you will help yourself to vigorous health.

I cannot say too much about the importance of a well-balanced diet which contains varied and wholesome food and supplies the body with all the various food elements needed to maintain health.

Boys Dislike Girls Who Are Always Too Agreeable

What's wrong with Jane 'n' the boy friend?

Why does he run out on her when they "get along so well and she agrees with everything he says"?

She would be much obliged if we'd tell her. For right now she is completely at sea, and doesn't know what to think.

He's just quit seeing me, without a word of explanation, several times," she wails, "And I can't understand it at all!"

Do you know the answer?

Listen—

"Dear Miss Martin—

"Will you please help me? I need your advice because I don't know what to do or even what to think.

"I've been going with a young fellow who takes it into his head, every now and then, to stay away from me, for no reason at all.

"I've been friends with him for four years. Two years ago I began going with him. Not long after I started going with him I knew I loved him. But I thought it was only friendship on his part, so I told him I thought it would be better if we stopped going out with each other. It was hard to do, but I thought it was better to be hurt then than later.

"Then he got sick, and that brought us together again. So I went with him steady for several months. Then, for no reason at all, I didn't see him for over a month. I phoned, and asked what was the matter. He said, 'nothing!' Then I wrote him a letter and told him a few things. The next night he came to see me. He said he didn't know why he did it. I suppose I shouldn't have, but I started going with him again. And now, after almost a year, he has done the same thing again. I haven't seen or heard from him for almost a month.

IN QUANDARY

"I haven't called him and I haven't written. My pride has kept me from doing that. But why should he act that way, when we always get along so well together, and I agree with everything he says?

"He is very nice when he is with me, and for almost a year we've been together three or four times a week. I miss him terribly. Should I write? Or phone him? I'd never forgive myself if I did it, and he didn't want to see me. But on the other hand, I think maybe he is waiting to hear from me as he did before. What do you think? Should he make the first move? Or should I?

I love him, and it is very hard to not make that move. Please help me. Why do you think he acts that way?

"JANE."

TOO AGREEABLE

Why?

I suspect you're why, yourself, girlie. Of course, I don't know for sure, because I don't know him and I don't know you. He may not be really interested in you, and he may be staying away because he thinks if he didn't, you'd get too serious.

On the other hand, it's quite likely that he does like you—but after he goes around with you for so long you bore him. You want to know "why he acts like that when you get along so well together and you agree with everything he says." That may be why, sister. Boys don't like "smart" gals, who show off how much they know, and start arguments . . . but neither do they like door mats or yessers. There isn't any kick coming in company that agrees with you all the time. Men like women who are good company, and have something interesting inside their heads. So when—and if—you see him again, try being yourself, and not just an echo of him.

And now shall you phone him—or write him a note? As for that, why not get some of your friends together and give a little party—and invite him? Or get them and go where you know you'll see him. Then if he is interested, maybe that'll fix things up. But whatever you do, stop being a Yesser. And show a little variety.

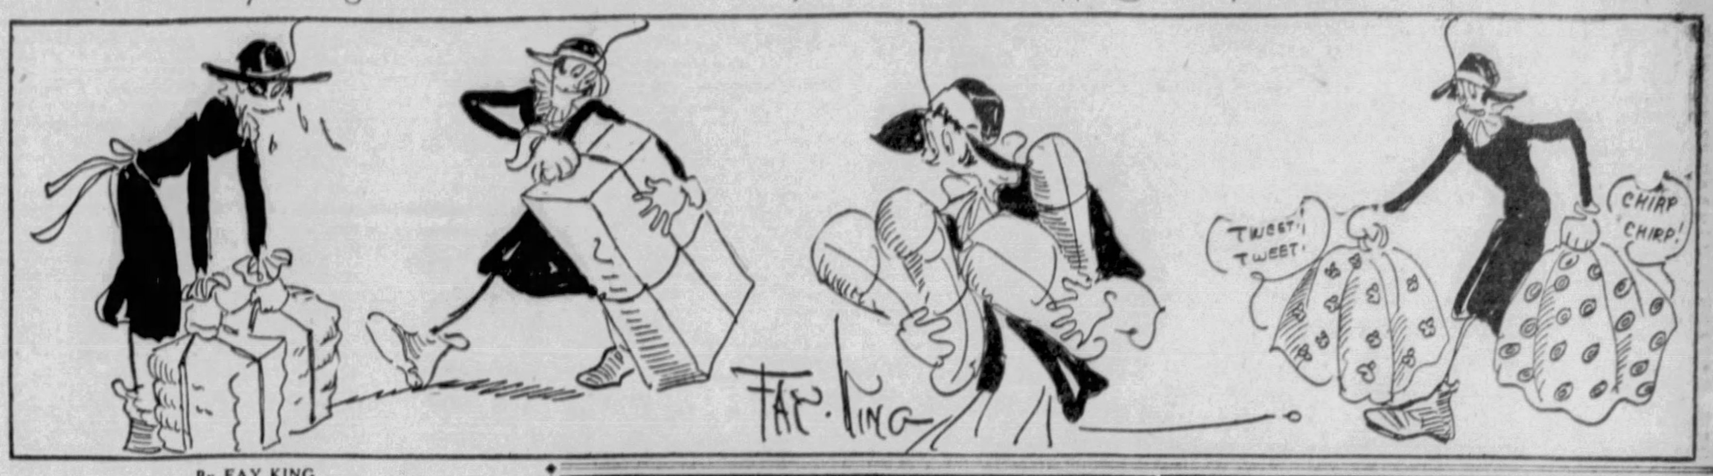
Fay King Favors 'Cash and Carry' Plan in Shopping—Except Hot Stoves



By FAY KING

When it comes to shopping I am strictly "cash and carry." I never could get much of a kick out of "send and charge" or "C. O. D." shopping.

My idea of shopping is to get the stuff home as quick as possible and forget about the price. I hate to get bills and I hate to wait for my purchases to arrive by delivery.

So I have "cash and carried" home everything from canaries to coats in boxes the size of steamer trunks.

Maybe that's why I never exchange anything. A one-way trip is enough even for a champion bundle toter like I claim to be.

Some day I am going to buy a stove and my regret will be to have it sent!

The Beauty Box

By HELEN FOLLETT

Don't stay too long a time in a hot bath, which increases heart action and is depleting, though it has a soothing touch for knotted nerves. Bad effects are avoided if the cold shower follows. It need not be ice cold at the first dash, but chilled gradually. The use of cold water after face washing is of cosmetic value. It improves the quality of the skin, acting as an astringent on enlarged pores and checking gushing sebaceous glands.

While button curls are an interesting detail of the early autumn coiffure they are under restraint. No thick bunches of them to interfere with a display of the contour of the head, but a discreet collection along the nape of the neck, held in closely to furnish that graceful nipped-in effect. The forward arrangement of the fashionable hairdress does pretty much as it pleases; hair can be brushed straight back, be parted or spot an undulated bang.

HOOVER HERO OF SLUMP, G. O. P. SAYS

International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—A new Republican handbook made its appearance today, almost literally, in the book stalls.

For the first time in the party's history, this quadrennial brochure which extolls Republican virtues and condemns Democratic shortcomings was on sale, price 25 cents, or just enough to pay printing, binding and mailing costs.

The 1932 campaign text book for the G. O. P. runs 288 pages, and in 19 chapters affords party orators and workers a wealth of ammunition for the final seven weeks' drive to re-elect President Hoover and install a Republican Congress.

SKETCH OF HOOVER

An opening biographical sketch of President Hoover details in concise language the many emergency steps he initiated in undertaking to bring the nation and the world out of the depression. It concludes, in part:

"All told, the relief measures which the President proposed and which Congress passed have furnished assistance thus far to approximately 70,000,000 people. The savings which he effectuated by courageous resistance to ill-considered panaceas aggregated upwards of $4,000,000,000. Thus he protected the American taxpayer from a staggering burden of unnecessary and unjust taxes.

"The history of Mr. Hoover's administration is in part that of an economic Armageddon, an economic equivalent of the great war, with the responsibility of leadership in defense resting on Mr. Hoover's shoulders.

HEAVEN-SENT

"He was Heaven-sent for the role. His experience in organized relief of distress as 'the greatest practical humanitarian in all the ages,' excelling literally that of any other individual in the world, equipped him superbly for caring for those wounded in the economic battle.

"His understanding of world commerce and finance, acquired as Secretary of Commerce and in his personal business experience, made him ideal for the leadership he was called upon to take against the blows that rained from abroad upon the structure of American business and credit.

"Literally no other President has had this kind of equipment; no other President has had this kind of task."

MAINE DEMOCRATS' 'LUCKY MASCOT'

MAINE'S GOVERNOR-ELECT LOUIS JEFFERSON BRANN . . . . WITH "VICTORY," HIS MASCOT

The Democratic nominee who was swept into office in the amazing political upset by which rock-ribbed Maine elected its first Democratic governor in 18 years. Mr. Brann regards the cat which wandered into his office on the eve of the election as his lucky mascot and has named her "Victory." This is an International News Photograph Service picture.

LONG GIVES UP STATE THRONE

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—United States Senator Huey P. Long has discarded his role of "King Fish" of Louisiana democracy to take the stump in the national campaign.

At a farewell dinner last night the Senator announced his retirement from active direction of the state committee to accept speaking engagements in the West in the interest of the national ticket.

Fresh from victory over political enemies in the recent state primary in which his candidates emerged successful, the "King Fish" told his leaders he "was glad to step aside" in state politics which had kept him so busy. He said he "had not had time to reads the rules of the United States Senate, but had to pick them up by ear." He added:

"I wouldn't retire until we had put every one of our dadgum maligners out of office."

Robert S. Maestri was chosen chairman of the state committee and will handle city affairs while Gov. O. K. Allen was bequeathed direction of state affairs.

HOWELL BACKS HOOVER

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—President Hoover today broke into the "Progressive bloc" in the Senate when Senator R. B. Howell, of Nebraska, announced that he will take the stump for the Republicans in Nebraska in October.

The announcement of Howell, who staged a one-man filibuster in the Senate in behalf of farm relief this summer, followed the Topeka speech in which Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for President, made public his farm policy.

While refusing to discuss the Roosevelt farm program, Howell said:

"I am a Republican. I expect to make some speeches in Nebraska in October."

He thus split with the veteran Nebraska Republican insurgent, Senator George W. Norris, who is supporting the Democratic candidate.

GROVE CITY, Pa., Sept. 16.—To reduce expenses, Grove City has abandoned its jail.

Hunt Postal Clerk After $11,000 Theft

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Theft of a shipment of currency amounting to $11,000 from the Terre Haute postoffice last Sunday was disclosed today by postal inspectors. The money was consigned to two banks here from the Comptroller of Currency at Washington.

The inspectors said they were hunting for Edwin Fasig, 22, a clerk in the postoffice, and Kenneth Coker, 23, unemployed.

Fasig was on duty Sunday and signed a receipt for the shipment. He disappeared a few hours later.

Garner in Capital To Map Stump Tour

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Speaker John N. Garner arrived here early today to confer with Democratic leaders about plans for speaking in the campaign and is to leave during the week-end for New York.

The Democratic vice presidential candidate came here from Topeka, Kan., where he met Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, his running mate.

FLIERS SCORE STATE RULING

The State Aeronautics Commission today has before it a complaint of the Aero Club of Pittsburgh, against a recent regulation that only qualified flying instructors, attached to an approved school, may give flying instructions.

The protest says:

"It is unfair and unreasonable not to allow a pilot, who qualified as a flying instructor to instruct students in any licensed airport in the state and that conversely it is also unfair and unreasonable to prevent a licensed student from going to the nearest licensed instructor who has licensed equipment available and receiving instruction on an airport in the proximity of his home instead of being obliged to go a considerable distance, as is now the case, and enroll in an approved school."

No objection is made to approved schools. It is said that at present students are going outside the state for instruction and purchasing airplanes outside the state.

Printers to Vote On Five-Day Week

LONG BEACH, Cal., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—The International Typographical Union was scheduled to take a definite stand here today on the five-day week for printers at the closing session of its seventy-seventh annual convention. Delegates pointed out the five-day week could be put into effect immediately in newspaper offices, but in job printing plants complications arise as contracts for the six-day week are in force.

Chicago was selected for the next year's convention.

'CHUTE SAVES PITTSBURGHER

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Cadet George F. McDermott, of Pittsburgh, a student in the primary stage at Randolph Field, joined the "Caterpillar Club" today by falling from a plane in which he was practicing rolls.

His safety belt became unfastened as the plane was flying on its back. His parachute dropped him safely in a cotton patch.

Young McDermott's home is at 823 Lilac street, in the Greenfield district. The student's family was advised today that McDermott was not injured, although he had a thrilling experience.

ONE COOLIDGE SPEECH SURE

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(Universal.)—Former President Coolidge will make at least one speech for the Hoover-Curtis ticket and may make two or three, it was learned definitely today.

His own desire is said to broadcast from his home in Northampton, Mass., but it is understood that efforts are being made to induce him to take the stump.

The sensational overturn in Maine is said to have impelled national leaders to urge Coolidge to participate actively and to have been the factor that moved him to accord with Hoover's demand that party workers make new and more vigorous efforts.

Just how many addresses will be made by Hoover himself and when and where they will be made will be determined within a day or two.

Slemp Votes Twice For Hoover in Polls

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—(Universal.)—C. Bascom Slemp, southern Republican leader, called on President Hoover yesterday to discuss campaign plans and to inform the chief executive that he had just voted for him twice.

He explained that he had mailed two postal-card ballots in two national polls. One was in the presidential poll being conducted by the Hearst newspapers, Slemp said.

OAKDALE SPORT FIELD BIDS LET

An up-to-date athletic field today appeared near realization as the Oakdale Board of Education advertised for bids on construction of the park. A school-owned plot of approximately seven acres adjoining the high school is to be graded, stands erected, and plotted for baseball, football, tennis and track events, Charles R. Keenan, vice president of the board, said.

Construction of the park, it is said, will necessitate the removal of about 20,000 yards of earth, which will be used to fill a lower section of the plot. A large stand will be constructed on a slope. The cost, it is said, will amount to $5,000. Only local labor will be used.

This year 50 candidates turned out for the football team when Coach John Dean issued his call.

Teacher Gets $655 By Mail, Seeks Real Owner

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—There are plenty of honest persons in the world and Miss Lillian Smith, a school teacher of Wauwatosa, Wis., is one of them.

After arriving here for a visit she called at the general delivery window of the Chicago Postoffice and was given five letters, four of them from friends. The fifth, however, was a surprise, for out of it popped six $100 bills, one $50 bill, a $5 bill and 22 cents in postage stamps.

She hurried to a lawyer and investigation revealed that the letter was intended for Mrs. Lila Smith, whose only known address is "General Delivery, Chicago Postoffice."

The attorney is holding the money for Mrs. Smith.

Pittsburgher Lands Huge Muskellunge

James Cook, press room employe of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, has brought home one of the biggest fish caught in Northern Pennsylvania this season.

CITY HEALTHY, MAITS SAYS

Pittsburgh has been remarkably free this summer of communicable diseases, according to Dr. C. B. Maits, director of the City's Department of Health.

While infantile paralysis is causing great anxiety in Philadelphia and elsewhere, only three cases have been reported here.

Dr. Maits said:

"The situation regarding communicable diseases is excellent in that summer whooping cough is on the decline. We have not been hit, thank goodness, with infantile paralysis. Diphtheria, scarlet fever and measle cases are down in number. Even colds are of a mild type and if any unusual number of the latter exist, they have not come to my attention. The first appearance of frost will help the hay fever victims. Apparently business is poor among the physicians, because of the excellent health of the community."

Some drug stores reported during the latter part of last week, when the weather turned cool, and the early part of this week, there was some demand for cold remedies. But even in this connection, it was stated the demand was not unusual.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Mrs. Ethel DePew, the nurse who was acquitted of complicity in the kidnaping of Mrs. Nell Donnelly, wealthy garment manufacturer, has found a way to return the kindness of an attorney who helped perfect her defense.

When the lawyer, Walter A. Drummond, became ill with influenza yesterday, Mrs. DePew volunteered her services to the family and took the case immediately. His attack was said to be serious.

DOLLAR BILLS FLOOD EVERY PART OF CITY

Wrigley Reporters Greeted With Open Arms

By MR. SPEAR

This pleasant task of passing out new dollar bills for opinions of Wrigley's Gum is getting easier every day. Yesterday, I even ran out of bills at noon-time and had to go back for a fresh supply.

Miss Mint is the one who had all the excitement yesterday when she went out to the new Mellon Institute on Fifth Avenue and discovered in quick order that most everyone working on that beautiful structure uses Wrigley's. The first one she stopped was Officer F. G. SIMPSON, 2039 Charles St.—that big, handsome specimen of manhood—who said he had been waiting for Miss Mint for a couple of days.

MR. C. O. CRONER, 913 Berkshire Ave., Brookline, the superintendent of construction on the new Mellon Institute, also received a dollar when he produced a package of Double Mint and said "I chew it every day—at home and on the job."

Then Miss Mint went up to the top of the building and stopped D. E. WIGGINS, 215 Meridian St., Duquesne Heights, way out on the steel work. He almost lost his balance in the excitement but the sight of the dollar bill steadied him and when he produced his package of Spearmint, the dollar was his.

MRS. A. MITTELMEYER, 2908 Spring St., when she received her dollar bill, said, "This is the first good fortune I have had since I came from Germany 10 years ago. Wrigley's is great; I always chew it!"

PHIL CONSTABLE, 123 Carrick Ave., a P. K. user, was another one to receive a dollar bill.

EDWARD KROBOTH, 333 Church Ave., Mt. Oliver—a Knoxville Junior High School student—said he had been waiting for me since Saturday. He received a dollar bill when he showed me his Spearmint.

M. L. MANNING, 1310 Ridge St., McKeesport—a city detective—was all ready for me with a package of Spearmint when I stopped him. "I always chew Wrigley's when I'm on the job; I find it a very pleasant habit," said Detective Manning.

ALTA SHULTZ, 207 Erie St., McKeesport, is a Double Mint user. When she proved it by showing a package, I gave her a dollar bill. Her comment was "Cellophane certainly improved the flavor; I like Wrigley's now better than ever."

OFFICER HARRY MYERS, 4603 Torley St., who directs traffic at Seventh and William Penn Way, was all set for me. A package of Spearmint and his statement that "Wrigley's is my favorite—it keeps my mouth moist on this job," netted him a dollar bill.

ALEC FOSTER, 2 Locust St., Castle Shannon—motorman on a Castle Shannon car—always uses Double Mint. When he proved it and said "Double Mint helps indigestion after meals," I gave him one of my fresh dollar bills.

You know it's impossible for me to begin to list the names of all the people Miss Mint and I and our assistants reward with dollar bills. However, here are just a few: MERCEDES WALSH, Ritz Apartment Hotel; ROBERT B. MOORHEAD, 541 Homewood Ave.; ANN DIAMOND, 4209 Murray Ave.; NORMA MILLIGAN, 1136 Kelton Ave.; MRS. G. G. GRENLICH, 66 Longue View Drive; MRS. M. TRUDEL, 229 Rochelle St., Knoxville; WILLIAM H. WEISS, 514 Brownsville Road, Mt. Oliver; NORVAL C. HOGE, 1221 Pocono St.; C. L. WHEELER, 97 Electric Ave., Turtle Creek; and CARMINE CAPO, 168 State St., Wilmerding.

We have been having such good luck in meeting Wrigley users and their comments have been so friendly and enthusiastic that Miss Mint and I and our assistants are going to be stopping people as late as nine o'clock in the evening. We'll be all around town from now on in the evening as well as in the daytime. So, when you are on your way home from work or after dinner, watch out for us. Always be prepared by carrying with you a package of any of the four Wrigley flavors. Then when we stop you and you show us that you have a package of Wrigley's, we will give you one dollar for your opinion.

Patricia Pitt's Sprightly Comment on Pittsburgh Society Happenings

In Mayfair —With— Patricia Pitt

Today there's more school news. And it's mostly about Farmington, one of the popular finishing schools for sub-debs. That smart school in Connecticut is going to claim a group of Sewickley girls October 6.

Laura Liggett, daughter of the Sidney S. Liggetts, of Shields, and Betty Cappeau, daughter of the John W. Cappeaus, of Sewickley, are two destined for Farmington.

In the brief time left before school starts, they are having a marvelous time swimming and golfing and playing tennis. I see them frequently at the Allegheny Country Club and on the tennis courts at the Edgeworth Club.

Another Farmington - minded girl is Ruth Brooks, daughter of the J. Twing Brookses, of Edgeworth, whose older sister, Bertha, is a debutante this year.

Going to School

Jean Rose, young daughter of the Don Roses, of Sewickley, will be off for Farmington in early October, and so will Mary Richards, daughter of the Ralph S. Richardses, of Sewickley.

Sally Odell, popular young daughter of the Rev. O. D. Odell, has decided to go to the Madeira School.

Another member of this young school set in Sewickley, Nancy Clause, is going away to school this fall, but I don't know just where. She is expected home Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Robert L. Clause and her sisters, Mary and Nancy. They are at their summer home in Hyannisport.

* * *

Bridge is still one of the big interests in life at fashionable Southampton, L. I. At the sixth bridge tournament in a series at the Southampton Riding and Hunt Club this week, Mrs. G. Faber Downey, Jr., young Sewickley matron, and her mother, Mrs. Edward Van Ingen, of New York, were players.

* * *

And I have a bit of news about Dr. and Mrs. Ogden M. Edwards, Jr. They'll remain at Dunehurst, their Easthampton, L. I., summer home, until the end of this month. And before going to Donerail, Ky., they'll spend a few days in Pittsburgh. The Harkness Edwardses, their son and daughter-in-law, will leave the end of the month for their home in Donerail, Ky. The Edwards family keep a famous stable there.

There will be a reception after the wedding in the Greensburg Country Club.

The bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Charles C. Mellor, of Pittsburgh, is giving the rehearsal dinner at Mountain View, Greensburg, and a luncheon is being given for her on Monday by Dr. Jean Bailey, in her home in Greensburg. Tuesday, at noon, another luncheon will honor her, with Mrs. Alex Eicher, of Greensburg, as hostess, at the Greensburg Country Club.

Other parties have been given for Miss Whitten by Mrs. Paul Robinson, Mrs. John C. Silsley and Mrs. A. N. Pershing, Jr., all of Greensburg. Her bridal party will be announced soon.

Women said:

YOU CAN'T KEEP SUDS LIKE THAT

BUT that was before they used the New Oxydol

● Maybe you've had this experience; most women have. You stir up suds in dishpan or laundry tub, only to see them ball up or fade away when you put in greasy dishes or dirty clothes.

But that doesn't happen with the New Oxydol. Sprinkle this soap in and see the amazing result. Rich—fluffy—permanent suds. Suds that soak the dirt out and keep it out—suds that don't collapse, letting the dirt fall back on the clothes. Suds that soak clothes gleaming white—that make dishes sparkling clean—that leave no scum.

Oxydol makes 50% more suds—that's why this safe, clean-smelling soap can do so much, even in the hardest water—and all water hardens when you put in dirty clothes or greasy dishes.

Try the New Oxydol. See what gorgeous suds it makes—how much time it saves in all household cleaning—and how kind it is to hands and dainty things.

PARIS DESIGNERS SEE GRAY AS PROMINENT COLOR FOR 1933

Sketched in Paris

Paris Bureau,
Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

PARIS, Sept. 16.—Gray is prophesied as one of the outstanding color fashions for 1933. In Paris fashion shows it appears in many variations—putty, dove's breast, asbestos, pur stone, slate, oxford—all fr alest, almost-white tint, to a deep furry gray in heavy woolens which looks, at a distance, almost black.

* * *

ONE OF the interesting phases of this new color range is in its combinations with other colors. Light gray with chocolate brown, dark gray with yellow and orange, pumice gray with dark and light reds, asbestos gray with navy blue, putty gray with black—these are some of the new color alliances that are being formed in Paris fashion circles right now. Schiaparelli announces pumice gray as one of her favorite winter colors; Chantal uses gray for heavy topcoats; Augustabernards make some of her best-looking wool dresses of dark gray crepe fabrics. Many other dressmakers use gray, combinating it with pastels and with dark rich flower colors.

* * *

KNITTED FABRICS in two of the darker variations of gray were used by Maggy-Rouff to make this coat-dress and topcoat which may be worn together. Both are of knitted fabric—the coat in coarser weave than the dress, but both of stout quality that will stand the rigors of travel and general knockabout wear.

* * *

THE DRESS has raglan shoulders—the coat, classic sleeves and shoulder lines. Both are fastened at the front in a side-V fastening, marked with Maggy-Rouff initials. Both make clever use of a cravat scarf in brilliant shades of orange and yellow.

'Knife and Fork Suicide' To Be Club Topic

By MRS. CHARLES M. BREGG

"Knife and Fork Suicide" is the somewhat unusual title which Dr. E. R. Gardner has chosen for his talk at the October meeting of the Ingomar Woman's Club. The new year books announce Mrs. J. Charles Runk, district chairman of art for the State Federation, as the November speaker. She will talk on "Painting With Light." For the December meeting, which will be in the Franklin Methodist Episcopal Church, a program is being arranged by the music and drama committees.

A review of a play will be January attraction; then in February the club will entertain the Ingomar Social Club and the Ladies' Community Association with a program which the drama committee will direct.

Miss Rachel H. Wade is to give a talk on "Furniture and Harmony in the Home," at the March session; Mrs. Frank Orr Johnson will give the women her impressions of and experiences in India when she talks to them in April.

May's program will be a musicale by Elsie Breese Mitchell and assisting artists, then a business meeting and luncheon and card party will conclude the year. Mrs. A. D. Johnson is president this season.

* * *

With especially lovely decorations from their own gardens, members of the Aspinwall Woman's Club held their president's day meeting yesterday at the clubhouse. Preceding it, Mrs. J. Byron Henry, chairman of the social committee entertained at luncheon in her home, honoring the president, Mrs. Franklin E. Sturgeon. Present also were Mrs. Russell T. Nesbitt, president of the Wheeling Woman's Club; Mrs. James S. McClure, its vice president, and Mrs. W. N. Crowl, the secretary.

The enjoyable program consisted of piano solos by Miss Betty Heyser, tenor numbers by Donald C. Beatty and a splendid talk by Mrs. J. G. Chalfant, State Federation district president, who stressed the responsibility of a club that has reached a place of importance. If it does not meet the challenge of the community and the State Federation, such a club can not expect to maintain its high position, she said.

RELIEF CRISIS NEAR, NO PLAN FOR ACTION

County Heads, Poor Board Fail to Meet As Funds Dwindle

With September 23 and the end of relief funds for the County outside of the City approaching, the County Commissioners and members of the Poor Board today had made no arrangements to act in the crisis.

A meeting the Poor Directors had planned with the Commissioners has not materialized. Maj. J. Clyde Miller, chairman of the Board, said today, because of the absence from Pittsburgh of Chairman Charles C. McGovern.

UP TO COMMISSIONERS

Responsibility for continuing relief after state aid is exhausted, September 23, was laid at the door of the Commissioners when Gov. Pinchot signed a bill granting the poor directors permission to sell bonds for relief purposes with the consent of the Commissioners. The Commissioners had opposed the bill and asked Pinchot to veto it.

Miller today said he was doing everything possible to get together with the Commissioners.

Meanwhile, it was learned that Councilmen who waged a word battle "all in fun" over politics in city relief projects were not referring to jobs handled by the Allegheny County Emergency Association.

Councilmen Robert Garland and Charles Anderson, who charged that friends of the Kline administration were favored for jobs in work-relief projects, explained they did not have the association in mind.

PHILLIPS TO LEAD DRIVE

Frank R. Phillips, president of the Philadelphia Company and chairman of the operating committee of the Emergency Association, again will head the corporation division of the Welfare Fund drive, he announced today.

In the same position last year he turned in a record total of $1,622,170.22 in corporation gifts. Phillips said:

"With many former contributors stripped of resources, corporations this fall will have to give approximately 33 per cent, or $1,000,000, of the revised $3,000,000 total Welfare Fund budget."

Last year corporation donations reached 29 per cent of the total.

Patriotic Exercises Held at School

Nearly 1,500 pupils of the Clifford B. Connelly School this morning paid tribute to the writing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and the adoption of the Constitution. Exercises were participated in by the children, witnessed by pupils from the Letsche School.

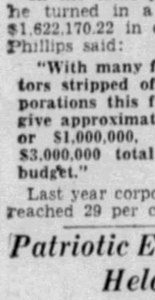
Addresses were made by Dr. L. H. Turner, principal of the Connolly School, and John H. Moore, W. F. Butler and J. M. Dixon, of the school faculty. The exercises opened with a flag raising at 8:30 o'clock.

WILL ROGERS SAYS

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Sept. 16.

To the Editor, Sun-Telegraph:

Roosevelt has got into the farm relief business. They all do. Nobody can promise the farmer whether his wheat or potatoes will sell for a nickel or a dollar. Supply and demand, and not a political speaker determines that. The only relief you can give the farmer is through his taxes. Work it like income tax—if he takes it he pays on it, and if he doesn't make it he doesn't pay.



Will Rogers

A thousand shares of stocks or bonds make nothing, you pay nothing, but on a thousand acres of land, you pay enough to support half the members of the community who own no land and pay no taxes. But the farmer will spend the rest of the fall running from one speaker's platform to another. Yours,

WILL.

Pittsburgh Armor for Latin Bullets

MILDRED BLACK IN BULLET-PROOF AUTO BUILT HERE FOR A SOUTH AMERICAN PRESIDENT

Miss Black, of Kincaid street, points to the steel netting designed to stop any kind of bombs or bullets in the specially-rebuilt armor-plated automobile under construction here for use of the head of a Latin-American republic. It is one of five similar cars. The autos will be equipped with tear gas bombs and machine guns. This is a Sun-Telegraph picture.

South America Sends Here for Armored Cars

Autos Being Made Bullet-Proof for President

A South American country now embroiled in warfare has sent to Pittsburgh for five armored automobiles to be used by its president, it was learned today.

The first of the specially protected cars is being equipped at the Armstrong Motor Car Body Company, 6340 Penn avenue, and will be shipped from New York by September 26. All cars are to be eight-cylinder sedans.

They will be lined with steel netting and armor plate steel and will have bulletproof glass one and one-quarter inches thick, according to A. R. Forrest, manager of the motor car works. The steel plating is so hard that thermoline gas has to be used in cutting it. Forrest said:

"With a car like this you could ride through any city making faces at the gangsters."

When the car is completely armored it will be 2,400 pounds heavier. Three extra leaves in each spring and 12-ply tires will be necessary to carry the extra weight. The netting will weigh 650 pounds, the steel 1,300 pounds and the glass 450 pounds.

After the Armstrong Company is finished with its job, the Federal Laboratories will equip the car with tear gas bombs and machine guns.

Al Capone could have no better protection than the South American president, whose name is kept secret, is going to have.

The car now being equipped will first be sent to Washington for an official inspection and then to New York for shipment. The other four cars will be started within the next 10 days.

Sampling of Rum Traps Messenger

Walker Hays, 35, Negro, of 6369 Frankstown avenue, sent in quest of moonshine by two friends early today took too many samples, according to East End police. Police said they arrested Hays carrying a half empty gallon jug of moonshine in Station street.

Clark Names Two New Detectives

The personnel of the City Detective Bureau was filled to its quota of 55 men today with the appointment by Director James M. Clark, of the Public Safety Department, of John C. Hooper, of 615 Locust street, First Ward, and Edward J. Atkinson, of 3946 Mintwood street, to the detective division. Hooper was a turnkey at Central Police Station. Atkinson has had no previous police experience.

BALLOONS SOAR WITH CASH

Three hundred and twenty-five toy ballons will be released from the top of the May Building, Fifth and Liberty at 12:30 a. m. today.

Attached to 25 of the balloons will be certificates, each good for $5 cash when presented to the May-Liggett Drug Stores; attached to the remainder will be certificates which will be redeemed for $1 cash.

The shower of balloons will feature the inauguration of the drug company's annual balloon sale which will be in progress until September 24.

UNION DENIES CHARGES OF EMPLOYERS

Won't End Postoffice Strike Until Truth is Revealed, Says Agent

Peter J. Dagnall, business agent of the Hoisting Engineers Union, has denied the charge made by F. O. Reed, secretary of the Building Trades Employers Association, that the union is seeking to use the association as a "club" to unionize the sand and gravel companies.

The union has been on strike for nine weeks at the Pittsburgh postoffice.

Dagnall said:

"Our men will stay off the job until the employers tell the truth about this agreement. We are not trying to unionize the sand and gravel companies—only their terminal hoists."

Dagnall declares that it was thoroughly understood when the agreement with the employers was signed that the union was to have jurisdiction over sand and gravel hoists wherever they might be.

Further negotiations on the part of the Chamber of Commerce committee are expected today, according to Thomas A. Dunn. A lull occurred yesterday due to the absence of Senator Frank J. Harris, one of the members of the committee.

GAMBLING RAID DOWNTOWN

Continuing the clean-up drive ordered a week ago by Judge Frank P. Patterson, county detectives late yesterday raided one of the largest alleged gambling resorts in the Downtown section.

Scaling a ladder and fire escapes in the rear of 435 Market street, detectives forced entrance on the second floor. More than 100 patrons; busily listening to accounts of races over the tickers, were cornered by Detective Lawrence Kline and his men.

Believing the place was being held up, a burglar alarm was sounded in Central Police Station, bringing city police and a patrol wagon. Police, upon learning the identity of the invaders, withdrew.

Telegraph instruments, blackboards, racing forms, and lists of names of persons prominent in the sports world were confiscated, and turned over to the District Attorney's office.

Crushed by Train, Schoolboy Dies

Carmine Palena, 17, of 39 Sprague street, Wilmerding, a senior in Union High School at Turtle Creek, died en route to the hospital from injuries suffered shortly before midnight when he fell beneath a Pennsylvania freight train near Wilmerding, according to a Coroner's report.

Modernist Decorator Looks Over Pittsburgh

JOSEPH URBAN . . . . . NEW MODERNISTIC IDEAS HERE

Disciple of Brilliant Hues Discusses Hotel Job

When Joseph Urban comes to town, somebody's going modernistic—or perhaps, "Urbanesque."

Mr. Urban is a leading exponent of the modernistic design in interior decoration. He came yesterday to the William Penn Hotel and took in some of the sights of the city.

He looked over Pittsburgh's new office buildings; made a trip to the Cathedral of Learning and laid before the hotel executive, E. C. Eppley, proposals for the redecoration of Pirate Hall in the latest manner.

Of the latter, Mr. Urban said:

"Yes, we do some of it with mirrors—with a brilliant color scheme of reds here, blues there, and yellows here—see, with mirrors arranged just so, wouldn't it be striking.

"And what will you call the new Pirate Hall?

"Ah, that's for Mr. Eppley—what do you say?"

Eppley answered:

"We shall see—that's another story."

4 FIREMEN HURT IN OIL BLAST

Three Culmerville volunteer firemen were burned and another was cut by glass when oil exploded as they were fighting a fire in a garage at Curtisville No. 2 early this morning.

The four-car capacity garage, which burned to the ground, was owned by John Conporlari, whose adjoining home was slightly damaged before firemen checked the blaze.

Cheswick volunteers aided Culmerville firemen.

The injured firemen are William Hazlett, 19; Joseph Seigel, 45; John Sakasky, 21, and Clyde Schroeder, 35.

Auto Injures Boy, Driver Faces Chage

Struck by an automobile, Guy Bierman, 9, of 1413 Hampshire avenue was in Mercy Hospital today suffering from a fractured leg and bruises. He was hit in West Liberty avenue at Cape May street, police say, by L. F. Mayne, of 2930 Glenmore avenue, Dormont, who was charged with reckless driving.

Man of Mystery Is Washington's Troop Caller

—By ARTHUR 'BUGS' BAER—

The next time Secretary Hurley feels a speech coming on we advise him to take a sneeze powder.

Seems strange that he doesn't know what happened right under his duly appointed nose. But he swears he didn't call out the soldiers on his honor as a gentleman and an officer by an act of Congress.

Gen. Glassford denies doing it. White House refused to accept the nomination. It must have been the cook's day off.

There's only one safe way to visit Washington these days. Paint yourself up like an Easter egg and roll on the White House lawn.

We advocate another amendment to the constitution. When things are happening on Pennsylvania avenue, make the President keep the window shades up.

The amazing official ignorance of what happened is something like the guests at the society wedding. One guest asked who was getting married. The other guest didn't know because he got his ticket from a speculator, too.

What this country needs most is a good five-cent gypsy fortune teller who can tell what happened yesterday.

VICTIM BLAMES ACTIVITIES IN CLEANUP

Revenge for Evictions, Explanation Made By Police

A fusillade of bullets, fired from a passing automobile, shattered windows in the home of a Hill district deputy constable, at 2408 Wylie avenue, early today.

The constable, Hyman Shalansky, said the attack was in retaliation for his recent activities in Judge Frank P. Patterson's vice crusade.

EVICTIONS BLAMED

Police, however, said the deputy constable had been active in evictions in the Hill district, and blamed friends of ousted tenants for the plot.

No one was injured in the hail of lead fired by several Negroes who drove past the Shalansky home in a green automobile, according to neighbors awakened by the shots.

Three of the bullets were found imbedded in the walls of the dining room, back of a front room, used as a produce display room by Myer Shalansky, father of the raiding constable. A fourth bullet pierced the dining room door and was found in the wall of the kitchen adjoining the dining room.

The elder Shalansky and his wife, Sarah, were sleeping in a room back of the kitchen.

BLAMES RACKETEERS

Blaming friends of arrested speakeasy operators and participants in the number racket, for the attack, Shalansky, said:

"They thought they could frighten me into going light in the prosecutions in eight cases Abe Feldman (another Fifth Ward deputy constable) and I have listed in Justice of the Peace Lawrence V. Gibb's court at Sewickley tonight. They won't scare me; I'm going after them harder than ever."

The cases in Sewickley tonight include charges against four Hill district residents under the Snyder act and against six persons accused of conducting lotteries, according to Gibb.

Neighbors told police three or four Negroes were occupants of the automobile from which the shots were fired. Henry Shalansky, a brother of the constable, who was in a restaurant in Chauncey street, near his home said he saw the automobile pass and a short time later heard gunfire. He added the automobile had been in the neighborhood of the Shalansky home most of yesterday.

CLASHES WITH ALDERMAN

Shalansky was appointed a deputy constable April 1, at the request of Constable Earl Sams, Negro, of the Fifth Ward. He was supposed to work out of the office of Alderman Robert H. Logan, also a Negro. The three, police said, are at odds, and Shalansky has been taking his cases to Justice of the Peace Gibb at Sewickley.

Prior to the inauguration of the vice crusade by Judge Patterson, Shalansky, police said, took a prominent part in the evictions of several Hill district tenants. The raiding constable admitted his activities in eviction cases.

Jobless Vet Wins Plea For Return to Pen

For weeks Marco Dipietro, 42, of 13 Boundary street, World War veteran, sentenced to Leavenworth while serving with the Army of Occupation in Germany, and subsequently paroled, pleaded with government officials at the Federal Building:

"No work, no clothes, please send me back to pen."

Today his wish was granted. Word came from Sanford Bates, director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, to comply with Dipietro's request and return him to Leavenworth on the technical charge of parole violation. There was no actual violation, it appeared.

According to George G. O'Brien, federal parole officer for this district, Dipietro was released from Leavenworth, September 21, 1930, after serving 11 years of a 20-year sentence imposed by a court-martial.

Talks With Own Wife, Attacked by Pair

George Goldstein, 29, of 2219 Murray avenue, testified in Central Police Court today that a fight ensued in Grant street, near the William Penn Hotel, yesterday because two men upbraided him for talking to his own wife in a beauty parlor of the hotel. He testified they told him:

"You keep away from here. It doesn't make any difference if she is your wife."

Goldstein was discharged by Magistrate Leo Rothenberg. J. D. Pearlman, 32, of 6631 Northumberland avenue, also arrested, forfeited $30 by failure to appear. They were charged with disorderly conduct. A third participant escaped, police said.

BURGESS HELD FOR COURT ON MOTORIST'S CHARGE

W. HOMESTEAD FALSE ARREST ALLEGED

Burgess Robert A. Morrow, of West Homestead, was held for court on a charge of malfeasance of office, at a hearing before Justice of the Peace J. S. R. Sharp in East Pittsburg last night. Bail was set at $1,000.

Charges against the burgess were made by John E. Winter, of 231 Renne street, Pittsburgh, who testified he was falsely arrested and denied right to waive hearing when arraigned in Morrow's court.

Winter said he was arrested July 14 for a state motor law violation and was taken before the burgess where he posted a $6 forfeit. The following day he appeared again before the burgess and asked to waive hearing, which was refused him.

When he offered to post bail of $25 the burgess, he said, refused to accept it, and he was sent to a cell where he remained two hours. Later the bond was accepted.

According to Attorney A. A. Bluestone, who represented Winter, Morrow failed to make a report of the case to court, within 15 days as required by law.

Bond for the accused burgess was to be posted today by Harry McWhinsey, West Homestead solicitor.

'BROKE,' PLEADS BELL, SEEKING TO FREE BOND

That John A. Bell, former Carnegie banker and coal operator, is now bankrupt, is asserted in a petition filed in Criminal Court late yesterday asking that his bonding company be released from a $30,000 bond placed at the time of Bell's appeal to the Supreme Court.

The petition declares Bell is unable to pay all of an $8,000 bill at the Allegheny General Hospital where he was taken from the county jail after physicians testified his life would be endangered by confinement. A balance of $2,000 remains unpaid, it is stated.

Bell was paroled a year after he was sentenced to serve 6½ years in jail and fined $19,000 in charges growing out of the bank failures. He had petitioned the court several months ago to have the Standard Accident and Insurance Company released from the $30,000 bond posted to guarantee payment of his fine when he appealed to the Supreme Court.

This earlier petition was refused by Judge Elder W. Marshall who pointed out that had it been shown that only the bonding company would suffer, the court would have been disposed to act differently.

The new petition, filed by Attorney O. K. Eaton, makes issue of this point and says that Bell is bankrupt.

PITTSBURGHERS OFFER ARSON CASE ALIBI

BEAVER, Pa., Sept. 16.—L. J. Kamons and his son, Abbon Kamons, stogie manufacturers, of Pittsburgh, on trial charged with arson in connection with the burning of the Daniel Lazor shoe store at Ambridge, last Christmas Eve, testified in their own defense yesterday. They declared that at the time Lazor said they were in his store with inflammable materials which started the blaze, they were attending a party in honor of a relative at their Squirrel Hill home. Several Pittsburgh residents will be called today as alibi and character witnesses.

On cross examination by District Attorney A. B. Decastrique, Abbon Kamons admitted having a check for $50 given him by Manuel Harris, Beaver Falls, but couldn't remember how it came into his possesion. Harris, indicted as a member of the alleged arson ring, testified he gave the check to Kamons as his share of the rakeoff for the fire.

Abe Redlich, Ambridge, self-confessed firebug, testified L. J. Kamons came to him in March, 1930, with a proposition to burn his mother's furniture store in Ambridge for $2,500. Redlich also testified he acted as mediator between Sam Neiman, Pittsburgh, insurance adjuster; Harris and L. J. Kamons, to decide who would pay $50 to Arch Fisher, then fire chief of Ambridge.

Daniel Lazor, Ambridge shoe merchant, convicted of arson in June and whose later confession brought about the expose of the alleged arson ring, testified Kamons and his son came to his store Christmas Eve with two satchels filled with inflammable materials. He declared the elder Kamons arranged the materials and lighted the match that started the fire.

Lazor declared he made payments of $350 to L. J. Kamons and $150 to Harris. Harris a former Pittsburgh merchant, had put on a sale for Lazor, who testified that Harris had suggested seeing Kamons and planning the fire.

PROMISE RIVER FUND ECONOMY

KITTANNING, Pa., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Allocation of $4,000,000 by the War Department for improvements on the Allegheny River will be utilized with utmost economy to continue bettering the stream, Maj. W. D. Styer told the Allegheny River Improvement Association yesterday.

Styer, in charge of federal engineers in the Pittsburgh area, said he expects construction work on Lock and Dam No. 2 above Highland Park Bridge and Lock No. 3 will be started this fall. He foresees their completion in 16 months.

Congressman Thomas C. Cochran, of Mercer, promised a united stand to complete improvements on the Allegheny.

L. H. Gavin, secretary of the Oil City Chamber of Commerce, said interest in the Allegheny River-French Creek canal route as a lake to Pittsburgh waterway is lacking in Pittsburgh.

40 Children Attend Teacherless School

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Forty children at Daisy Hill, 25 miles northeast of here, have spent the first four school days in fruitless waiting for a teacher to appear at a building the State Board of Education has ordered abandoned.

Their parents refused to allow them to ride a school bus to Borden, three miles away, on grounds the roadway, with four sharp curves and a steep hill, is a menace to their safety.

Chile Presidential Election Set Oct. 30

SANTIAGO, Chile, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Gen. Bartolome Blanche, acting President of Chile since the resignation of Carlos Davila early this week, signed a decree today providing for presidential elections October 30.

The decree, which followed the capture yesterday of Col. Arturo Merino Benitez, rebel air force commander and his aviator followers, was accompanied by the release of political prisoners.

REES TO HEAD VOTE BUREAU

Maj. William T. Rees, chief clerk of the County Commissioners, will take over the elections bureau of the county today.

The decision to combine the chief clerkship and directorship of elections was reached at a meeting of the Commissioners last night.

Before the present board of commissioners took office the elections bureau was a division of the chief clerk's duties. Rees' salary for the job will be $8,000 a year instead of the $6,000 he has been receiving as chief clerk.

The appointment of Rees eliminates the post of Director of Elections held by John W. Vickerman, who was buried yesterday.

Rees as chief clerk under three administrations is perhaps the best qualified person in the county to head the Elections Bureau. He resigned when the late Joseph G. Armstrong became undisputed "boss." When Commissioner Charles G. McGovern was appointed county controller in 1927, he made Rees his deputy. After Gov. Pinchot was elected the second time Rees was appointed to the Department of Property and Supplies, until the present board of commissioners took office in January, when he was named chief clerk.

Maj. Rees lives in Forest Hills borough, and is a veteran of the Spanish-American and World Wars.

FREE 7 IN MINE KILLING

Seven Moon Run men today stand acquitted of the five-year-old murder of two strikebreakers during mine warfare there. The jury, out 23½ hours, returned its verdict late yesterday.

Thomas Drexler, former constable, one of those acquitted, and Robert Clark, of Pine Hollow road, husband of Mrs. Loretta Clark, juror No. 11 in the case, appeared before Judge F. P. Patterson today, at the instance of Assistant District Attorney Earl R. Jackson.

Jackson charged that Drexler and Jackson were seated side by side in an ante room, shortly before the verdict was announced, as a "deliberate attempt to influence Mrs. Clark."

Clark today denied knowing Drexler. He was excused by the court with a warning that the court would make an investigation. Drexler was dismissed.

Besides Drexler, the other defendants were his brother, Henry Drexler; Basil Petolina, Newell Cumming, Nick Nosick, Stuart Obernauer and Paul Dugas.

ROBINS CLUES LACKING

SOUTHWEST HARBOR, Me., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Mrs. Margaret Dreier Robins, still "utterly in the dark" concerning the disappearance of her husband, Col. Raymond Robins, prohibitionist, two weeks ago, said today she would leave her sister's home here next Tuesday.

She said:

"We have heard nothing concerning Col. Robins, and I plan to go to my brother's home on Long Island next week. Later I shall go to Washington."

Still confident that her husband will return safely, although she feared he was abducted by Florida bootleggers or their New York gangster allies, Mrs. Robins expects to continue to aid in the search.

After a week or more with her brother, H. Edward Dreier, she plans to go to Washington to consult with federal authorities, who have conducted a nation-wide hunt for Col. Robins, a friend of President Hoover.

FLYING IN STATE FACES TANGLE

HARRISBURG, Sept. 16.—The State Aeronautics Commission, which lacks a quorum and funds for its operation, "is still the only body authorized by law to perform any of the acts required by the aeronautics act," the Department of Justice ruled today.

At the same time it was disclosed that pilots and landing field operators whose certificates soon begin to expire will be unable to operate legally. Pilots of transcontinental air liners may be affected, because there is no person in authority to issue licenses.

The special session of Legislature slashed the commission's appropriation to such an extent that made it impossible to carry on the work. As the Senate failed to confirm appointments of members of the commission, there are only two members left and they do not constitute a quorom. The Department of Justice held "It is impossible to obtain a quorum and no valid action can be taken by the commission, consequently no licenses or certificates can be lawfully issued under the aeronautics act at the present time."

LINER IN GALE, SEVERAL HURT

PLYMOUTH, England, Sept. 16.—(Ins.)—When the giant liner Manhattan of the United States Lines arrived here today to land passengers and mail, it was revealed members of the crew had been bruised during the stormy passage, and one of the passengers was injured severely.

The new ship, it was said, ran into a hurricane on September 8 while about 150 miles out of New York. As the ship pitched about, a passenger, J. E. Cosgrave, of San Francisco, fell and broke his ankle.

The vessel, which arrived here behind schedule, was forced to head into the storm for two days, making only 41 miles the first day and 54 the second.

After leaving the worst of the disturbance behind, it was able to maintain 460 miles daily.

WOMAN JAILED IN AX ATTACK ON TEACHER

MEADVILLE, Pa., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—A mother of four who is said to have used an ax to force a township school teacher to keep one of her under-age children in class, was in the Crawford County jail today charged with assault and battery with intent to kill.

The teacher, Mrs. William H. Yunker, 50, of Deeny School, near Meadville, is in the Spencer Hospital here in a critical condition with a skull fracture.

The alleged attack occurred when Mrs. Ida Tom Sturrock, 27, appeared at the school armed with an ax and, police charge, struck the teacher several times. Older boys in the schoolroom intervened to save the teacher.

On the opening day of school, Mrs. Yunker sent home a 5-year-old daughter of Mrs. Sturrock with the information that the child was too young to attend school. The child was returned to class several times, only to be sent home.

Arrested late yesterday at her home in Hayfield Township, Mrs. Sturrock was arraigned before an alderman and pleaded not guilty to charges of assault and battery with intent to kill.

In lieu of $2,000 bail, she was placed in the Crawford County Jail, while relief agencies arranged to care for her children, the oldest eight and the youngest one.

MOB LYNCHES RAZOR WIELDER

CROSSETT, Ark., Sept. 16.—(AP.—Frank Tucker, 24-year-old Negro, was taken from jail and hanged to a light pole near the center of the business district here yesterday after he had slashed the throat of Deputy Sheriff Henry Reed, 39, while awaiting a hearing on a larceny charge.

Reed is in a hospital with slight hope held for his recovery.

Tucker, with another Negro, Tommy Wells, was under guard in a room at the City Hall, officers said, when Tucker drew a razor and slashed at Reed. The Negro ran from the building, but was caught by a group of men standing about the halls. He was taken to jail.

Word of the attack spread and an angry crowd collected. A group detached itself from the crowd and overpowered Johnson, taking the jail keys from him. The men took Tucker from his cell and hanged him to a pole in front of the jail.

A unique veteran of the historic occasion was a mule, with which Frank Trosper, of Oklahoma City, asserted he made the run.

More than 1,000 Enid businessmen let their beards grow to add an authentic touch of atmosphere. The 2-day celebration will close tomorrow night with a pageant of Oklahoma history.

Walter Winchell ON BROADWAY

Portrait of a Man Talking to Himself

That new and elegant hiccup-juice place has given Broadway some of its tone again . . . Patterned in the manner of an extravagantly appointed movie set it is enticing the stay-out-lates who were hungry for a rendezvous . . . It probably will succeed because of the several secretly opened doors that have to be signaled before the patron enters the place proper . . . The most blase night-loafers find it all fascinating—while waiting for this attendant and that one in the various foyers to "okay" their entry . . . A form of theatricals, of course, but grand showmanship . . . A most welcome departure from the timeworn slot-in-the-door hokum . . . Those cinema cathedrals which are paying actors and other men-and-women-of-the-moment fabulous wages to headline their theaters are packing them in, and all that, but with all the capacity houses and heavy box-office gates, they are not making a profit . . . The "name" attractions cost fortunes and the managers are merely losing less than they were losing . . . A crazy business . . . Never knew it to fail . . . I mean those lads in restaurants who squander several smackers on the quarter slot-machines invariably are the lads who outfumble you for the dinner check.

The tale of the week I liked best was Larry Reid's about John Considine, Jr., who recently inherited several hundred thousands of dollars, but couldn't recall the name of his benefactor . . . Later John remembered that he went to the same college with the man, and one recess on the campus he saw a bully bulldoze him . . . Considine went to his aid and knocked down the tormentor—and now after all these years comes the grateful fellow's reward . . . And at an opportune time, too, what with the late Wall Street upsets and so forth . . . Wonder if it is true? I mean the argument that when the Winter Garden doesn't take down its block-long sign and replace it with the movie's title and star's handle in bulbs—that it is because they don't think the current flicker is good, either . . . One chorus boy, weary of marking time for a show job, promoted a sugary paying post managing a department of brass polishers in a factory . . . And he keeps hiring his comrades, who now net more coin polishing brass than they got walking around a stage.

Funny bit, at that . . . The lobby of the 44th Street where "Ballyhoo" is the attraction doesn't feature nude photos of its darlings as do other revusical showmen . . . Instead, framed photos of the show's stagehands are hung! . . . Poor Mrs. Buster Keaton . . . When she sued him for divorce she insisted that the settlement include Buster's recently purchased yacht . . . Then she offered to sell it back to him for $10,000 profit . . . The clown refused and bought a fancier one that was originally built for Mrs. Pullman, whose husband charges all that surtax for a train berth . . . And now Mrs. Keaton, poor thing, has a large and costly yacht on her hands, eating its head off at San Pedro Harbor—and unless she gives it away soon, will go broke trying to hold it . . . One of the sages said it in fewer words—There is nothing so blind as anger . . . He only employs his passion who can make no use of his reason . . . And Shakespeare observed: "Heat not a furnace for your foe so hot—that you do not singe yourself."

Mmmm, now it finally comes out . . . Al Boasberg, an item relates, is Ben Bernie's joke-thinker-upper . . . No wonder I lost—he had his gang with him! . . . Cute kid that little Dickie Burke, who is 12 . . . The newsreel editors would find some cute shots if they focused their cameras on him any evening about 7:30 . . . Attired in a neat blue coat with brass buttons and a New York traffic cop's insignia on his sleeve, he helps the regular officers direct or tangle up the flow at the southwest Forty-sixth street Broadway corner . . . He has his own whistle, too—a regulation whistle . . . And the coppers are amused with him . . . A heavenly pastime for Dickie it is—or for any kid . . . His pappy is Sammy Burke, the actor, and he dwells with his parents at the N. V. A. Club down the block . . . And mother takes him at exactly 8:40 to put him to bed — just when traffic gets thickest, duggunit! . . . The newsreel editors might also get a stinging interview from the attractive Marjorie, the blonde gal, one of the very few femme taxicab pilots in town . . . Marjorie wears a blouse, pants, puttees and boots, and is immaculate with all that grease . . . The ruffians near Reuben's bang her cab and do anything to make her miserable while trying to keep her out of their lines.

HOLLYWOOD FARE + Going the Rounds With Movie Reporters + NEW PICTURES

Gwili Andree Wins New Part

By HARRISON CARROLL

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 16.

Those artist's model days can be written down as a closed episode in the career of Gwili Andree. The blonde Danish beauty is overcoming her accent and R-K-O is keeping her busy with parts.

Only Tuesday, she was assigned to play an important role in Irene Dunne's new picture, "Man and Wife." Yes, this is the story that formerly went under the title of "Just a Woman." Perhaps there may be still another change before you see it on the screen.

Gwili Andree

At any rate, the picture will be getting under way in a few days with Irene, Gwili, Eric Linden and several other players, as yet unselected, in the cast.

Included in the schedule for this film is a location trip to Pittsburgh to photograph scenes from the steel mills. "Man and Wife" is written around this industry.

ABOUT HOGS

Young Phil Stong relates an amusing story about his novel, "State Fair."

With the whole country talking about his book, he had gone back to Iowa to visit the home folks. While he was there, the president of the Hampshire Hog Association called to thank him warmly for giving this breed of swine so much publicity. (Stong described "Blue Boy," prize hog of the story, as a Hampshire.)

After they had talked a while, the official inquired with interest:

"And how did you happen to make 'Blue Boy' a Hampshire?"

Stong blushed.

"Well," he admitted, "I could only remember two breeds of hogs: Poland China and Hampshire; and Poland China was too long."

BOULEVARD TOPICS

Stong, by the way, finishes his Fox contract this week and returns to Iowa for a brief vacation before continuing his journey to New York. He has two novels in preparation; a story of a small town called "Career" and another farm story "Storrhaven." He expects to complete the latter sometime in December.

Sue Carol

Yielding to the advice of their doctor, Sue Carol and Nick Stuart will not take the baby on that eight weeks vaudeville tour. She will be left at home with a trusted nurse . . . With Tala Birell, Paul Lukas and an unselected Japanese player in the cast of "Nagana," Universal feared too many accents. Result, Melvyn Douglas replaces Lukas . . . Nick Jory has finished up with Lita Grey Chaplin after four years as manager and confidential adviser . . . Even important M. G. M. officials were barred from the set when Jean Harlow returned to work for the first time since the tragedy . . . Dorothy Lee and Marshall Duffield were seeing Del Monte together last week.

Plays and Players

By WILLIAM J. LEWIS

A few seasons ago there was produced on Broadway a propaganda play entitled "The Ladder." It ran for months to crowded houses and it never made a cent. No admission fee was charged. Edgar B. Davis, described as an "oil millionaire," was its backer, and he is said to be negotiating for a Broadway theater in which to give the big town another free show. "The People's Choice" is the title and it will be presented in behalf of the candidacy of Franklin D. Roosevelt for the presidency, according to Zit's, a theatrical newspaper.

* * *

Next Monday Fred Stone, now appearing with his daughter, Dorothy, in "Smiling Faces" on Broadway will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of his entrance into the show business. This was at the age of eight, when he joined a small wagon circus in Wellington, Kan., never to see the town again until four years ago, when he returned for a brief visit.

* * *

Harold Lloyd and family will depart from Hollywood next week and will go to New York, whence they will sail for a holiday in Europe . . . Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne have returned from Europe, and will open shortly in a road tour of "Reunion In Vienna," which had a pre-Broadway showing here last season . . . With Mary Brian, James Hall and Irene Rich in the leading roles, an original screen story, "Manhattan Tower," has gone into production . . . Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor will be teamed again in "Tess of the Storm Country" . . . Frederic Marsh and Elissa Landi will do no kissing, nor will anyone else, in "The Sign of the Cross," now being filmed . . . Nick Stuart and Sue Carol will arrive in New York next week to begin a personal appearance tour . . . Our Gang, the kiddie comedy crew, has been in existence 12 years, during which there have been four complete changes in the personnel . . . Between completion of "I Have Been Faithful," now near, and the beginning of "The Masquerader," Ronald Colman will take a two-week fishing trip down along the Mexican coast.

She's Coming Back

CLARA BOW IS WORKING ON NEW FILM, 'CALL HER SAVAGE'

Fulton Stars Gilbert

By EDWARD W. GOSS

Exit John Gilbert the hero and lover. Enter Gilbert the villain and lover.

Gilbert departs from his usual role in "Downstairs," Fulton feature. In this particular production John plays the sort of fellow it is easy for the audience to dislike. He is cast as a chauffeur who discovers a bit of dirt regarding his aristocratic employer (a countess) and uses the information to blackmail her.

Gilbert, as everybody knows, is also adept at screen love. He carries out his film reputation in "Downstairs." Not content with blackmail he must make a bride (Virginia Bruce) forget her marriage vows, thus incurring the enemy of her husband, played by Paul Lukas. Then, to top it all off, he bilks a woman cook out of her life savings.

Yes, Gilbert is a cad. But the old copy book is not allowed to go by the boards and Gilbert is made to suffer for his dastardly deeds. The picture is fair entertainment, and the cast does its work well.

A Hearst Metrotone News reel showing, among other things, the Middies training for another football season, also is on the bill.

BITS OF LIFE

All in a Day

By MARK HELLINGER

In Which the Customers Do the Work.

"I HAVE BEEN following your columns right closely," writes John Palmquist, of Omaha, Neb., "and I will say that some of them are fairly enjoyable. Accordingly, I feel that I am indebted to you in one way or another—and to get this debt from my conscience, I am going to offer you a little story. Whether you print it or not, I'll feel in my heart that I'm square with you for the time being.

Just one point before I begin. I notice that the readers criticize you for almost every story you turn out. And I want to assure you that, if you print this one, your record will not be marred. So:

"When Congress passed the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution, it was supposed to stop the liquor traffic—at least to a certain extent. So our government hired men and paid them good money to keep the law in force. One of these men was dispatched to H——, I——, back in 1925.

"Up in them thar hills you hear so much about lived a happy little family of three. There were pap and ma and little Cyrus. Cyrus had reached the cute age of 10 years and was a very brilliant boy for his age.

"One bright and sunny afternoon, while Cyrus was playing in the yard, the prohibition agent walked up to him. On the man's face was the most innocent of expressions.

"'Hello, son,' he said pleasantly. 'Having a nice time?'

"'Sure,' replied the boy. 'Great.'

"The agent looked around.

"'Where's your father, my boy?' he asked.

"'You mean my pap?' returned the boy.

"Something in the kid's voice told the agent that he was going to be a trifle harder to handle than he had anticipated. So, he, in turn, grew a little tougher.

"'You heard what I said,' he growled. 'I want to know where your pap and your ma both are.'

"'Well,' chirped our little hero, 'why didn't you say so? They're up at the still and they're busy making whisky.'

"Whereupon the agent got busy.

"'You're a nice boy, son,' he coaxed, 'and I like you. I like you so much, in fact, that I'm going to make a little business proposition to you. You take me to the still so I can see your pap and ma, and I'll give you a whole dollar for yourself.'

"The boy said he couldn't do it. But the agent worked and coaxed and spoke about the many things the dollar would buy. The boy hesitated.

"'All right,' he finally said. 'I'll do it. You just follow me.'

"The two of them started up a long, winding hill. After they had walked about a half mile, the boy stopped.

"'Say, mister,' he asserted, 'could I have that dollar now?'

"The agent smiled.

"'Now, now, my little man,' he murmured, 'just you keep on walking. You'll get your dollar. I'm an old friend of your pap and your ma, and I wouldn't try to cheat you.'

"So on they went for another half mile. Once more the boy stopped and requested his dollar. And once again the revenue man gave him the same story. The boy shrugged his shoulders and continued walking. Up they went—further and further up that steep hill that seemed to have no ending.

"Suddenly the boy came to a dead stop and sat himself down on a large rock.

"'We ain't going no further,' he said, 'until I get my dollar. No use coaxing me 'cause I mean it. My dollar comes first.'

"The copper grew exasperated.

"'I told you, son,' he muttered, 'that you needn't worry about that. Keep guiding me. I'll give you your dollar when we get back.'

"The boy looked very wistful.

"'That's the whole trouble, mister,' he observed calmly. 'You're not coming back!'"

* * *

"I SEE by the papers," writes Albert Williams, "that Loew's 46th street theater, where you played in your vaudeville act about two years ago, was bombed the other night.

"The police have been unable to make any arrests and are digging vigorously for clues. It is the consensus of opinion around the neighborhood, however, that the bomb was tossed by somebody who thought you were still playing there!" . . .

* * *

"IT HAPPENED the other night, Mark," writes Mildred B., "in one of your favorite speakeasies. The man is a multi-millionaire. Formerly in the hard-before the depression with plenty of sugar. And he has been trying to drink himself out of the picture ever since.

"Strangely enough, he has been married to the same woman for 20 years. Not so strangely, he has a sweetheart in addition to his wife. The wife knows all about the sweetie, but she is a sensible woman. At least I think that's what they call them.

"'Why should I leave him now?' she says to her friends. 'At this stage of the game, I'd be a fool. What would I get? Nothing but scandal, publicity and dirt. And what more would I have if I were divorced? No more than I have now. And maybe less.

"'No, I've seen too many women make mistakes like that and regret them bitterly in later days. I'm one woman who is willing to be guided by the experiences of others. My mind is made up. I'm letting things go on exactly as they are.'

"Now let's get back to the other night. The hardware man was sitting in this very tony speakeasy with his wife. The sweetheart suddenly popped in and sent a note to his table. She had evidently trailed the couple to the spot and was jealous of the wife. It was something like the old story of the showgirl who told all her friends that her sweetie had been unfaithful to her because he went back to his wife.

"The millionaire, in his cups as usual, read the note and grinned. He invited her to the table—with his wife. Practical as the wife is, she was unable to stand this insult. She blamed the other woman more than her husband. Consider that statement, Mark. It's worth a story itself.

"'I think,' said the wife angrily, 'that you have an unmitigated gall to come here in this fashion. How dare you do such a thing to me?'

"Then it was the sweetheart's turn. She let loose a tirade that was a lulu. People were beginning to turn and stare. The proprietor was wondering if he should take action. Finally the husband could stand it no longer.

"'Listen, you girls,' he muttered as he rose from the table, 'I'm getting sick of all this squawking. It's making me nervous, an' I don't like to be nervous. I'm leaving.'

"And leaving his wife and his sweetheart sitting alone at the table, he left the speakeasy five minutes later with the cigaret girl clinging to his arm!" . . .

Dickie Complains of Too Many Baths

Prospects of two baths in one day is enough to worry any small boy, even when he is paid for taking one of them. Five-year-old Dickie Moore realized this recently while Marlene Dietrich bathed him during a scene in Paramount's "Blonde Venus." Finally he could stand it no longer.

"You don't think mother will make me take another bath tonight, do you," he asked the star confidentially. "You're doing a fine job."

"I have been taking Kruschen Salts for nearly 3 months. I have continued taking one teaspoonful in warm water every morning. I then weighed 217 pounds, was always bothered with pains in my back and lower part of abdomen and sides.

"Now I am glad to say I am a well woman, feel much stronger, years younger and my weight is 170 pounds. I do not only feel better but I look better, so all my friends say.

"I shall never be without Kruschen Salts, will never cease taking my daily dose and more than glad to highly recommend it for the great good that is in it." Mrs. S. A. Solomon, New Bern, N. C. "P. S. You may think I am exaggerating by writing such a long letter but truly I feel so indebted to you for putting out such wonderful salts that I cannot say enough."

Meat Is One of Man's Most Precious Foods

It is the chief source of protein, the most important of food elements.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.,
United States Senator From New York,
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Not long ago I read a newspaper article that greatly amused me. It told about the efforts of a dietician to implant in the Syrian mind modern theories of vitamins and calories. This good lady all but went mad trying to get Syria to accept America's idea of a balanced meal.

I must give the dietician credit for common sense. She became entirely reconciled to their ideas. "I decided the Syrians knew more about what was good for them than Americans did," she said, "and from that time on I fed them what they had been accustomed to. I changed my mind about their way of eating when I realized how healthy most of them were. They have beautiful teeth."

Beautiful teeth is a pretty good sign of perfect health. Certainly when a race of people possesses them, it is reliable evidence that the national dietary is a desirable one.

It is interesting to learn what foods they give in case of sickness. "Syrians, when they get ill," the lady said, "want such things as skewered meats. They put everything together in a pot and cook it at one time. They use olive oil and mutton butter for seasoning. The result looks terrible, but I have decided it constitutes a perfectly adequate diet. They have everything needed in it—from vitamins A through D. And the calories are there, too."

Armies learn what is good for their men. A few nights ago I "messed" with the Medical Regiment of the New York National Guard. The soldiers were in the field fighting an imaginary enemy. At dinner they had a stew of meat, potatoes and carrots, with peas "on the side." It may not have been appealing to the eye of one extremely fastidious, but it was wholesome, delicious to the taste, and decidedly nutritious. With good bread and butter, it made the sort of meal that "sticks to the ribs."

It is a great mistake to throw away the "pot likker," the fluid containing the minerals and vitamins, the soluble elements of the meat and vegetables. That is why a stew is so valuable.

Meat is one of the precious foods. It is the chief source of protein, the most important of the food elements. It supplies the body with the repair and growth substances.

There are many ways to prepare and serve meat. The stew is only one, of course. But in temperate quantities I regard meat as one of the best of our foodstuffs. With Russian, Italian,

-:- PRUDENCE PENNY'S RECIPES -:-

TOMATO TIMBALES—Bring 1 No. 2 can tomatoes, 1¼ teaspoons salt and ⅛ teaspoon pepper to the boiling point. Mash well, but do not strain. Add ¾ cup bread crumbs and 4 slightly beaten eggs. Pour into buttered custard cups or ramekins and set in a pan of hot water. Bake and serve surrounded with creamed peas. Make eight individual molds.

* * *

TOMATO SOUFFLE—Make a tomato sauce of 6 tablespoons butter, 8 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt ¼ teaspoon pepper, 2 cups tomato juice, fresh or canned, and ¼ teaspoon soda. Add 2 cups grated cheese and stir until melted. Add 1½ cups cooked spaghetti and 4 beaten egg yolks.

Cool, then fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour in a buttered baking dish or small ramekins, set in hot water and bake in a slow oven, 375 degrees, for 20 to 25 minutes or until set. Serve at once. Serves eight.

* * *

TOMATO RAREBIT WITH EGGS

Stew one No. 2½ can tomatoes, one-fourth teaspoon soda, one and one-half teaspoons salt and one-fourth teaspoon pepper five minutes. Press through seive. Add three tablespoons flour and three tablespoons cold water, smoothed together, and stir until it thickens. Add one and one-half cups grated cheese and stir until melted. Slice eight hard-cooked eggs over buttered toast and pour over the sauce. Serves eight.

* * *

CREAMED COTTAGE CHEESE CLUB SANDWICH

Toast three slices of bread on one side only. Butter and cut into triangles. On the untoasted sides of two triangles spread creamed cottage cheese thickly and dot it with jam. Lay two more toast triangles on and on these lay strips of crisp bacon, a slice of tomato and a bit or cress or lettuce, and spread lightly with mayonnaise. Put two other triangles of toast on top and serve with garnish of dill pickle and ripe olives.

* * *

PEACH JUNKET—Heat 2 cups milk to lukewarm and dissolve in it 1 package lemon junket. Do not stir after dissolving. Drain 1 pound can sliced peaces well and lay half of them in the bottoms of individual glass cups. Pour junket over it and set in refrigerator to chill and set, being careful not to agitate or it will whey. When ready to serve, lay the remaining peaches on top. Serves six.

* * *

LIGHT NUT BREAD—If you like a light nut bread, here's how: Beat 1 egg and stir in 1 cup milk. Sift together the following ingredients: 2½ cups bread flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, ½ cup sugar, ½ teaspoon salt. Add ½ cup coarsely chopped nuts; then stir this mixture into the egg and milk. Turn into a buttered loaf tin, and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 40 minutes.

Both fruit and nuts are delicious in this bread. So you may use ¼ cup nuts and ¼ cup of either seedless raisins, chopped dates or candied orange peel finely chopped.

* * *

DARK NUT BREAD—If you prefer a dark nut bread, you'll make eating history with this recipe: Sift 1 cup white bread flour with 1 teaspoon salt. Then mix thoroughly with 1 cup whole wheat flour and ½ cup coarsely chopped nuts.

Beat 1 egg thoroughly, add ¾ cup molasses and 2 tablespoons melted fat. Stir into this, 1 cup sour milk in which you have dissolved 1 teaspoon soda. Add the liquid ingredients to the dry ingredients, stirring smooth. Last, turn the mixture into a greased loaf tin, and bake at about 375 degrees F. for about 30 minutes.

* * *

PEANUT BUTTER BREAD—Then—when you're in a mood for something a bit different, but very good—try peanut butter bread, made like this: Sift together 2 cups bread flour, ½ cup sugar, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt.

In another bowl, beat 1 egg well; stir in ¾ cup peanut butter; and work this mixture into first mixture thoroughly with a fork. Then add 1 scant cup of milk, stir smooth, and turn into a buttered loaf pan. Bake in a moderate oven (about 350 degrees F.) for about 50 minutes.

* * *

NUT BREAD SANDWICHES—Of course nut bread is delicious spread with cream cheese. Plain cheese, or glorified with: chopped olives, tart jelly, chopped fruit such as canned pineapple or cooked dried apricots.

Just a slice of tart, spicy apple (dipped in lemon juice so it won't discolor) also makes a delicious

WATERMELON PICKLE — 4 pounds watermelon rind, 2 quarts salt water, 2 quarts vinegar, 1 pint water, 4 pounds sugar, 2 tablespoons whole cloves, 2 tablespoons whole allspice, 12 inch pieces stick cinnamon.

Before weighing the watermelon rind trim off the green skin and pink flesh. Cut the rind in inch cubes and soak over night in the salt water (¼ cup salt to 2 quarts cold water). Drain, cover with fresh cold water, and boil until tender. Mix the vinegar, water and sugar, add the spices tied in a cheesecloth bag, and boil for 5 minutes. Add the drained watermelon rind and boil gently until it is clear. Remove the spice bag, pack the pickle in clean, hot jars and seal.

* * *

SWISS STEAK—2 to 2½ pounds round or chuck steak, flour, salt, pepper, 1½ cups water, 1 cup ketchup, 1 small onion.

Try out a little of the fat in a frying pan or heavy kettle and brown the meat well on both sides. Add the water, cover the pan, and simmer for an hour. Add the ketchup and chopped onion and continue cooking for another hour or until the meat is tender. The recipe serves 4 or 5 persons and allows for left-overs to be used the following day.

* * *

CORN RABBIT—No. 2 can corn, 1 cup ketchup, ½ pound American cheese, salt pepper.

Heat slowly to the boiling point, then simmer for about 2 hours or until the meat is tender. Strain and measure the liquid. There should be about a quart. Soften the gelatin in a little cold water and dissolve in the hot liquid. Cool until partially thickened. Remove the meat from the bones and cut it in small cubes. open roasting pan, preferably on a rack. Start the roasting in a hot oven (450 degrees F.). When the duck is brown reduce the heat to moderate (350 degrees F.) and cook until tender. Baste often with the drippings in the pan, but do not add water. Allow about 25 minutes to the pound.

* * *

ANGEL FOOD CAKE—8 egg whites, 1¼ cups sugar, 1 cup pastry flour, 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, ½ teaspoon almond extract.

Beat whites until stiff. Add sugar gradually and beat until creamy. Fold in remaining ingredients. Mix lightly, pour into ungreased angel food cake pan. Bake 1 hour in slow oven. Invert pan until cake is cool. Sift sugar and flour, each 5 times before measuring.

* * *

CANNED CARROTS—Sort and grade for uniform size. Wash and scrub with a stiff vegetable brush. Scrape if carrots are old. Boil for 15 minutes. Slice or pack whole into hot jars. Ad 1 level teaspoon salt to each quart, fill with cooking water; partly seal and process for 2 hours in a hot-water bath or for 45 minutes in a steam-pressure cooker at 10 pounds. Remove from canner and seal immediately.

* * *

CURRANT JELLY—Select currants that are not over-ripe. Remove all leaves and imperfect fruit, wash and drain the currants without removing stems, mash in a porcelain preserving kettle with spoon or wooden potato masher. Add ½ cup water to each 2 quarts of fruit. Boil mashed fruit slowly for 8 to 10 minutes, stirring frequently to prevent burning and to break up cells. Put the fruit into jelly bag and drain off the juice. Be careful not to press the fruit if clear jelly is desired. The draining may be hastened, however, by occasionally shaking the bag gently. After the juice is drained, measure it and to each cup juice add cup of sugar. Reheat slowly and as soon as it begins to boil test for jelly. Remove from fire and pour into glasses. A second and third extraction of juice may be made, as follows: Return the pulp to kettle, add 1 cup water to each cup pulp, cook slowly for 15 minutes, let stand for 10 minutes. Strain through one thickness of cheesecloth, squeeze out all juice possible.

By combining the first and second extractions of juice and straining through four thicknesses of cheesecloth, a very satisfactory jelly will be obtained.

* * *

CURRANT AND RED RASPBERRY OR CURRANT AND BLACK RASPBERRY JELLY—Follow directions for currant jelly, using equal parts of currants and berries, with a cup of sugar for each cup of juice.

* * *

MINT JELLY—Wash mint and chop fine. To each cup of chopped mint add ¼ cup sugar and ¼ cup water, and let sand for several hours, or over-night. Bring to boiling point, then strain. Combine sugar and apple juice, using 2-3 cup sugar to 1 cup apple juice. Cook and test for jelly, and when the jellying point is obtained, add green vegetable coloring and 1 or 2 tablespoons of prepared mint juice for each quart of apple juice.

* * *

BLUEBERRY AND APPLE BUTTER—Use tart apples. Remove stems but do not pare apples. Cook in sufficient water to cover, until soft, and press through a strainer. Use equal parts of berries and apple pulp and ½ as much sugar as fruit. Cook the butter until it is thick and clear and seal immediately in hot, clean jars.

* * *

MUSKMELON BUTTER—Select ripe muskmelons. Cut in halves, remove rinds, seeds and soft parts. Place the melons in a preserving kettle with as little water as possible and boil until tender. Press through a colander and measure the pulp. To each quart of pulp add ½ cup sugar, juice of ½ lemon and a little cinnamon if desired. Continue boiling until mixture is thick enough to spread. Stir constantly to prevent burning. Pack hot butter into clean, hot jars. Seal immediately.

* * *

TOMATO-APPLE BUTTER—One pint tomato pulp; 1 pint apple pulp; 1 orange, juice and grated ring; 3 cups sugar and 1 small stick cinnamon. Combine ingredients and cook the mixture until it is thick and clear. Seal in clean, hot jars.

* * *

PEACH-CANTALOUPE CONSERVE—One pint diced peaches, 1 pint diced canteloupe, 3 cups sugar, 2 lemons, juice and grated rind, and ¾ cup English walnuts, blanched and chopped fine. Combine ingredients with exception of the nuts. Cook mixture until it is thick and clear, add nuts and pour into clean, hot jars. Seal at once.

* * *

BLUEBERRY CAKES—2¼ cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 cup blueberries, ¼ cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup milk, ¼ cup shortening.

Mix and sift together the dry ingredients. Add the blueberries. Beat the egg until light; add milk and melted shortening. Combine with dry ingredients, beat until smooth. Fill greased muffin tins 2-3 full. Bake in a hot oven of 400 degrees for 25 minutes. Serve hot with lemon sauce.

* * *

BUTTER ICING—¼ cup butter, 1 egg yolk, 2 cups confectioner's sugar. Flavoring to taste.

Cream butter until light and fluffy, add egg yolk and sugar. Use more or less sugar to make the right consistency to spread.

Two squares of melted chocolate give a chocolate cream icing. Two tablespoons of strong coffee make a Mocha icing, using sugar to make right consistency. Lemon or orange juice may be used for a fruit icing.

* * *

CANDIED ORANGE PEEL FOR FLAVORING USE—Remove peel in quarters from 3 medium sized oranges. Cover with water. Boil 20 minutes. Drain. Bring 1 cup sugar and ½ cup water to boil. Cook peel in this until saturated with syrup. Drain. Roll in granulated sugar. When cold, store in tightly covered jar. Cut into strips or small bits.

* * *

LEMON SAUCE—1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1¼ cup boiling water, 1 grated lemon rind, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 egg yolk.

Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt thoroughly and boil 5 minutes, stirring constantly. The sauce should be clear. Add lemon rind, juice and butter. Pour over beaten egg yolk, beating constantly. Serve hot with blueberry tea cakes.

GIRLS IN ROUTED ROBBER GANG

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 16.—Members of a gang of four, including two girls, are being sought after an attempt to enter the home of Mrs. Lou Moser, of Fairchance.

Walter C. Crawford, a neighbor, detected a group of four boring a hole into a window of the Moser home. He shouted and as they ran he fired three charges of buckshot at the quartet. One of the men, he reported, cried out that he had been shot, but the others helped him away and all escaped.

A hole had been drilled in the window frame near the latch.

It had been reported Mrs. Moser kept a large sum of money in her home.

Merchant Witness Dies in Court Room

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 16.—Excitement of a court hearing of a larceny case in which he was the prosecutor hastened the death of William Bush, 60, Masontown merchant, who collapsed on the witness stand and died before medical aid could be summoned.

Listening In—

Beatrice Lillie. Mildred Bailey. Sir Harry Lauder.

Reports have it: That Beatrice Lillie, just back from Europe, is being considered seriously by several important air advertisers . . . and that Mildred Bailey is about to sign on the dotted line for a commercial program . . . Now that Sir Harry Lauder is back, negotiations to put him on the air have been renewed . . . Abe Lyman and his band plan to dispense with personal appearances and do nothing but broadcast for a year . . . Potash and Perlmutter are looking for a sponsor.

Miss Lillie

George Hall's Orchestra has been playing recently without its leader. He's nursing a broken shoulder suffered in an automobile accident.

Helen King, who, for 15 minutes a day, is Emma Kreuger, of "Clara, Lu 'n' Em," collects headlines on hog market reports. Among her gems are "Hogs Weaker," "Hogs in Decline" and "Hogs Sink Throughout Day." Her co-star, Isabel Carothers (Lu), goes in for interpretative dancing.

Jimmy De Palma, the famous racing driver, describes some of his experiences, including the thrill (?) of a blowout at a speed of 122 m. p. h. on WCAE Wednesday night.

If you've ever wondered: Ramona, the chic looking singer with Paul Whiteman's Orchestra, is 23 and married . . . Mildred Bailey is 23 and Jane Vance is 20. Both are single . . . Florence Malone, member of the Radio Guild Players, takes the part of "Jenny Wren" in the radio adaptation of "The Phantom of Crestwood" . . . Sam Moore, of the "Batter Up" programs, is Allyn Joslyn.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt wired Tommy McLaughlin a greeting when the Irish baritone opened his "Threads of Happiness" series, thanking him for helping to popularize the official campaign theme song. Crowds around New York were surprised not long ago to hear "Row, Row, Row With Roosevelt" coming at them from an airplane. The voice was Tommy's.

Sigmund Spaeth, the "Song Sleuth," jots down a brief autobiography and recalls, among other things, school days at Germantown Academy, where Bill Tilden was also a pupil . . . Two years spent at Princeton on Woodrow Wilson's faculty teaching German to David Lawrence, Henry Breckenbridge, James Boyd and some all-America football players . . . and early radio appearances which include several appreciation of music series on KDKA, WOR, WLS and WGY.

Jessica Dragonette, co-starred with the Cavaliers and Rosario Bourdon's Orchestra, sings a group of light classical songs on WCAE at 8.

All of the current forms of dance music from waltzes to tangos are represented on Leo Reisman's WCAE program at 9:30. Highlights of the rhythms are "Mardi Gras," "Todavia Estas a Tiempo," a tango, and a torrid number from "Connie's Inn Review," "Ballyhoola."

"Range Riders," a three-act play about a lone cowboy and an eastern group seeking control of certain cattle lands, is the First Nighter presentation on KDKA at 9.

Imagine using a Laundry Soap that Eats Through Paint

Read this Report of the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory

Six well known, nationally advertised bar soaps and a bar of "Tag" soap were purchased in the open market. A board was prepared with one coat of white flat paint and two coats of high-grade white enamel.

The test consisted of placing the soaps on the painted surface and keeping the bars wet continuously by means of a wick drip.

After 18 hours the soaps were removed and the surface of the board washed with clean water and a sponge. All six soaps tested in comparison with "Tag" removed the paint more or less completely, the bare wood being exposed in all cases. The bar of "Tag" soap, although showing some effect on the paint, did not cut through to the wood at any point.

Laboratory test proves 6 out of 7 popular soaps are harsh enough to eat through paint

Here are facts that will open your eyes! In a test made by a famous laboratory, 6 out of 7 popular laundry soaps proved harsh enough to eat through 3 coats of paint and enamel! TAG is the only one that didn't!

TAG is mild—but how effective! Because it's all soap; no filler, no caustics, no naphtha—nothing to injure the daintiest fabrics nor harm tender, youthful hands. And it goes twice as far—for it contains half again as much actual soap—weight for weight—as ordinary laundry soaps contain.

Insist on TAG. You'll be delighted to see how snowy white it gets your clothes—how it brightens colors—how soft and fluffy it makes your woolens...

Get TAG Soap today—at good grocers everywhere. Use it for every cleansing purpose—dishes, clothes, woodwork. You'll like it better than any soap you have ever used.

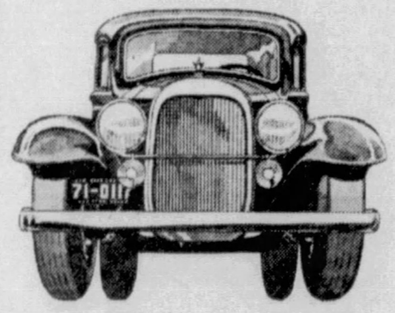
4 WHEELS ARE SURER THAN 2



A fundamental principle of balance in nature demands four supports instead of two. Ever see a two-legged chair? A two-legged table? Even man isn't the two-legged creature he thinks he is. If it weren't for the four-square support of heel, toe, heel, toe, he'd be as unstable as a man on stilts! That's why Eveready Raytheon Tubes have four supports—to provide sure balance!

OF COURSE you can keep upright on a two-wheeled vehicle — a bicycle, a motor-cycle — but the difference between it and a four-wheeled vehicle is: in the latter you can't lose your balance!

For that same reason, Eveready Raytheon Tubes are sturdier than ordinary tubes. They have four pillars to support their vital elements, instead of two. All other tubes, without exception, have only two supports, and are consequently more open to damage from handling, installation, jolts, jars, vibrations of all kinds.

The accuracy of their vital elements, the smooth tone of Eveready Raytheons, are guarded—by four supports. And yet, with this additional advantage, they cost no more. Have your dealer demonstrate!

WARNING! The market is flooded with old, slow-heater tubes. Eveready Raytheons are quick-heaters. Modern tubes heat up in 10 seconds or less.

DUKES STARTING OUT FOR NEW GLORY

COLLEGE FOOTBALL TONIGHT gets off to one of the earliest starts on record in Pittsburgh, with Duquesne University and Westminster College peeling the cover off the 1932 season under the moonbeams at Forbes Field. It will be this city's fourth year of night football, which John D. Holohan's Dukes inaugurated here in 1929, and everything points to a continuance of the popularity which the floodlight games have enjoyed locally since their introduction. Five of the home events on Duquesne's attractive 10-game schedule will be played at night, the four later nocturnal numbers being with West Virginia University, Grove City, Oglethorpe and West Virginia Wesleyan.

John D. Holohan

The Dukes, brought right up into the front collegiate ranks by Coach Layden since he took charge in 1927, enter on their biggest season with tonight's game, a season in which they will realize a long-cherished ambition to get a chance to show their wares against Pitt. A tough schedule stretches ahead of them, but there is every promise they will come out of it with new glory.

THE GRIDIRON SEASON coming in tonight will find the fans of the Pittsburgh district among the most favored in the land. Sixteen home games will be staged by Pitt, Carnegie Tech and Duquesne.

Standford will be a new attraction. Notre Dame is again a high spot. Pitt's meeting with the Dukes adds a fresh thrill. Ohio State's second appearance will be one of the best drawing cards of the year.

HERE'S THE COMPLETE layout for the home season:

Friday, September 16 (night game)—Duquesne vs. Westminster at Forbes Field.
Friday, September 23 (night game)—Duquesne vs. West Virginia University at Forbes Field.
Saturday, September 24—Pitt vs. Ohio Northern at Stadium.
Friday, September 30 (night game)—Duquesne vs. Grove City at Forbes Field.
Saturday, October 1—Carnegie Tech vs. Geneva at Stadium.
Saturday, October 8—Pitt vs. Duquesne at Stadium.
Friday, October 14 (night game)—Duquesne vs. Oglethorpe at Forbes Field.
Saturday, October 15—Carnegie Tech vs. W. & J. at Stadium.
Friday, October 21 (night game)—Duquesne vs. West Virginia at Forbes Field.
Saturday, October 22—Pitt vs. Ohio State at Stadium.
Saturday, October 29—Pitt vs. Notre Dame at Stadium.
Saturday, November 5—Duquesne vs. W. & J. at Forbes Field.
Friday, November 11 (Armistice Day)—Duquesne vs. South Dakota at Forbes Field.
Saturday, November 19—Pitt vs. Carnegie Tech at Stadium.
Thursday, November 24 (Thanksgiving Day)—Duquesne vs. Geneva at Forbes Field.
Saturday, November 26—Pitt vs. Stanford at Stadium.

IT'S A PRETTY safe guess that if the Cubs win the right to meet the Yankees in the world series, the opposing pitchers in the first title game on September 28 will be Guy Bush and Charley Ruffing. If the Yanks were to play the Pirates, Joe McCarthy no doubt would start off with a left-hander, Vernon Gomez, but if the Cubs are New York's foemen the assignment will go to Ruffing, a right-hander. Charley Grimm has as good as announced the other half of the opening slab card.

Guy Bush

"RIGHT NOW, BUSH is my choice for the first game," Grimm admitted. "Grimes has not been consistently right, and Warneke is practically a first-year man. At that it may turn out that Warneke will be the hero of the series.

"The fact that he would be working against such a famous club as the Yankees—against Ruth and Gehrig and the rest of the mighty ones—would not fluster Warneke a bit. He is the greatest young pitcher I have ever seen.

"ONE THING THAT is going to help us is that the Yankees have been coasting," Grimm added. "I have been analyzing their box scores and play-by-play this last week, and the club impresses me as one that has lost its zest. McCarthy's men have let down, and it remains to be seen if they can pick up for the series.

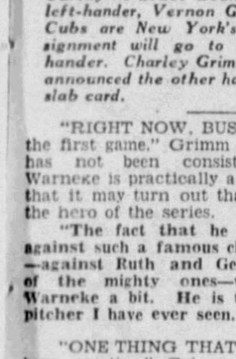
"Another item in our favor is that we are being underrated. It seems to be going around that the National League isn't so much this year, and that it will be a breeze for the Yankees. Well, I hope the Yanks feel that way about it if and when they tackle the Cubs."

AL MAMAUX, former Pittsburgher and Pirate, has virtually owned Newark and environs since he piloted the International League club of that city to its first pennant in 19 years. Several celebrations have been held in his honor, and at one big gathering of fans, with a brass band, speeches and a lot of other features, a variety of floral tributes and a handsome diamond ring were presented to him. Newark has broken all International League attendance records since Mamaux gave the city a winning club. Last year, with exhibition games included, the Newark club at home drew 331,000 paid admissions, and this year drew 360,000.

WHEN CARNEGIE TECH goes to Philadelphia to play Temple on October 29, the Tartan gridders will encounter one of the heaviest college teams of the season in the East. The 38 players on the Temple squad now in training under Coach Heinie Miller have a total weight of 7,558 pounds, or 3.77 tons.

The Primo Carnera of the aggregation is George Study, weighing 244 pounds. Next in line is Klinger at 233, and Rubin is in third place with 220. Kemmerer and Stevens scale 210 each; Gudd, 208; Veneroas, 206; Neal, 205, and Reese, 203. Only two are below 180.

IT HAS BEEN predicted that the backfield of the Fordham football team this year will prove a tough proposition for all opponents, but it's likely to be even tougher for the announcers, newspapermen and telegraphers at Fordham's games during the season.



Lew Kirsch

The three regular backs besides Quarterback Frank McDermott will be selected from among Zapustas, Danowski, Pavlicovic and Piawlock. McDermott no doubt is delighted with the break he gets in being required to call only numbers for his plays, instead of having to designate his ball carriers by name.

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE fight game, dating back to the Elkins-Herrera affair at Meyers Bowl, appear to offer an opportunity for a new business—writing insurance against boils. First a boil on Mickey Walker's left arm put back his bout with Max Schmeling from September 19 to 23, just as his Cleveland tilt with Johnny Risko was delayed, and then Lew Kirsch developed one on his nose and had to request the indefinite postponement of his match with Tony Canzoneri. The Queensboro Club, relying on this show to pull it out of the red for the season, requested Canzoneri to accept September 27 as a new date, bu. Tony has been planning to box Ray Miller at Ebbets Field in Brooklyn on September 28 and threatens to call off the Kirsch match altogether.

CANADIAN STAR LEADS JESSE GUILFORD

FIVE FARMS COURSE, BALTIMORE COUNTRY CLUB, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—An international final for the United States amateur golf championship seemed virtually assured today as Ross (Sandy) Somerville, of London, Ontario, four-time former Canadian champion, shot into a lead of 6 up over Jesse Guilford, Boston veteran, in the first half of the 36-hole semi-finals.

The 39-year-old defending champion, Francis Ouimet, of Boston, meanwhile was deadlocked in a spectacular duel with 22-year-old Johnny Goodman, of Omaha, in a match to determine the other finalist. They finished the first 18 holes all square, each with fine medal scores of 72, only two over par.

Goodman's marvelous recovery shots and brilliant putting repeatedly saved him as he waged a give-and-take struggle with the titleholder.

They halved two holes, the tenth and the long fourteenth, with birdies. Johnny had two others as he got down putts of 15 feet on the fifth and 30 feet on the eighth. Goodman squared the match at the ninth, where Ouimet three-putted from only 10 feet.

THRILLING BATTLE

Both shot par golf over the last nine. Goodman took the lead when Ouimet three-putted the twelfth, but the champion squared the match again on the fifteenth, where Johnny was in one of his numerous bunkers.

Goodman's best two shots were a recovery from thick bushes on the short thirteenth, to save a half as he got his ball out to the green from an almost unplayable lie, and an explosion shot to within a foot of the sixteenth pin. This saved him another half, and on the eighteenth he got down an eight-footer to stay even.

Except for his erratic putting on several holes, Ouimet was steadier, but could not shake off his younger rival.

Somerville's fine golf all the way emphasized the Canadian's title threat besides forecasting the first international final since Bob Jones beat Phil Perkins, British champion, in 1928 at Brae Burn. No foreigner has taken the American crown since Harold Hilton, British star, turned the trick in 1911.

WILD WITH IRONS

Guilford outdrove Somerville sometimes as much as 70 yards, but he was wild with his irons and putting poorly. Big Jesse missed at least five short putts, while Somerville was getting down most everything in sight. The Canadian holed a 25-footer to pull out the eleventh and sank an eight-footer on the eighteenth.

EXPLANATIONS OF YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOONS: THE ALIEN GOVERNOR OF AN AMERICAN STATE—Frank R. Gooding, born in Tiverton, England, in 1859, emigrated to the United States with his parents in 1867, when he was a boy of 8. He settled in Idaho, in 1881, beginning his distinguished political career as a letter carrier. In spite of the fact that he had not taken out naturalization papers, he was elected as a State Senator and served as such from 1900-1904. In November, 1904, he was elected Governor of the state of Idaho, served as the chief executive of the state and then was re-elected for another term in 1906. The man who for four years had been Governor of an American state was not yet an American citizen. Not until he tried to run as a candidate for the United States Senate was Gov. Gooding's status discovered. He was an unsuccessful candidate for United States Senator in 1918, but entered the Senate by appointment in January, 1921, having been elected previously for a full term beginning March 4, 1921. He was re-elected in 1926 and served until his death in 1928. A TYPING MARATHON—Richard Myers, of Bonner's Ferry, Ida., has won numerous national honors as a typing speed demon, but he outdid himself at a marathon staged in his home town. He averaged more than 100 words a minute for a period of eight hours, four hours in the morning and four in the afternoon. Myers typed a total of 48,282 words, enough to make an average book, making a total of 156 typographical errors during the entire demonstration.

TOMORROW: TWENTY-FOUR ONE-ROUND KNOCKOUTS.

PANTHERS GET AERIAL DRILL

WINDBER, Pa., Sept. 16.—Light scrimmage will be in order today at Camp Hamilton as Jock Sutherland prepares his Panthers for tomorrow's regulation game between first and second teams.

Yesterday it was pass, pass, pass as Sutherland and Gustafson sent the backs and ends down the field time after time for passes thrown for them by Warren (Wimpy) Heller, and the rest of the Pitt backs. Everyone was throwing and everyone was catching them—sometimes.

For a while the boys were careless and the ball was dropping off their fingers as though it was hot, but Dr. Sutherland stopped the session and after a few pointed remarks, the players began to hold onto the pigskin.

While the Heller-to-Reider combination is one of the most feared in collegiate circles this year, Pitt has other men who can pass and plenty of other backs and ends who can receive.

Mike Sebastian and Dick Matesic were tossing accurate heaves from the wrong side.

There was no real scrimmage on the program at all, and most of the day was spent in signal practice and dummy scrimmage.

Tackle Coach Bill Kern continues to smile as he watches the steady improvement in the offensive play of Paul Cuba and Bob Hoel, probably starting tackles. Hoel will be a newcomer, and so will Cuba, as far as the average fan is concerned, but both are running like veterans.

John Luch returned to camp from the Windber Hospital and watched anxiously from the side line as Izzy Weinstock and Heinie Weisenbaugh, his sophomore fullback rivals tore around the field.

Buc-Giant Game Off; Dual Bill Tomorrow

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Rain today prevented the opening battle of the three-game series between the Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Giants.

As a result of the postponement the two teams will play a doubleheader tomorrow.

The Buccos came here from Boston where they were worsted in a three-game setto with Bill McKechnie's fighting Braves. The Pittsburgh athletes were bowled over in the first two contests, but they managed to get a decision yesterday afternoon, although they had a very narrow escape in the ninth inning as they saw the enemy put the tying and winning run on the sacks with none out. The score was 3-2.

The present series will bring to a close the Buccaneer strife along the Seaboard. After Sunday's game they will return to Pittsburgh for a rest day, but on Monday night they will shove off for Chicago where they will meet the Cubs in four games in three days. A doubleheader is carded for Tuesday.

MEINE FINE IN CRISIS

In the event that the pennant still hangs in the balance the series between the Pirates and Cubs should produce some real excitement. The Cubs this morning held a lead of five and one-half games over the Pirates. Their 11-inning victory over the Giants yesterday enabled them to prevent a loss of ground.

Heinie Meine did a fine job of pitching yesterday to put the Pirates over in the last clash at Braves Field. Meine had the Tribe blanked and his club was leading by three runs in the eighth when the home team rallied to score two runs. The first two hitters for Boston in the ninth reached base, but Heinie pulled himself together and clinched the success.

Paul Waner's fifty-seventh double of the season scored Brother Lloyd in the first. The younger Waner opened the game with a double. Meine came through with a single to score a run in the second, and Piet and Vaughn hooked up a single and a double for a run in the fourth. Betts pitched seven innings for Boston, Seibold finishing.

Dodgers Recall Nine; Drop Kelly

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—The Dodgers yesterday recalled nine players who had been optioned out to their International League farm at Jersey City, and purchased three more from the same club. At the same time they gave George Kelly, veteran first baseman, his unconditional release.

The players recalled were Austin Moore, Gene Mattingly, Art Jones and George Krider, all pitchers; Ike Boone and Alta Cohen, outfielders; Fresco Thompson, Jack Warner and Bob Reis, infielders. They purchased Ray Lucas, right-handed pitcher; Chick Outen, catcher, and James Jordan, second baseman.

Vincent Eldred, secretary of the Tri-State Profesional Golfers' Association, announces that Perry Del Vecchio, Greensburg professional, will defend his tri-state title over the links of the Fox Chapel Golf Club, October 17, 18 and 19.

The morning of the first day will be devoted to medal play, with the first round of match play in the afternoon. Tuesday and Wednesday will find the final match play rounds being played.

It is evident that both proposed exhibition matches scheduled for this district have fallen by the wayside. The much talked of Sarazen-Eldred match did not get much consideration at Highland Country Club, and the Hagen-Jurado visit to the Field Club also fell through.

By JESS CARVER

The wraps will be taken off the varsity football elevens of Duquesne University and Westminster College at Forbes Field tonight and the 1932 intercollegiate gridiron campaign ushered in with a meeting between the former Tri-State Conference rivals. The contest is scheduled at 8:45 o'clock.

The Dukes, making their big bid this season to remain in the major league of college football by tackling an ambitious schedule, are almost prohibitive favorites to take the United Presbyterians tonight. The Titans are expected to furnish the Night Riders with merely a good workout. Sometimes, however, these "good workouts" prove to be anything but and piloted by the cagy John Lowther, starting his second season as head football coach at New Wilmington, the Titans may provide the inaugural with unexpected thrills by forcing the well-balanced Duquesne varsity to the limit.

TITANS UNKNOWN

At any rate, Lawther is in a swell spot, for he and his team come here with little, if anything, known of their style of play, and on the short end. They have everything to gain and nothing to lose but the ball game, and during the past few seasons the United Presbyterians have become so accustomed to the latter that one more defeat will make little difference to 'em.

Coach Layden has a veteran aggregation primed to toss at the Titans tonight, only one sophomore being slated for a starting job. Had Nick DeCarbo, New Castle Italian, watched his diet a bit closer over the weekend, the entire Night Rider lineup would be a veteran one, but DeCarbo ate, not wisely, but too well, developed a tummy ache and in his place at left guard tonight Coach Layden will start Joe Rado, of Brookfield, O.

The Duquesne terminals will be taken care of by Capt. Paul Abele and Al Krankota. Big Johnny Donohue and Armand Noccolai are listed for the tackle berths and stocky Henry Weinberg will pair off with Rado at right guard. Ben Ciccone, another New Castle product, will be over the ball at center.

In the backfield, Larry Sullivan will run the team from the quarterback post. Ben Pawlina is to start as the blocking halfback, with Al DeLuca at left half and big Sil Zaninelli in there at full. Zaninelli will do the kicking.

Westminster's lineup is top-heavy with sophomores, but since the freshmen rule has yet to make its appearance at New Wilmington, a sophomore in the Titan battle front does not necessarily mean an inexperienced cog.

HUNNEKE AT HALFBACK

In the backfield, Coach Lawther has Sweeney at quarter; Swede Hunneke, a chap well worth watching, and Scarbrough at the halves and Bill Setples at fullback. Hunneke shone with some

GRIMM EXPERIMENTS, CUBS MOVE NEARER PENNANT

LEFTY EAGER TO DEVELOP SOUTHPAW

Associated Press.

The Chicago Cubs were a little nearer the National League pay-off today, but they still lacked a good southpaw pitcher to throw against the Yankees in the World Series.

Trying desperately to plug the one glaring weakness of his club, Manager Charley Grimm yesterday tried out Carroll Yerkes, a slim portsider from Albany of the International League, and the experiment very nearly cost him a ball game.

Yerkes, boasting a fine record with a seventh-place club, including three shutouts, was sent in to pitch the last three innings against the Giants and see if he could hold a 5-to-3 lead. He did well, except that in the eighth round Gilbert English popped one of his low curves into the outer stands, and in the ninth, with two away, Mel Ott sent another out of sight to tie the score.

CUYLER'S HOMER WINS

The Cubs finally won, 8 to 7, when Kiki Cuyler belted a home-run in the eleventh, but not until after Grimm was convinced he would have to look further for a World Series southpaw. He has Jakie May, but the veteran has not had a good year. Lon Warneke hurled the last two innings against the Giants to receive credit for his twenty-second victory.

Pittsburgh recovered from a brief slump to trim the Boston Braves, 3 to 2, but failed to gain an inch.

St. Louis turned up with another brilliant pitching prospect in Ray Starr, young righthander from Rochester, who limited Brooklyn to two widely spaced singles and won handily, 3 to 0. The Phillies downed Cincinnati, 7 to 4, to make a sweep of the three-game series.

GOMEZ DEFEATED

The Yankees suffered their first defeat since clinching the American League flag when the Chicago White Sox beat them, 8 to 5. Lefty Gomez was the victim, breaking a seven-game winning streak for the Castillian. Walter Stewart, of the St. Louis Browns, came out best in a tight mound duel with George Earnshaw, of the Athletics, 3 to 2.

Cleveland pounded two Boston pitchers for 12 hits, including home runs by Kamm and Cissell, to win their eighteenth game of the year from the Red Sox, 7 to 2. The Detroit Tigers nosed out Washington, 8 to 7, in 10 innings. Tommy Bridges didn't allow the Senators a hit in the last four frames.

BOXER BATTLES IN BARE FEET

A small crowd and a chilly night provided the setting for the final boxing show of the season at Greenlee Field last night. Six six-round bouts, featuring the novelty of a boxer who finished in his bare feet, were offered.

Joey Speigal, Uniontown southpaw, duplicated a recent victory over Max Elling, of the Hill, in the windup. Speigal, a southpaw, made Elling miss a lot of punches in the first two rounds and then turned in and spanked out an easy triumph.

Nat Litfin, Hill featherweight, bested Dan Billick, of Duquesne, in a hard-fought bout, marking Billick's return to action following a long layoff; Young Rudy, of Charleroi, won over Tony Constantino, of Soho, and Eddie Zivic, of Lawrenceville, pasted Al Van Gura, of Homestead.

The only knockout was scored by Casey Rhodes, Negro southpaw, of the Hill, an eleventh hour substitute, against Fred Jenkins, Philadelphia Negro, in the third round. The highlight of the night occurred in the opening bout, in which Petey Jahn, of the North Side, suffered a badly cut eye and a flooring for a count of eight in the first round against Bobby Rowe, Negro bantam of the East End, tore the sole off one of his shoes in the second, boxed throughout the third in his socks and discarded those for the last three rounds to finish in good shape in his bare feet and make it close. Rowe, getting the decision.—HARRY KECK.

DETROIT, Sept. 16.—Among the items for which the Cubs can say a few Now-I-lay-me's is this guy Mark Koenig. Charley Grimm may be the elevator starter that sent them to the top, but Koenig was one of his prize elevator boys.

Nick Altrock

On account of being a descendant of Methuselah as well as timekeeper for the Thirty Years' War, I can remember 'way back when the Yankees let Mark go. And when the Yankees release you it's time to have your face lifted.

But this guy Koenig is like a spinning wheel or any other antique—the older it is, the more valuable it gets. Anyway, Mark is the museum piece that just about put Mr. Wrigley's collection where it is today.

Hands Tell Layden Story

The Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph photographer took a series of closeups for expression of Elmer Layden, coach of the Duquesne University football squad, which opens its season against Westminster College at Forbes Field tonight, but, when he printed the negatives, they revealed that Layden's hands are more expressive than his face. Note how his emotions are betrayed by their clasping, locking and grinding of knuckles.

DUKES, TITANS AWAIT FRAY

brilliance as an end last year, but traded jobs with Whitey Siljander, of Pittsburgh, former Schenley High star. Siljander was a left halfback last year, but is playing right end now and will be paired off with Leyshock tonight.

Capt. Glen Rehfuss and Homer Dishong have been named for the tackle jobs. The guard positions will be taken care of by Hollender and Turner, who'll have plenty of pounds on the Duke linemen.

Westminster's line, unless these college press agents have been doing a lot of lying, will outweigh Duquesne by about eight pounds, . . . average. The Duke backfield will have a slighter edge on the Titan ball-lugging quartet, with the Titans, as a team, outweighing the Dukes by some four or five pounds.

DUKES HAVE SPEED

Duquesne's experience and speed should prove enough to beat the United Presbyterians, without Coach Layden having to poke very deeply into his bag of tricks.

Given any sort of a fair break in the weather, the elevens should play before a crowd closely approaching the 12,000 figure. It's the first game of the year and the pigskin bugs are anxious to inspect the game now that it has been bedecked in its new rules.

Messers Dex Very, Al Slack, Bill Friesell and Cal Bolster, all local men, will officiate.

Without scrimmage for two days, some heavy man-to-man combat was planned for Carnegie Tech's gridders for today. Although several positions are already set for the opening lineup, Coaches Waddell and Steffen want to see some of the new men under fire several more times before they definitely decide upon the eleven that will face Geneva on October 1.

As the first team ran through signals yesterday, after receiving more of the new plays that will be used in this year's offense, Bill Carlson had supplanted B111 Spisak at the left halfback post, and Carl Forsman was back at the right tackle job he held last year.

A real battle looms between Spisak and Carlson for the running halfback post, with little to choose between them at the present time.

D., conqueror of Bat Battalino, at the Chicago Coliseum last night. Petrolle, brother of the more renowned "Fargo Express," didn't have a chance against the withering attack of the rising young Chicagoan. The match was scheduled for 10 rounds. Petrolle weighed 140 pounds to Ross' 135.

BROTHER SEEKS VENGEANCE ON BENEFIT CARD

TONIGHT'S FIGHTS

Amateur bouts at Twenty-seventh Ward A. C. arena, North Side.

Amateur bouts at Allegheny Elks Club.

Gene Buffalo vs. Young Ketchel, 10 rounds, and Dan Hassett vs. Pat Haley, 8 rounds, Philadelphia.

Tommy Paul vs. Baby Arizmendi, 10 rounds, Mexico City.

By HARRY KECK

Revenge will be sought in one of the bouts on the benefit card for the needy of the Tri-boroughs of Braddock, North Braddock and Rankin at the Meyers Bowl next Wednesday night.

Lloyd Clements, of Jeannette, will be the seeker after vengeance when he meets Carl Gross, Frank Klaus' heavyweight, of Braddock, in a special five-round bout. Clements' brother, Leo, was the victim of a technical knockout by Gross at Hickey Park, Millvale, last Monday night in a battle which had one of the oddest endings in local history, with Leo staging a free-for-all in the ring upon being declared the loser after the bell had saved him at the end of the third round.

Lloyd Clements is smaller than Leo, but a tougher mixer and a better boxer and puncher. He knocked out Ray Jennings, Homestead Negro, his last time out.

PANKA IN WINDUP

The card has been just about completed for the benefit show, which promises to draw a large crowd. Prominent citizens of all three boroughs are working to make it a success.

George Panka, Homestead heavyweight, meets Art Rodenbach, of New York, in the main bout, and Johnny Datto, Filipino lightweight, takes on Joe Marcus, of Braddock, in another 10-rounder. The Clements-Gross battle is booked as a special bout. In another five-rounder, Ray Jennings will take on Curley Klaas, of the North Side, who knocked him out as an amateur. Still another Clements, Jerry, will oppose Johnny Montebano, of Braddock, in the four-round opener.

Tickets for the benefit show are on sale at the Braddock Trust Company, First National Bank of Braddock, Tracey Motor Company, Spalding's, in Downtown Pittsburgh, and at Hickey Park, where reservations may be made by calling Millvale 1135. All ringside seats sell at $2.20, including the federal tax, and there will be 6,000 seats at $1.10.

Between Rounds

The Benny McArthur-Lou Severo bout at Mansfield, O., has been set back from next Monday to the following Monday.

Joey Severino, of the Twenty-seventh Ward A. C., and formerly of Buffalo, plans to turn professional after his main bout with Elmer Wilson, of the Superior A. C., on the amateur card at the Twenty-seventh Ward arena on the North Side tonight. He is a lightweight and one of the best in the district.

Other bouts on the Twenty-seventh Ward bill are: Frank Kladdick vs. Butch Walsh, Buck Walker vs. Tom Green, Young Harp vs. John Thomas, Billy Mays vs. John Fleishman, Paul McDermott vs. Jimmy Jones, Andy De Santo vs. Johnny Tirpak and Matt Oznak vs. Nick Galore.

Pictures of leading local boxers and also of the late Harry Greb will be painted on the walls of Eddie Kapphan's new boxing arena on the North Side, which opens its season on September 30.

A flock of good club fights are expected when the Hickey Park arena closes its season in Millvale next Monday night. Here's the program of four eight-rounders: Davy Grove vs. Jacquette Elverillo, Tom Maleo vs. Young Rudy, Anson Green vs. Larry Madge and Louis Disantis vs. Don Asto.

Twenty Grand Wins in Comeback

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Twenty Grand, thundering through the stretch as in the days of his 3-year-old triumphs, returned to the turf yesterday and drove to a hard-earned victory in a mile race at Belmont Park.

The big bay colt from Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greentree Stable, making his first start since his victory in the Jockey Club Gold Cup one year ago, was forced to stage one of his famous stretch drives to beat G. H. Bostwick's Masked Knight by a neck. Pintail and Americana were third and last, respectively, far behind.

THE BABE

He's the Grand Slam of World Series—Here's His Life Story.

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Written for Associated Press

This is the fifth of 10 stories relating the prodigious world series feats of the one and only Babe Ruth. Nearing the end of his career, the Babe this year will make his tenth and perhaps last appearance in the classic.

As the fat years give way to the lean and success becomes a tonic that finally drugs, so did Babe Ruth, after his mighty surge of 1921 tumble from home run heights and become the 'busted phenomenon" of the Yankee world series debacle of 1922.

Babe Ruth

It was no fault of Ruth's that the Yankees, after winning the American League pennant with the first of Miller Huggins' power-plus outfits in 1921, went down before John McGraw's Giants, five games to three, in the world series.

Ruth topped his 59 home runs splurge with a gallant series attack, popping the Giants pitching in the last of the best-five-out-of-nine series for five hits in 16 times at bat and an average of .313. The Yanks took the first two games, then dwindled down to lose five of the next six.

MAKES MILD DEBUT

It was Ruth's introduction to New York world series play, the first of a string of seven that reaches a new climax in the coming struggle. In a small way he was a failure. Manhattan's crowds expected something more spectacular. But the ordinariness of the Ruth of the 1921 series was magnificence itself compared to the helpless Babe of 1922.

The Bambino had fallen into evil ways through the season of 1922. Riding the high wave of popularity and fame, the Bam took time out along the way to sample the fruits of his conquest.

FINDS MUCH FUN

He took his fun where he found it, and, with more money in his hands than he ever thought existed, fun wasn't hard to find. His home run hitting fell off to 35 for the season as Rogers Hornsby took away his leadership with 42. Ruth's hitting fell off to .315 from the tremendous .378 of 1921.

Huggins drove his rambling playboys through to the world series, and there they fell apart. First Art Nehf, then Jess Barnes, Jack Scott, Hughie McQuillan, then Nehf again tamed the Yanks. The Yanks could tie only one game for Bob Shawkey while losing four.

RIDDEN BY FANS

Ruth hit exactly .118, driving in one run with two small hits. He was back in shape for the series, but over-anxious. He simply couldn't get started. The fans rode him viciously.

After the series one of the baseball guides wrote the Babe's obituary thusly:

"There are no excuses for the lamentably weak hitting of Babe Ruth, now an exploded phenomenon. He . . . was shown up in a way that amazed the fans . . . McGraw had Ruth's number . . . His boxmen fooled him with change of pace. They kept the balls low and were not afraid to pitch to him.

"Ruth went to the plate 21 times. He was passed unintentionally twice, nicked by a pitched ball once, made a single, two-bagger and a sacrifice, was retired seven times on infield grounders, forced one man at second, fouled out twice, flied out twice and fanned three times."

That was the first of Ruth's obituaries.

The next year he hit .393 for the season, including 41 homers.

Ruth to Practice Hitting Tomorrow

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Recovered from a slight attack of appendicitis, Babe Ruth notified the New York Yankee office today that he will emerge from his sick room tomorrow to bang a few practice home runs in the Yankee Stadium.

Ruth plans to join the American League champions in Philadelphia next Wednesday for the final series of the season. In the meantime he will work daily in the Stadium to get back in condition for the world series, starting here September 28.

Weather May Delay Yacht Race Opening

SOUTHPORT, Conn., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—A northeastern gale swept the Long Island Sound coast today, causing officials of the international star class yatch championships to express concern as to whether the races could start tomorrow.

Unless the weather improves today, they said, the initial event in the five-race series may be postponed. Twenty-nine yatchs, including six foreign entries, are registered.

Panhandle Soccer Leagues Formed

Three divisions of the Panhandle Soccer League were formed at the Bridgeville Owls Club last night. The standard rules offered by the governing body were accepted. Two meetings will be held this evening to conclude pre-season business. The Keyston League will convene at the Owls in Bridgeville and the Washington County loop will attempt a comeback at the Cedar Grove Community Hall.

THREE AA GRID TEAMS PLAY OPENERS

By JULIUS LEVIN

New Castle, Charleroi and Monessen, three of the 12 members enrolled in the Class AA High School Football Conference, usher in their campaigns with warmup opponents under floodlights tonight.

New Castle, coached by Phil Bridenbaugh, meets Union Township at New Castle; Charleroi, coached by Steve Stepanian, meets an old opponent in Ellsworth-Cokeburg at Charleroi, while Monessen, coached by Preston Ditty, swings into action with Bellevernon at Husher Field, Monessen.

While all three teams have been hit hard by graduations last spring, they are not expected to encounter much trouble in registering victories tonight.

One of the feature attractions on tonight's schedule is that between Munhall and Scott at North Braddock. Scott is making its second start of the season, having defeated Uniontown in the inaugural last Friday. The Reedmen appeared impressive in the opener.

The fifth night battle on the schedule finds Sharpsville engaging Erie Strong Vincent, coached by Sam Kramer, formerly of Braddock, at Erie.

This afternoon's program is headed by the Mt. Lebanon-Bridgeville game at Mt. Lebanon. Coach Henry Leucht has a veteran team at Mt. Lebanon, and it is out to make a determined bid for the Class A title. Last year Mt. Lebanon won nine out of 10 games, losing only to McKees Rocks.

Two more double AA elevens pry off the lid tomorrow afternoon, Wilkinsburg entertaining Avalon at Wilkinsburg, while Turtle Creek Union has Pitcairn as its opponent.

Ken Stilley, all-W. P. I. A. L. fullback last season, who has enrolled as a student at Notre Dame, left for South Bend, Ind., last night to start football practice.

John Bean, football coach at Oakdale High School, suffered a severe internal injury yesterday while scrimmaging with his team. He will be laid up for several weeks.

OGER BEATS POPICG

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Paul Oger, Fairmont middleweight battler, pounded out a decision in eight rounds over Johnny Popicg, of Wheeling, last night. Oger weighed 150, Popicg 156. In another eight-round go, Bobby Brinkman, 139, Wheeling, defeated Jimmy Columbo, 146, Clarksburg.

EMPIRE STATE EMPLOYMENT IMPROVES

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
Universal Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The contradiction between reports of business improvement and the common observation of the average man is largely explained by the fact that the "managed recovery" was inaugurated at a time when industrial production was only about 50 per cent of computed normal.

Mr. Rukeyser

Even a moderate pickup from a condition of economic paralysis, though perhaps encouraging better hopes for the future, can scarcely be characterized as prosperity. The soundest definition of prosperity was given by Frank A. Vanderlip, former president of the National City Bank, who described it as "the full employment of labor at high wages."

From this viewpoint, the most encouraging of the spotty, mixed industrial news was the announcement by the trustworthy Miss Frances Perkins, industrial commissioner in New York, that the gains in factory employment and payroll in the Empire State in August were better than seasonal.

TRENDS FAVORABLE

Much of the improvement has been in the nature of "defensive adjustments." Out on the West Coast, Harry Sack, competent young San Francisco broker and financial observer, stresses recent favorable trends.

In citing improvements in a message to this column, he emphasizes the subjoined developments:

"1. Improvement in banking and credit in the Twelfth Federal Reserve District. Bank deposits have gained; bank borrowings from the Federal have shown drastic contraction; currency has come out of hoarding, and the downward curve of commercial loans gives indications of flattening out.

SHIPPING PICKS UP

"2. Betterment in retail trade. Department and specialty stores report the best business of the year to date. Buyers returning from New York report a shortage in many lines and look for higher prices.

"3. A healthy pickup in the shipping business. Benefits to the companies, moreover, have been safeguarded by recent agreement of the intercoastal lines to extend to March 31, 1933, their rate agreements.

" 4. Heavy sales of canned goods and dried fruits. While a large part of this represents English buying in anticipation of new restrictions which go into effect before the year-end, nevertheless the sales are constructive in their immediate aspect.

"5. Lifting of prices of canned pineapple.

"6. Tentative sale of $6,000,000 of the Golden Gate Bridge bonds, which may soon inaugurate a sizable construction project.

"7. Holding of ground gained in the oil situation.

PRICES BOOSTED

"8. Further slight progress in plans for the Los Angeles metropolitan water district development and the Los Angeles union passenger terminal project.

9. Expansion of middleman activity, particularly in the textile and leather lines, and scattered improvement in prices of consumers goods.

"10. Pickup in motion picture production.

"11. Important improvement in employment, arising chiefly from the efforts of K. R. Kingsbury's Twelfth District industrial and banking committee, which inaugurated the job sharing plan.

"12. Progress in the formation of home loan banks in Los Angeles and Portland."

CARRIERS LEAD STOCK PRICE UPSWING

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(AP.)—The stock market shook off early nervousness today and turned upward, led by the railroad stocks which moved up 1 to 2 points.

An early selling test failed to penetrate the lower levels of the recent trading range, and encouraged those who have been bullish on the autumn prospect to make new purchases. Trading, however, was unusually quiet, although it quickened somewhat on the advance.

While current traffic reports of railroads show a decline in freight car loadings for the last week compared with the preceding week, due to the Labor Day holiday, there was growing belief that the week-end statement due tomorrow would make a relatively good showing. Chicago and Northwestern in the first 14 days of September handled 42,406 cars, against 53,831 for the like 1931 period, and St. Paul's figures for the same period were 44,218 against 57,440.

Despite a denial that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation had passed on applications from railroads for loans with which to buy large amounts of steel rails, the report persisted in Wall street that some roads would shortly place orders for that purpose. The steel industry furnished scattered evidences that recent gains in production rate were being maintained, although there has been some slackening in the past two days in the Youngstown district.

Seasonal pick-up in the lighter lines was apparently being maintained. One shoe manufacturing company advanced prices 2½ to 5 cents a pair. Textile activity in some lines was reported actually ahead of the same period last year.

In heavier lines, the seasonal momentum was less pronounced, although another automobile manufacturer, Graham-Paige, announced that it had been obliged, because of the upturn in retail orders starting late in August, to increase its orders by 50 per cent for parts and equipment. General Motors sales in its higher priced divisions were reported to be holding recent gains.

TRADE BUYING SPURS COTTON

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Cotton futures opened steady, unchanged to 3 lower on disappointing Liverpool cables and southern selling. October, 7.15; December, 7.30; January, 7.37; March, 7.49; May, 7.60; July, 7.69.

December sold off to 7.25 and March to 7.46 under the early offerings with active months generally showing net losses of 4 to 5 points, but this dip brought in more trade buying and some covering on unfavorable crop reports from the Southwest. Prices steadied to about yesterday's closing quotations after the initial pressure subsided, with December selling at 7.31, or 2 points net higher.

The market showed net losses of 3 or 4 points at the end of the first half hour.

There was very little hedging after the opening and the market firmed later in the morning on trade buying and covering. December sold up to 7.41 and March to 7.58, with the general market showing net advances of about 8 to 12 points at midday.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 16.—Cotton—Receipts, 13,000 bales, including 9,100 American. Spot in fair demand; prices four points lower. Quotations in pence: American strict good middling, 6.48; good middling, 6.23; strict middling, 6.03; middling, 5.88; strict low middling, 5.78; low middling, 5.68; strict good ordinary, 5.48; good ordinary, 5.18. Futures closed steady. October, 5.58; December, 5.56; January, 5.58; March, 5.62; May, 5.66; July, 5.69.

QUATSE SIGNED TO PLAY FOR ROONEYS

By TOM BIRKS

Manager Art Rooney, of the J. P. Rooneys, twice West Penn Independent Football Conference champions, announced this morning that Jess Quatse, all-America tackle at Pitt last year, had signed a contract to play with the North Siders. This is the first signature announced by Rooney for the 1932 edition of the Big Green machine. The Rooneys will play a night game at Greenlee Field next week.

Practically all of the West Penn and Lightweight Conference teams are swinging into action tomorrow or Sunday in order to get their makeups set before the opening of league play one week from Sunday.

None of the West Penn Conference teams, with the exception of the East Liberty Papales, is playing warmup games, but a few of the lightweights are booking extra attractions.

The Bachr Olympics, of McKeesport, have a practice scheduled for Olympia Park, and Coach Sullivan is going to send the boys through a strenuous workout. Al Dunn has the Dan Burns Club, of New Kensington, scheduled for a workout at Memorial Park. The Papales clash with St. John's Lyceum at the Washington Boulevard grounds.

Coach Hart Morris, of the Bellaire Eagles, is staging an extensive signal drill at Bellaire High School Field each evening. West View will hold its second practice at the park Sunday and Jimmy Rooney will get a look at the makeup of the champions at Phipps playgrounds.

The Scott Morgan Club, of Homewood, under the tutelage of Hooks Carroll, will have Export for its opening opposition at the playgrounds tomorrow afternoon. Oakmont Community meets the J. B. Reed eleven, of McKees Rocks, at the Frazier street grounds on Sunday. The Goose Goslins, of the South Side, will meet the Maurice Farms Club, of the North Side, at Carrick, Sunday afternoon.

NETTERS FACE HEAVY CARD

By PAUL G. SULLIVAN

Match and exhibition tennis makes up a full West Penn card for the impending week-end. Initiation of hostilities in the first annual Stanton Heights invitation men's singles tourney is slated for early tomorrow afternoon, with Steel City invasion of Leechburg likewise on the Saturday program.

The Stanton affair continues over Sunday, with Pittsburgh performers rounding out active period by jaunting to Butler for exhibition tilting on the Thomas W. Phillips estate.

Andy Smeaton, former Duquesne University net star, has announced that a four-man troupe will trek to Leechburg to encounter a home array led by Dr. Bischoff. In addition to Smeaton himself, there will be Eddie Alcorn, 1932 Pitt captain, John Brown, Mount Lebanon star, and Paul Sullivan of the P. A. A. in the Pittsburgh entourage. The Butler affair the ensuing afternoon calls for participation by Alcorn, Brown, Sullivan, Dr. John O'Loughlin, top ranking district racqueter, and perhaps Frank Broida, Pittsburgh Parks champion.

Meanwhile, plans for the tenth annual Harvard Cup interscholastic championship event, beginning here Monday, progress apace. Chairman Wells Fay reports gratifying response in the entry line and figures that aspirants to the number of 40 or more will step to the mark on the Pitt lot three days hence. Today is deadline for the filing of names for the milling.

VALENTINE

Captivating Story of a Shy Girl Rushed Into Love

By HAZEL LIVINGSTON

Val Insulted by Children Of Neighborhood When Gossip Spreads

CHAPTER XXIII.

It took Mrs. Neilson and Mrs. Tuscani, who lived at the corner and happened to be passing at the moment Mrs. Carey's shrieks began, and Mr. Clarkson, who had the afternoon off and was digging in his garden, to get Mrs. Carey home.

Quite a crowd gathered, to see the shrieking, sobbing woman led across the street, and up her own front stops.

Miss Macfarlane, secretly hoping that the fat woman's heart wouldn't prove equal to the strain, followed, bringing aromatic spirits of ammonia and a hot water bag filled with cracked ice for her head.

It was all over the neighborhood when Val got home.

She had delayed to buy a white silk nightie that she had been admiring for days in a Broadway specialty shop window. Far too expensive . . . but when you have a real ermine jacket, and four extravagant Hollywood costumes it's absurd not to have at least one really beautiful nightgown like that.

So she came home, holding the tissue wrapped garment in its pasteboard box, carefully under her arm. She'd spend tomorrow making sachets to put away with her best lingerie, and if she could find a really nice pattern in any of the fashion books she'd get Aunt Julia to help her make a negligee like that pink one of Millie's, only she'd have hers blue, or mauve, possibly.

"Hello . . . how are you? How do you do, Mrs. Neilson!"

HEARS ABOUT EXCITEMENT

The whole neighborhood seemed to be out, standing around in little groups, gossiping. Something must have happened . . . a fire or an accident. She hoped nobody was hurt. Blue would probably be the better color for the negligee. Blue, in a good, soft crepe-backed satin . . .

"You missed it, Val!" Mr. Clarkson put down his rake and wiped his warm face on his sleeve as Val turned into the sidewalk between the two houses.

"Yes? What did I miss?" Val stopped. She had always liked quiet Mr. Clarkson, so different from his noisy, talkative wife.

Mrs. Carey pretty near had a fit on the street. Your aunt's just come back from there—"

"Mrs. Carey! She did? Why, whatever——"

"Your aunt'll tell you. I guess she found out about that engagement ring of yours, and where you got it, and she didn't like it too well. But don't you worry. She'll get over it, they all do——"

"But I—I don't see——"

"Well, your aunt'll tell you, Val."

Mrs. Neilson and Mrs. Tuscani, shading their eyes with their hands, were standing, watching. Val looked their way just in time to see Mrs. Tuscani nudge Mrs. Neilson, and point.

TROUBLE STARTS

They were talking about her. The whole neighborhood was talking about her and Mrs. Carey.

"Thanks, Mr. Clarkson," she said hastily, and holding her package tight, she hurried around the side, and into the kitchen.

One look at Val's face, and Aunt Julia knew that she knew.

"Well, I spilled it. You may as well know first as last!"

"Aunt Julia, how COULD you tell her! You know I wanted to keep it a secret! Why, we never wanted her to know until after we were married. Oh, I feel just sick about it. I don't know what Joe will say."

Embarrassed, heartsick because Val felt so bad about it, poor Aunt Julia could only reiterate, "She drove me to it. I had to tell her, to make her shut her silly mouth."

"But she didn't shut it," Val said dryly. "She won't. You wait. This is just starting."

It was. Georgie Carey, who was 16 and old enough to know better, put Vivian and the little Neilson girl up to throwing orange peelings and torn papers on the Macfarlane sidewalk. Little Artie Tuscani, dared by Vivian Carey, spat on Miss Macfarlane's broad back as she wiped up the front steps after he and some of the other children had thrown dirt on them.

Mrs. Carey, head wrapped in a damp towel, went from one neighbor to the other, asking for sympathy, telling what a good boy Joe always was before he got interested in Valentine, and how he never would have done this if the Macfarlanes hadn't taken advantage of him.

FOLLOWED BY CHILDREN

Val was the center of all eyes every time she showed her face outside of the house, which was only on her way to work, and from work at night. Inspired by the incorrigible Georgie, Artie Tuscani and all the little boys and girls of the neighborhood and several barking dogs followed her chanting:

"There she goes, there she goes, all dressed up in her Sunday clothes—"

Of late the Macfarlanes had been suspected of thinking themselves just a little better than the rest of the neighbors, so mothers were inclined to be just a little lenient toward juvenile delinquency now.

Housewives gathered in little groups in kitchens, back-yards and neighboring grocery stores:

"She says she'd rather see her son in his coffin than married to that girl. Do you suppose she knows something about her? She always seemed all right, still . . .

"Poor Mrs. Carey! After all she's done, to raise that big family and now when the oldest boy has got so he might be some comfort to her, he wants to get married! It does seem so sad, her a widow and all."

AUNT JULIA IRRITATED

"She says she won't be able to stand it. It wouldn't surprise me if she committed suicide!"

"What? You don't think that!"

"Well, it wouldn't surprise me. I tell you she's just put all her stock in that boy, and she's pretty desperate. She's a sick woman, too."

Val went back and forth to the office to work, pretending not to care.

Julia Macfarlane, irritated and nervous, become actually belligerent in her attitude towards Mrs. Carey.

"Suicide, Mrs. Clarkson! You don't tell me. Well, if I were you I wouldn't worry. You couldn't kill her with an ax. I just hope Val hasn't heard that kind of talk, that's all. She's sensitive . . . I declare it's too bad!"

To Val she blustered and boasted, and pretended to think it was all very funny. But that night she wrote Millie. Perhaps it might be better if Val returned to her for a little while . . .

Millie sent a check by return mail, and her love. Just at this time it wasn't convenient to have Val with her. Her affairs were rather chaotic just now. Perhaps a little later . . .

Julia Macfarlane gathered from the tone of the letter that Millie had her own troubles. The check was for fifty, instead of the hundred or hundred and fifty she had been sending of late.

Val, determined not to worry Joe, wrote briefly that his mother had found out, and wasn't very pleased.

What his mother wrote was another story.

Hunched over the kitchen table, her pale hair straggling around her neck, eyes red and swollen, tears blotting the ink almost as fast as she wrote, Mrs. Carey wrote seven pages, explaining just how she felt.

The next morning she read it over, regretted that some of the best phrases were lost in blots. She was about to copy it over when it occurred to her that perhaps it was better left as it was.

What son could read a mother's tear-defaced letter and not know, more surely than words could tell him, what was in her aching heart?

Heart of a Wife

By ADELE GARRISON

Madge Prepares for Dinner Dance for Arlens

I had planned a day's breathing space following the departure of the Underwoods and the young people to the shore cottage, for I was not needed except for emergency in the sick room, and my mother-in-law was still insistent upon caring for Baby Faith; but not half an hour after Dicky had left me on the veranda, Katie touched me on the shoulder and awakened me from one of the most restful naps I ever have experienced.

"Me, I so sorry," she said, then added rebelliously, "Eet shoost shame, you sleeping so nice, almost like babby, but dot old vomans she say you coom oopstairs by her, right avay qveeck."

I had a very clear idea of what my mother-in-law wanted of me, and was not surprised when she greeted me with an imperative "Sit down!" adding, when I had obeyed her: "What have you done about cleaning up after that gang of young ones?"

"Why!" I stammered. "I haven't done anything. They left only a little while ago, and I've been busy since."

"There are so many rooms empty," she said, "that the ones left can move into those while their own are being cleaned. Then we can go after the empty ones. Do you see?"

"Yes, I see," I answered, and indeed I did see much more than she was saying. I saw days of incessant bustle and confusion, with clashes between my doughty mother-in-law, my temperamental little maid and my neighbor, Mrs. Tiger, who would be called in to help, and whose feelings would not, I feared, be proof against Katie's jealousy of her and my mother-in-law's martinet little ways.

HIDES RESENTMENT

But I also saw the advantages of the plan. With so many gone, we could get the bulk of the regular fall cleaning done, and also have the house ready for the house party and dinner-dance that I knew I must give for the Arlens, in order to grant Philip Veritzen's request for some social attention to them. So, swallowing the resentment I always feel at her high-handed seizing of the household reins, I made my answer cheerful, almost enthusiastic.

"I think that's a very good plan," I said. "Where shall we begin?"

"In Richard's room and your father's. They can move into the vacant rooms, and when theirs are cleaned, they can come back and not be disturbed again. How long are those Chinese going to stay?"

"Only for two or three days longer, I think. Maj. Grantland is going to rent The Larches and take them over there."

"Humph!" Her keen old eyes searched my face. "That means he's going to settle down here until Marion's birthday, I suppose. Well! You and Richard know your own business best."

A BUSY WEEK

The repression in her words and tone were more cutting than an open tirade would have been, and I was furious to find my cheeks hot and knew that they must be crimson. But my mother-in-law was already miles away in mind from my personal problems, and had brought out the paper and pencil with which she always makes elaborate outlines of the tasks to be done in housecleaning time.

For a week thereafter we lived at the heart of a cyclone. It was confined to the upper floors until Hugh, his tenancy of The Larches arranged, took his patients to his new abode and installed nurses from the hospital for them. Then the tornado of cleaning descended to the first floor and the basement. Even my studio bungalow, so recently built, did not escape.

When at last my mother-in-law declared herself content to rest—not satisfied—the house was in perfect order and I had the satisfaction, too, of knowing that the belongings of Hank and Bill were in shape for going back to school. As I looked around my room I knew also that when it came time for me to go to the city I had to do nothing save pack my bags and walk out of the door.

But before that day the dinner-dance must be arranged. That was to be the swan song of the summer festivities at the farm. Reluctantly I prepared for the call upon Mrs. Arlen, which I must make before inviting her and her daughter to be the guests of honor at our party.

IT SAVED HER DAUGHTER

IT IS the daughter herself—Miss Rose Lama—who willingly gives the facts in a letter.

She says, "My mother wanted me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I was younger. But I wouldn't. If I had, I might have been a well girl now. I suffered terribly every month."

Finally the girls in her office convinced her. She tried it at last. Now she is on the way to greater health and happiness. Mothers—tell your daughters. And daughters—take your mother's advice. Suffering is unnecessary.

Kline Wins

But the Cause of Decency in Civic Government Has Benefited by His Prosecution.

It is no secret that the majority of Butler County jurors that tried Mayor Charles H. Kline and his former director of supplies, Bertram L. Succop, on the malfeasance charges wished to find the Mayor guilty on a number of counts, but that a woman member of the jury desired to acquit him on all counts. In compromising, the jury reached a verdict that even to the layman seemed scarcely likely to stand; for he was found guilty on one count, but not guilty on other counts based on integral parts of the same transaction for which he was convicted. It was as if a man had been found guilty of felonious shooting, while at the same time found not guilty of carrying or possessing firearms.

Judge Thomas D. Finletter's overruling of the Kline verdict comes therefore as no surprise. If the acquittal of the Mayor is a miscarriage of justice, the blame must rest on the jury.

Director Succop may or may not have been a mere tool. It is incredible that he should have conducted his office in the unlawful manner of which he has been found guilty without the knowledge of the Mayor. If just a few isolated examples of favoritism in the awarding of contracts had come to light, we might believe that Succop was solely responsible; but favoritism appears to have been the settled policy of his office. Of his personal guilt there can be no doubt, but many will feel that he has been made a goat.

District Attorney Andrew T. Park, the Citizens' Committee, which unearthed much of the evidence, the League of Women Voters, and others who helped in the prosecution, deserve the thanks of the community.

Notwithstanding that Mayor Kline has emerged a victor, the cause of decency in civic government has benefited by his prosecution.

New Light Rate Offer

If the Company Wishes to Show Good Will, Let It Reduce Its Charges Now.

The Duquesne Light Company, dickering with the city for an agreement that legal proceedings will not be instituted to compel it to cut its rates, is reported to have submitted a new offer to the City Council. The latest proposal, it is said, would mean, if accepted, a reduction of about 20 cents a month in the light bill of the average small consumer.

Well, that is an improvement on the first offer, which would have given a cut of about 10 cents a month in the average bill.

Months have been consumed in the negotiations, and in the meantime, with an agreement still not reached, the people of Pittsburgh continue to pay the same high rates that obtained when prosperity was at its height—rates so high that even with all the poverty and industrial depression of last year they enabled the Duquesne Light Company to report the highest earnings in its history.

Admitting by its offer of lower rates that it can reduce its charges without serious loss, the Duquesne Light Company has, nevertheless, during these months of negotiation with City Council, taken, through continuing to charge the old high rates, hundreds of thousands of dollars from the people of Pittsburgh—hundreds of thousands of dollars that the people could ill afford to pay, and should not have been made to pay.

If the company wishes to show good will and good faith, let it put the reduction that it now proposes into effect at once, and not wait for the termination of the negotiations.

Council probably will not have the last word to say on the matter anyway. The Public Service Commission is inquiring into the justice of the Duquesne Light Company's rates, and, as now constituted, the commission is not likely to tolerate exhorbitant rates.

The light company can present a better defense to the charge of gouging the public if it will voluntarily reduce its rates now.

Attractive Wharf Plan

The Vang Proposal for Improving the River Front Has Much to Commend It.

From various standpoints the plan for improving the Allegheny River front, submitted to City Council yesterday by George Vang, the contractor, and Norman Brown, former county engineer, has much to commend it.

The feature of the proposal that makes the strongest impression is that it apparently offers an opportunity for beautification of the wharf at little expense to the city. Vang would spend $750,000 on docks and parking stations on the river front between Ninth and Stanwix streets, if the city should grant him a 15-year lease and construct a new one-way street paralleling Duquesne Way.

The matter does not call for hasty judgment, and a hasty decision would be inadvisable. Ample time should be given by Council to the consideration of the various problems involved in the project. There should be careful comparison of other plans.

Improvement of the river front is a civic duty urgently demanding attention. The shores of the streams which bound the Golden Triangle on two sides might easily be made an attractive feature of the city, as the river fronts of London, Paris, Prague and nearly all other old European cities are. Instead, our water front has been for years an eyesore, a neglected spot where rubbish is deposited and weeds thrive.

A Judge Cuts His Pay

A Fine Example of Altruism Is Set by a Franklin County Jurist.

Judge Watson R. Davison, of the Franklin County Court, announced on Wednesday that he was cutting his $10,000 salary 10 per cent. Since his salary is fixed by law, he is effecting the reduction by arranging to contribute $1,000 a year, in regular monthly payments, to the public charities of the county.

Judge Davison's voluntary sacrifice of a considerable part of his income is a fine example of altruism, and one that will be appreciated by the Franklin County taxpayers.

It is worthy of emulation.

Here in Allegheny County the pay of many of the county employes has been cut, and many others have been discharged. But the high-salaried county officials, who could stand a pay cut much better than the laborers and clerks, have as yet made no voluntary personal sacrifice to help lighten the taxpayers' burden, except that County Commissioner W. D. Mansfield, who is also a state Senator, donated to charity the money, less expense, that he received from the state for his services at Harrisburg during the recent special session of the Legislature.

Even the Mayor and Councilmen of Pittsburgh are now taking a pay cut.

The county officials should fall in line.

'So Goes the Nation!'

In bygone days when Dear Old Maine
Went strongly G. O. P.
It was a sort of weather vane
That all the world might see.
The cheerful Pachyderm arose
And trampled on the Donkey's toes,
"For that's the way the nation goes,"
He chortled in his glee.

The Pachyderm is ruined now,
A wreck from tail to trunk.
The Camel droops with battered brow,
A hopeless heap of junk.
Defiantly the Donkey blows
A scornful snicker at his foes:
"If that's the way the nation goes,
The G. O. P. is sunk."

Blackening Veterans As an Alibi

By Claude G. Bowers

Author of "The Struggle for Democracy in America," "Founders of the Republic," "Jefferson and Democracy," "The Tragic Era" and other important works, now writing for the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

This week Mr. Roosevelt will be in Missouri to attend the state convention. There he will meet Bennet Clark, son of Champ, and now, because of his own virtues, the nominee for the United States Senate. He possesses the robust, fighting qualities of his father, from whom he learned more of politics and political principles in his teens than most men learn in a lifetime.

This early saturation in public affairs has had two notable results—he is a senatorial nominee at a very early age, and he has just published a political biography which I have found most fascinating. It is, of all things, a biography of John Quincy Adams!

* * *

Biography Held Truly Masterly

Just how the son of Champ Clark, and an idolator of Andrew Jackson, came to write a sympathetic and authentic biography of Adams may puzzle many. I think I know the reason. No one can study the career of the petulant Adams without coming to this conclusion—that he was amazingly petty in petty things, and magnificently big in big things. He never was a hide-bound partisan.

Then there is another reason—Adams was a great figure of the House after his presidency, and the son af Champ Clark must have been brought up on the traditions that have gathered about the old man who fell dead in the House many years ago.

Whatever the reason, the biography itself is a masterly production, written with gusto and sympathy, in a style that moves along with dash and animation. It is a stirring narrative with a literary flavor, and an analysis of men and motives possible only to one who has known politics from the inside. After the 4th of March we shall have another literary statesman.

Hoover Notices B. E. F. Resentment

The general resentment, even among those having no sympathy with the veterans' demand for immediate payment of the bonus, of the methods by which they were driven from the nation's capital evidently has made an impression on Mr. Hoover and his general staff. At one stage from 15,000 to 20,000 were camped near Washington. The men who marched had, with few exceptions, actually served the nation on the battlefield. They, like millions of others, have been refused their inalienable right to earn their bread in self-respecting toil. Many of them had families that were suffering—women and children. Some of these accompanied the marchers.

As is inevitable in days of stress when men assemble, vicious elements inject themselves into the picture to cause disturbance. Unhappily in these days five "reds" in a group of a thousand strikers seem to justify the denunciation of all the strikers as "communists." So it was at Washington. But the real veterans, who offered their lives for the nation when many of their present critics were profiteering on the war, drove these enemies of American institutions out. There was more than one camp for these. The other element were driven out and had a camp of their own. The Washington chief of police commended the veterans for thus policing their own camps.

On the day the vote was taken on the bonus in the Senate, thousands of the real veterans, for whom "nothing would be too good when they came home," assembled about the Capitol. They stood on the steps outside. There was some uneasiness within. Mr. Curtis was in a panic. When the bonus was defeated the news was carried to these veterans.

Would they riot? Attack the Capitol? Resort to violence?

They did nothing of the sort—they stood, uncovered, sang "America," and quietly returned to their camps.

Such was the character of the overwhelming part of the unfortunate men who had fought for the republic and now found themselves refused the right to earn their bread in self-respecting toil.

* * *

Army Used to Oust Veterans

The method resorted to by Mr. Hoover and Pat Hurley to remove from Washington this spectacular illustration of conditions impressed many as almost incredible. The police who had handled the situation well and decently were brushed aside. The Army was called into the capital. Almost every branch of the Army! The tanks for the first time since the World War, in which these veterans fought, rumbled through the streets of the capital. Charges were made with bayonets. Soldiers set fire to the shacks of these miserable men, and they with their women and children were driven into the country. And "twas a glorious victory."

Even so, millions of law-abiding, patriotic citizens, reflecting upon the sorry display of military power, displacing the civil branch of the government which was amply able to handle the situation, concluded that, at best, Mr. Hoover and Pat Hurley had given way to hysteria.

Not a little puzzled and disappointed by the lack of general applause for the victorious troops under the gallant leadership of Pat Hurley, who thinks the unemployed, including the jobless veterans, should "shift for themselves," Mr. Hoover ordered a grand jury investigation.

There was treason "in them thar camps, sir," and treason must be punished.

And so the grand jury investigated and a few men were indicted—for carrying concealed weapons.

Imagine calling out the Army, using the tanks and bayonets instead of leaving the carriers of concealed weapons to the police. So the grave threat to the republic simmered down to that.

* * *

How Many Men Are Really Innocent?

Now, at the instance of Mr. Hoover, Attorney General Mitchell has devoted much time and expense to the task of proving that the 15,000 veterans were the "criminals and bums" described by members of the cabinet. Counting in every possible offense, such as very respectable gentlemen of very exclusive clubs have been guilty of, the whole power of the Administration has been able to find but 1,069 out of the 15,000 and more with a "record." Driving while intoxicated is one of the crimes shared, we are afraid, by many distinguished gentlemen of light and leading. Violation of traffic laws here becomes a heinous crime—and many a Wall Street operator has violated them time and again. More than 60 of the veterans are put down for "suspicion and investigation," even though the investigation evidently revealed nothing. Violation of liquor laws, which millions violate—even gentlemen of substance. Almost a tenth of the crimes charged are for "drunkenness." And to swell the number Mr. Mitchell has put down 41 for "miscellaneous" offenses—too unimpressive to mention. Eliminating "crimes" of this character the intensive microscopic investigation of the government by Mr. Mitchell finds out that out of 15,000 veterans 760 have committed real crimes—in explanation and extenuation of the tanks and cavalry, the bayonets and the torch.

In the light of the record we submit that it is infamous for Mr. Hurley or Mr. Hoover to characterize these unfortunate veterans as "bums," criminals and "reds." Were Mr. Hoover to address a great audience in the open air in this campaign there would be men in the crowd who had been guilty of most of the crimes charged in Mr. Mitchell's report. This would not be to the discredit of Mr. Hoover any more than it is to the veterans; and would no more call for tanks and bayonets and the torch. A truce to the denunciation of jobless men as "bums" and "reds!"

Marry-Go-Round

Love Is Not a Racket

Why can't a woman stick to her own game?

* * *

In business, politics, art and athletics woman has as much chance of winning as a man, these days. She has proved this in the recent Olympics, and she will prove it again in the coming election.

* * *

But playing at love is not a woman's game. It is a man's game. To a woman, love is the business of life. And, when she tries to make a pastime or a game of it, she will find that all the cards are stacked against her.

A man can manage to worry along somehow without love and never know what he has missed. He can even kid himself into believing that he prefers the little near-loves and flirtations, with which he fills in his spare evenings to the real thing.

* * *

But a woman who lives and dies without finding real love knows that she has been cheated—and that she has never really lived. She has only been marking time.

* * *

Woman has decided to take love casually and lightly. But no woman ever was born who could take love as casually and lightly and forget it as easily as a man can!

* * *

Woman has decided to experiment with her emotions. But men have been "experimenting" for so many hundreds of years that their flower-to-flower flitting has made women positively dizzy. NO woman can keep up with them.

That is why the world is full of the restless, unsatisfied women today, who want to know "what it is all about." Woman has been trying to play man's game, in the name of "sex-equality," or "self-expression" or the "single standard."

* * *

And the result has been a grand whoopee—for the men and an awful headache for the women!

* * *

Women may play a man's game in business or politics and beat him at it. But in love, she has got to play her OWN game and to play it better than a man does. Because the rules of the game are all in his favor—and she is playing to WIN, while he is playing just to PLAY.

* * *

A woman cannot be honestly cynical or flippant about love. She cannot ignore love any more than she can ignore the law of gravity. It is the most compelling force in her nature; the sine qua non of her existence.

* * *

When she plays with love, she is playing with T. N. T. And when she gets through, there isn't enough of her left to make it worth while to pick up the pieces.

* * *

To a man, love may be a racket; but to a woman it is the most serious business of life. By pretending to play at love, woman has given man a glorious opportunity to make a little game of it—a jolly little game, in which he takes all the winnings!

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

By O. O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Thoughts while strolling: I mix up Willard Keefe and Walter O'Keefe. Those pert bridal shops. Karl Kitchen has the set-up of a Potsdam guard. I always look away from a prison van. One-word description of Bernard Sobel—twitchy.

How the big banks, ha, ha, are now stressing, "No securities for sale." That queer eddy of wind on Fifty-seventh street. If a taxidermist can come through a depression the rest of us should. Jerome Beatty, a Lawrence, Kan., boy, who made good in the city. One of the town's grand old men—Adolphe Lewisohn.

Jules Bache somehow suggests Punch's picture of John Bull without side-burns. Those flurries of hope when the phone rings in a ticket agency. What has become of the talented Boardman Robinson? No one can look so world-weary as Earl Carroll. Or so electrically alert.

New York is becoming as full of bicycles as Rotterdam. William Stieg—a new Peter Arno. Somebody asks me for a receipt for paragraphing. Don Marquis expressed it perfectly years ago: "Make people think they think and they'll love you. Really make them think and they'll hate you."

Wonder if others like to ride on bus tops just to eavesdrop on young couples in front? There's a firm name for you—Stwing and Twyne. Bet Mr. Stwing lisps. Roxy talks always as though he were hoarse. Who remembers when they called an itinerant salesman a chapman?

Blossom Seeley doesn't look right without a neck fur. Manhattan is its best in 10 o'clock sunshine. And there's no place to watch it like a seat in an Astor window, watching the furious medley of Times Square cascading by. Or gazing over a parapet of the Empire.

* * *

Heigh ho and all that: Members of the fashionable jockey clubs are classed as employes and paid no federal tax on admissions this summer. And my sympathy is sincere for that sedate little Madison avenue book shop whose two windows are always filled with bright-jacketed books, which had to display a window card: "This is not a drug store."

* * *

Sam Hellman spends most of his time in France these days, running over for a week now and then to lunch with magazine editors. On his most recent trip he motored in to Paris from his vilayet and, having a few hours to spare, made a round of the bistros. At about the tenth it came upon him to sing, so he lifted his voice in an aria familiar to the St. Louis levees. He found an audience in another merry-maker, and, arm in arm, they sang from place to place until it was time for Hellman to entrain at the Gare St. Lazarre. Shaking hands with his compatriot, he remembered he did not know his name and asked it. "Titta Ruffo" was the reply, and it was none other than he.

* * *

Tin Pan Alley's new song-writing duo, Gordon and Revell, have been compared already to Gilbert and Sullivan. But not many know that Revell, who is English, made his first hit in London writing an American tune. It was titled "Way Down South in Nebraska."

* * *

Some strays: Buster West is not only a crack golfer, but a champ three-cushion billiardist. . . . Gene Fowler and Ben Hecht are finishing a play at Fire Island . . . Al Trahan, the comedian, was once a stereotyper in New Bedford, Mass., and, although left-handed, shoots 79 to 83 at golf . . . The Friars have the oldest club barber in town, Felix, 72, who has been there since the club opened . . . Walter O'Keefe, when a student at Notre Dame, boarded with Knute Rockne . . . J. J. Shubert is deadly afraid of cats.

* * *

No one ever believes my cat story. But it's true. Into the billiard room of the Gerdes, in Cincinnati, one wintry night there crept a black, bedraggled and meowing cat with a left ear in a fan-like gnawed stub and four white-tipped paws. A loafer, reversing the custom, trained it to jump in your lap at the cry of "Scat." Six months later on the stoop of a West Fifty-seventh street boarding house in New York, I told the story to fellow boarders. When I repeated the cry of "Scat," a feline jumped out of the shadows into my lap. It was the Cincinnati cat or its spittin' image. And, I spent the rest of the night thumbing back my eyes.

LISTEN, WORLD

By Elsie Robinson

"Stick by America!"

Lots of people saying that, nowadays.

"Don't sell America short! America is still the greatest nation on earth. We've got the finest form of government, the greatest institutions, the grandest people. Lookit our schools. And our hospitals. And our parks and highways. Lookit the big generous American standard of living!

"Remember these things. Be proud of them. Don't let foreigners put the bee on us. Don't knock America. BOOST AMERICA!"

Everywhere you hear advice like that. And it's good advice; brave and necessary advice. Boost America, by all means! Boost America with every ounce of your love and loyalty and intelligence.

Work for America!

Fight for America!

Pray for America!

Die for America—if need be.

Believe in America as you've never believed in her before. Believe in her, and make the other fellow believe in her. There's the stuff that will lift us all out of this muddle. So get ready, and BOOST!

But—

BE SURE YOU'RE REALLY BOOSTING, AND NOT JUST BOASTING.

BOOSTING is big medicine, good for the citizen who does it and good for the country for which it is done. But BOASTING if different. Nearly always, boasting is a blow-off for conceit, a cover-up for cowardice; and the boaster puts himself, and the thing of which he boasts, on the spot.

BOOSTERS HAVE DONE GREAT THINGS FOR AMERICA.

BUT BOASTERS HAVE DONE AND ARE DOING IRREPARABLE HARM TO AMERICA.

Stupid, stubborn boasters, who insist that America is perfect, that she mustn't be criticized, that she doesn't need to be changed, are the worst enemies this country has. They are as bad for this country as racketeers. They shackle her progress and undermine her reputation as viciously as the most lawless criminals.

THE MOMENT AN INDIVIDUAL OR A NATION BECOMES SELF-SATISFIED, THAT MOMENT IT BEGINS TO DIE. A PEOPLE CANNOT DEVELOP THEIR VIRTUES UNTIL AND UNLESS THEY FACE THEIR FAULTS.

And, despite the splendor that lies in her past and the beauty that exists in her present, America has faults. Not only the small, inevitable faults which are part of all vigorous growth, but deep and ugly and utterly damnable faults, for which there is no excuse, and which should not be permitted to exist another day.

America loves children; yet in no other civilized country are child laborers as cruelly exploited as in America. America honors mothers; yet no other civilized country has as high a maternity mortality rate. America exists for the working man; yet today, over 11,000,000 men and their helpless dependents roam this country homeless, hungry and hopeless.

We cannot truly love America; we cannot truly help America; we cannot truly BOOST America, unless we face these conditions and organize ourselves to cure them. And the misguided zealot who tries to camouflage these conditions and soothe our national conscience by fulsome praise is not a patriot. Such a one as surely betrays this country as any enemy spy.

HONEST BOOSTING WILL SAVE AMERICA.

BE A BOOSTER, BUT NOT A BOASTER.

Once Overs

By J. J. Mundy

Beware of the person who would cajole you into doing something that you think you should not do.

Flattery is a tonic for some folk.

Every one is more or less susceptible.

There is a wide difference between genuine appreciation and flattery.

Appreciation is honest and flattery has some end to gain by it.

You can remember without any trouble of various times when you have been persuaded to do something which your conscience forbade because of the words of flattering praise that some person used to influence you.

It is childish to be led around that way, for you must admit that it works about as the person using such methods intends it shall.

It is surprising how even prominent people will be guided into something they don't want to do by slaps on the back and extravagant words as to their ability and influence.

Stock salesmen and many other salesmen have used flattery rackets.

Statesments such as "You are the favored first one to whom I come;" "Your reputation for good judgment;" "Your high-standing and business acumen" are some of the phrases that have pulled in customers.

Text for Today Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.—Isaiah, lv:6.

(Today's text is suggested by the Rev. J. M. Weber, pastor, St. James' Evangelical Lutheran Church, Arlington avenue.)

Isn't It So?

A fat kitchen makes a lean will.

Have not thy cloak to make when it begins to rain.

A dollar may go farther, but it doesn't come back as fast.

The plain truth is that when you were son's age you were not doing much better.

A man can save money for his old age, but he can't save his appetite so that he can enjoy old age.
